

jesty, will derive additional power from those dignified and grateful sentiments and recollections which will flow from your present most gracious and welcome visit.

That your Majesty may long be happy in receiving those genuine expressions of attachment to your person, family, and government, which your subjects in every part of your united kingdom vie with one another in offering before your throne; that you may long continue the beloved Sovereign of a people, united, and free, and happy; and that after a reign of prosperity and glory upon earth, you may obtain that crown of glory which fadeth not away, are the earnest prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful and most loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Stranraer.

Signed in our name, and at our appointment, by

WILLIAM ROSE, Moderator.

Stranraer, 15th August 1822.

[Transmitted by W. Maxwell, Esq.]

(To be Continued.)

HOLYROOD HOUSE—August 17, 1822.

The following Addresses were this day presented to the King, which his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.—

[Continued from last Gazette.]

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, the Royal Botanic Institution of Glasgow, beg leave to approach your Majesty with our cordial congratulations on your arrival in Scotland, which we hail as one of the most auspicious events in the annals of that ancient kingdom.

Honoured in being the first Society the royal favour has planted here for the cultivation of a science pre-eminently useful in every situation of our country, we rejoice in this opportunity of testifying our devoted attachment to the person, family, and government of your august Majesty, the illustrious patron of all the arts and sciences by which kingdoms flourish.

May your Majesty be graciously pleased to receive our homage.

And that Heaven may long prosper and preserve your Majesty, to rule and cherish a free, a learned, and grateful people, is the fervent prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the President and Members of the Royal Botanic Institution of Glasgow.

Signed in name and behalf of the said Institution, and their common seal affixed hereto, at Glasgow, the 6th day of August 1822.

HENRY MONTEITH, P.

THOMAS HOPKIRK, V. P.

HY. HOULDSWORTH.

JAMES FYFFE.

JAMES CORKINDALE, M. D.

MONCRIEFF MITCHELL.

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your loyal subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Renfrew, humbly congratulate your Majesty on visiting the Metropolis of this your ancient kingdom of Scotland, and offer our homage, and the assurance of our loyal attachment to your Majesty's person and government.

Dwelling in this your Majesty's ancient barony of Renfrew, at the site of one of the once cheerful habitations of your royal predecessors, we contemplate with veneration the numerous royal pedigree, and feel peculiarly happy in the succession of your Majesty in direct lineage to the dominion of these realms; and fervently pray, that God, the Almighty Creator, may bless your Majesty with long life, health, and happiness, to reign over a free and loyal people.

Signed by our appointment, in our name and presence, by Robert King, Esquire, Provost, and the seal of the burgh hereto affixed, at Renfrew, this 5th day of August 1822.

ROBERT KING, Provost.

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign.

We, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the members of the Incorporated Trade of Cordwainers in the Royal Burgh of Lanark, most humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty, to renew the profession of our devoted attachment to your Majesty's person and government.

We hail with sincere and lively joy your Majesty's gracious visit to your ancient kingdom of Scotland; and while we join in the love and respect, as sincere as they are universal, which are manifested on this occasion by your subjects towards your Majesty, we exult in the knowledge, of which your gracious and peaceful visit is the assurance, that these sentiments are met by a corresponding love and favour in your royal breast.

We fondly hope that your stay among us will be attended with as much happiness and satisfaction to your Majesty as to your subjects; and that it will tend to draw yet closer the bonds of love and duty, by which your subjects are attached to your Majesty.

Signed in name and by appointment of a special meeting of the Incorporation, held at Lanark, the 10th day of August 1822 years.

WILLIAM WATSON Deacon.

Unto his Most Sacred Majesty George the Fourth, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith,

The Address of the Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow, beg leave to present ourselves to your august notice, and to offer our hearty welcome on your visit to your Majesty's ancient kingdom of Scotland. Incorporated by your Majesty's royal ancestor, the first Monarch who wore the crown of both the British kingdoms, we are peculiarly called on, at the present occasion, to address your Majesty, while residing in the palace from which our charter emanated more than two centuries ago. In common with our fellow subjects, we rejoice in your Majesty's gracious and wise purpose to visit the various parts of your dominions, to renew in person the assurances of your parental regard to your subjects, and to receive from every rank in Society the most cordial demonstrations of their devoted attachment to your Majesty's person, family, and government.

That your Majesty may long live to enjoy the generous affections and homage of a grateful and loyal people, and may long continue to be venerated as the great head of our political constitution, and the guardian of our civil and religious liberties, has been, and ever will be our ardent prayer.

Signed by the Preses and Visitor, in our presence, and by our authority, the 5th day of August 1822 years, and the common seal of the Faculty affixed hereto accordingly.

JAS. MONTEATH, Preses.

GEORGE MACLEOD, Visitor.

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, your Majesty's affectionate and loyal subjects, the Deacon, Collector, Masters, and other Members of the Incorporation of Weavers in the City of Glasgow, beg leave to tender to your Majesty our sincere and dutiful congratulations on your arrival in the capital of your Majesty's ancient kingdom of Scotland.

Fully convinced of the great and lasting benefits which must result to your subjects from your Majesty's gracious visit, we regard it as an additional proof of your Majesty's anxious desire to promote their welfare, and encourage their industry and happiness; and while we, in common with our fellow citizens, regret that it is inconsistent with your Majesty's present arrangements to honour our city with your presence, we trust your Majesty will on some other occasion confer that honour on us, and visit an affectionate and grateful people as frequently as shall be consistent with the necessity for your royal presence in other parts of your Majesty's empire.

In your Majesty's illustrious person we recognize the lineal descendant of a long and royal line of Scottish Princes; and while we, as an incorporation and as individuals, beg leave to assure your Majesty of our unshaken attachment to your Majesty's person and government, we trust that your Majesty's valuable life will be long spared as a blessing to your faithful subjects.

Signed in our name and presence, and by appointment, and the seal of our incorporation is hereto affixed, at Glasgow, the 7th day of August 1822 years.

WILLIAM BUCHANAN, Deacon.
JAS. WILSON, Clerk to the Incorporation.

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the Royal Burgh of Cupar, in council assembled, beg leave humbly to approach the throne on the present joyful occasion, and to renew the assurances of our unshaken loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's person and government, and at the same time to offer to your Majesty our warmest congratulations on your Majesty's arrival in the capital of your ancient Scottish kingdom.

This distinguished mark of your royal favour and condescension has excited in our minds, in common with all ranks of your Majesty's faithful subjects, one universal sentiment of joy and gratitude,—while it fondly recalls to our recollection those times when this ancient and royal burgh was frequently honoured with the presence of your Majesty's illustrious ancestors.

That this your Majesty's royal visit may be gratifying to your Majesty, and be productive of all those benefits to the kingdom which your Majesty contemplated, and that your Majesty's reign may be long and prosperous, are,

May it please your Majesty,

Our most fervent prayers.

Signed in name and by appointment of the Council, and the seal of the burgh appended, by

ANDREW CHRISTIE, Provost.

To His Most Sacred Majesty George the Fourth, King of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Majesty,

We, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heritors of the County of Moray, beg leave to approach your royal presence, on the auspicious occasion of your Majesty's visit to your ancient dominions of Scotland.

Ardently attached to our country, bound to it