

Edinburgh Gazette.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

FROM TUESDAY, AUGUST 27, TO FRIDAY, AUGUST 30, 1822.

Edinburgh, August 29, 1822.

This afternoon, at ten minutes past three o'clock, his Majesty embarked from Port Edgar Pier, a little to the westward of Queensferry, on board his yacht the Royal George, and immediately proceeded on his voyage to England. His Majesty passed Inchkeith at half-past five o'clock, his yacht having all sail set, and a fine breeze from the north-north-west.

The following Addresses to the King having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Robert Peel, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, were presented by him to his Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty.

We, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nine Incorporated Trades of the ancient and Royal Burgh of Dundee, in Common Hall assembled, beg leave to approach your Majesty, with unfeigned expressions of our firm attachment to your Majesty's person and government, and to congratulate your Majesty on your safe arrival in this part of the united kingdom. We feel highly gratified by your Majesty's condescension in visiting Scotland, and affording your loyal subjects an opportunity of shewing their warm attachment to their Sovereign, and of thus drawing closer those ties of mutual affection which subsist between the King and his people.

That your Majesty, under the blessing of Divine Providence, may long be preserved to reign over a loyal, happy, and flourishing people, is our earnest wish and prayer.

Signed in name and by order of the meeting.
JAS. CHALMERS, Convener.

Dundee, 15th August 1822.
[Transmitted by the Honourable Mr Maule, M. P.]

To his Most Excellent Majesty, King George the Fourth, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Defender of the Faith,

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council, Feuars, Merchants, Ship-Owners, and other Inhabitants of the ancient burgh of barony of Thurso.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council, Feuars, Merchants, Ship-Owners, and other inhabitants of the ancient burgh of barony of Thurso, though placed in the most northern corner of your Majesty's dominions, yielding to none in sentiments of zeal and affection to your Majesty, beg leave, on the present joyful occasion, to approach your Majesty with renewed sentiments of loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's person and government, and to present our united and heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's gracious visit to our native country, your Majesty's ancient Kingdom of Scotland.

Recollecting with pride the long line of Kings who so happily swayed the sceptre of our native land, we rejoice to see their ancient palace of Holyrood once more gladdened with the presence of so illustrious a descendant; and most ardently pray that your Majesty's present visit may be productive of the highest gratification to your Majesty, and of lasting advantage to all classes of your Majesty's subjects in Scotland,—that the Almighty Governor of the Universe may grant your Majesty a long and prosperous reign,—and that the descendants of your great and illustrious House may rule over a loyal, a happy, and an affectionate people, while time endures.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, at a meeting called for the special purpose, at Thurso, the 5th day of August 1822 years, and the seal of the town is hereto affixed, by
GEO. PATERSON, Chief Magistrate.

[Transmitted by the Right Honourable Sir John Sinclair, Baronet.]

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty George the Fourth.

We, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Deacon, Boxmaster, and remanent Members of the Taylor Incorporation of your ancient Royal Burgh of Perth, with feelings of the highest veneration and respect, beg leave to approach your Majesty, for the purpose of expressing our most sincere congratulations on your Majesty's condescending visit to your ancient kingdom of Scotland.

With hearts as loyal as true, we, with your Majesty's other Scottish subjects, rejoice to behold the first of the British Monarchs who for nearly two centuries has condescended to honour Scotland with a royal visit, and, in unison with the feelings of your Majesty's other subjects, exult at having a Sovereign so illustrious and so beloved amongst us; and it is our sincere prayer, that your Majesty may be long spared to reign over a free and a loyal people.

Signed in our name and in our presence by JOHN FERGUSSON, Deacon.

Perth, 12th August 1822.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Breadalbane.]

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Burgh and Parochial Schoolmasters of Scotland, humbly beg leave to approach the throne, to offer our congratulations on your Majesty's arrival in your ancient kingdom of Scotland.

Deeply sensible as we are of the many public blessings we enjoy, we should be wanting in the duty we owe to your Majesty, if we did not, on this happy occasion, join the united voices of our countrymen, in testifying our joy, and expressing our fidelity and attachment to your Majesty's person and government.

As members of an institution which has, in an eminent degree, contributed to form the moral and religious character of our country, we make it our constant endeavour, to inculcate upon the minds of the youth intrusted to our care loyalty to your Majesty, reverence to the laws, and a steady attachment to the constitution.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign in the affections of a loyal, virtuous and enlightened people, is the sincere prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and affectionate subjects.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, at Edinburgh, the 17th day of August 1822.

CHARLES MELVILLE, Preses.

[Transmitted by the Preses.]

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty,

We, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Clergy and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Sutherland, beg to offer our dutiful congratulations to your Majesty on your safe arrival among your faithful and loyal subjects in Scotland.

We hail, with feelings becoming the occasion, the appearance of her Monarch once more in the capital of Scotland, (in the residence of your Majesty's illustrious ancestors, our ancient Kings), and in the midst of a people attached to the illustrious House of Buonswick, under whose auspices this united kingdom has enjoyed so much happiness at home, and attained such great renown among all foreign nations.

We humbly assure your Majesty, that our devotion to your royal person is commensurate with the deep sense of gratitude which we entertain for the paternal care and the great blessings experienced during the period of your Majesty's government, praying fervently that your Majesty's reign may continue long and prosperous.

Signed in a general meeting of the said county of Sutherland, held within the ancient Castle or Palace of Dornoch, the 1st day of August 1822 years, by

STAFFORD, Lieutenant.

[Transmitted by Lord Gower.]

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty.

We, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the Royal Borough of Dornoch, desire to offer our dutiful and loyal congratulations on the occasion of your Majesty's gracious visit to Scotland.

Though placed in a remote part of the kingdom, our gratification is not less lively than that of our fellow-subjects who at this moment enjoy the actual presence of your Majesty; and it is matter of peculiar pleasure to us, that we live where loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's royal House have ever been conspicuous.

We beg to assure your Majesty, that in these sentiments we never shall be deficient; and trust that we shall long enjoy the benefits of your Majesty's benignant reign, wishing your Majesty a protracted period of health, happiness, and every blessing that can enhance your Majesty's public and personal welfare.

Signed in a meeting of Council, held within the ancient Castle or Palace of Dornoch, the 1st day of August 1822 years, by

STAFFORD, P.

[Transmitted by Lord Gower.]

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the Deacon, Treasurer, and Members of the Incorporation of Hammermen of the City of Edinburgh, beg leave to tender to your Majesty our sincere and respectful congratulations on your auspicious arrival in your ancient capital of Scotland. To your Majesty's royal ancestors the Incorporation of Hammermen in former times have rendered their willing service; and had the circumstances of the country now required it, to no Monarch who has ever sat on the throne of these realms, would services have been tendered with more devoted hearts than those of the Incorporation of Hammermen to your Majesty.

We beg to assure your Majesty of our loyalty and attachment to your sacred person, and of our resolution to maintain unaltered that constitution, under which, by the paternal care of your Majesty, we enjoy so many blessings. That your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free and happy people, is the sincere prayer of your Majesty's devoted subjects, the Incorporation of Hammermen of the City of Edinburgh.

Signed in name and by appointment of the Incorporation of Hammermen, and their seal affixed hereto.

ROBERT GRAY, Deacon.

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty,

May it please your Majesty,

We, the Representatives of the Incorporated Trades of the ancient Burgh of Canongate, in Conventry assembled, humbly approach your Majesty with the warmest affection, veneration, and loyalty.

We most heartily congratulate your Majesty on your visit to your Scottish dominions; an event we have witnessed with exultation and joy, and which will be warmly cherished in our memory so long as the sceptre is swayed by your illustrious House.

Sensible of your Majesty's taste and superior knowledge of the arts and sciences, our attention shall be unremittingly directed to stimulate the industry of your Majesty's subjects under our charge; trusting that strict attention to our different professions will form the best excitement to the observance of those moral duties incumbent upon all your Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects.

Signed in our name and by our appointment, at Canongate, the 26th day of August 1822 years.

JAMES BUCHANAN, Convener.

[Transmitted by the Convener.]

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Weavers, Dyers, and Cloth-Dressers of the Burgh of Canongate and North Leith, within the domains of Holyrood, incorporated under many ancient local seals, and confirmed by royal charter A. D. 1630.

Sire,

The proudest period of our existence is surely the present moment, while honoured by the presence of our august and gracious Sovereign. We cordially join our hearty welcome to this portion of your Majesty's widely extended empire, and exult, as true Scotsmen, to add our feeble voice to the acclamation of our countrymen, who highly appreciate the favour of Heaven, that has given us the distinguished privilege of according with the favoured millions that hail your Majesty "Royal Father."

Permit us to hope this auspicious epoch is but the dawn of the many seasons your Majesty may be pleased to grant our ancient Burgh to rejoice in your royal presence.

Our ardent desire now is, that when the very short space is run that your Majesty's high functions can allot to grace happy Scotland on the present occasion, you may be restored in safety to the seat of your paternal government. That there, by the wisdom of your councils, your Majesty may be enabled to perpetuate the peace of Europe: that your Majesty may have leisure to extend your royal care to the improvement of arts and the advancement of knowledge; that your Majesty may reign long over a free, a happy, and a loyal people; and that the sceptre of the British empire by your Majesty's royal House to the latest posterity, is the unfeigned prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful subjects and devoted servants.

JNO. ROBERTSON, Deacon.

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the Incorporation of Carters in Leith.

May it please your Majesty

Graciously to receive the humble but hearty congratulations of your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Incorporation of Carters in Leith, on your safe arrival on our native shore.

It would yield us a high and heartfelt satisfaction, if our cordial welcome, in unison with the acclamations of your Scottish subjects, could increase the personal happiness, or add to the national glory of your Majesty.

Impressed with sentiments of profound attachment to your Majesty's person and government, it is our earnest prayer that you may live long to behold the increasing prosperity and stability of the British empire, and to rejoice in the favour and protection of Heaven.

Signed by our Boxmaster, in our name, and by appointment, at Leith, the 21st day of August 1822 years.

PETER DEWAR.

[Transmitted by Mr. Dewar.]

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the Incorporation of Porters of Leith.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty's humble but loyal subjects, the Incorporation of Porters of Leith, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the profoundest respect. Participating as we do in those feelings of enthusiasm which pervade all classes of the community on the present joyful occasion, permit us to congratulate your Majesty on your arrival in this your ancient kingdom; and to implore Heaven, during a long and happy reign, to shower its choicest blessings on your Majesty's sacred head.

Signed by our Boxmaster, in our name, and by appointment, at Leith, the 28th day of August 1822 years.

JAMES MUIRHEAD, Boxmaster.

[Transmitted by Mr. Muirhead.]

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty's most dutiful and devoted subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, Heritors, and Udallers of the Lordship of Zetland, with the deepest sentiments of attachment to your sacred person and government, beg to tender our dutiful congratulations on this your auspicious visit to the capital of your ancient kingdom of Scotland.

In common with the other Scottish subjects of your Majesty, we feel warmly and proudly the attachment evinced to us by this visit to our country. Individually we have been destined to inhabit the remotest islands of your Majesty's dominions; and at an early period our fathers even lived the subjects of another dynasty; but, thanks to Almighty God, we now enjoy with your other subjects the blessings of your Majesty's paternal government and care; and we rejoice in the opportunity that is now afforded us, of assuring your Majesty, that though distant, we have not been less alive to the value of these blessings, or less ready to do our humble part to insure the continuance of them, and the transmission of them in purity to our children and posterity.

May your Majesty, therefore, be long preserved to your people, as their father and their king; may your royal family long sway the hereditary sceptre over them; and, if consistent with the other and greater duties of the state, may we, in future years, have other and similar opportunities of expressing these our sentiments of devotion and affection to the sacred person and government of your Majesty.

Signed in our name and by our appointment,

WILLIAM HENDERSON of Gloup, P.

[Transmitted by Captain Henderson.]

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

We, the Members of the Institution for the encouragement of the Fine Arts in Scotland, humbly approach your Majesty's throne, to tender, in common with the rest of your Majesty's loyal and faithful subjects of Scotland, the assurance of our devoted attachment to your Majesty's person and government; and we eagerly avail ourselves of the opportunity which your Majesty's arrival in this your ancient kingdom affords us, of again expressing our respectful and most grateful acknowledgements for the high honour which your Majesty has conferred upon the Institution, by graciously consenting to become its Patron.

From the encouragement which the Fine Arts have received in the southern part of the kingdom, and which has been eminently excited and kept alive by your Majesty's influence and example, they have there attained a degree of excellence, which reflects the greatest credit upon the individuals whose talents and industry have, under your Majesty's patronage, been so successfully devoted to their study and improvement. Among these, it is gratifying to us to find the names of Scottish artists so prominently distinguished. They have, indeed, had the proud satisfaction of seeing their works marked by your Majesty's particular approval; an honour the most enviable to a man of genius, as is at once the testimony of the most exalted rank, the soundest judgment, and the most refined taste.

In recurring, therefore, to the past, we have abundant reason for expressing our belief, that there is no want of talent for art in Scotland; a country which, indeed, seems peculiarly fitted to produce painters, from the simple but varied character of its inhabitants, and the picturesque features of its scenery.

Influenced by these considerations, this Society was formed, in order to call forth native talent, to aid its progress, and to promote throughout the country the cultivation of a taste for the fine arts; and, under so valuable and flattering a patronage as that of your Majesty, we humbly hope that our efforts may not prove altogether unworthy of the cause for which we were associated.

It is under this impression that we now earnestly solicit a continuance of your Majesty's countenance and support; and we cannot but look forward with some confidence to its being bestowed, when we call to remembrance your Majesty's known promptitude in advancing every institution which has for its object to foster genius, and to encourage deserving merit.

HOPETOUN, Chairman.

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty,

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Alford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Alford, beg leave to approach your Majesty upon the occasion of your royal visit to this your ancient kingdom of Scotland, with the renewed assurance of our loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's person and government.

In common with all our fellow-subjects, we see in that gracious visit the most beneficent desire in your Majesty to promote the welfare and happiness of your people, and, at the same time, we feel that this distinguished mark of your royal and parental regard to your Majesty's Scottish subjects, will confirm in their hearts that faithful and ardent loyalty, which, under our happy constitution, is the parent of every patriotic virtue, and the source of social union and prosperity.

That the Divine Providence may continually watch over your Majesty, to prolong the life, increase the personal happiness, and direct the councils of your Majesty, for the good of your people, are the sincere prayers of,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Alford.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, at Bridge of Alford, this 7th day of August 1822, by

WM. MALCOLM, Moderator.

Unto the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty,

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Right Worshipful Master, Wardens, and Brethren of Saint Andrew's Lodge, Banff.

May it please your Majesty,

We, the Right Worshipful Master, Wardens, and Brethren of Saint Andrew's Lodge of Freemasons, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, doubly attached to your Majesty's sacred person by those mystic ties to which your Majesty has given renovated strength, by the patronage you have vouchsafed to the institutions of Freemasonry, do approach your Majesty's throne with becoming veneration, and with that warmth of feeling and affection which, throughout the lapse of ages, has animated the breasts of Freemasons.

We hail with heartfelt joy the arrival of your Majesty in the ancient Halls of your distinguished ancestors.

Proud was that day for Scotland, and through after ages will it be remembered with delight, when the sons and daughters of Scotia, gathered even from her most sequestered glens, welcomed the approach of their patriot King, when the banner of his great progenitor waved over his sacred head, when the hearts of countless thousands beat high with exultation at the sight of a beloved Monarch, surrounded by a generous and undaunted people.

Deign, Sire, to accept our congratulations; and graciously permit us to indulge a hope, that the land of the Bruce and the Wallace may often again be gladdened by your presence, so that its mountains may again blaze, its rocks resound, its bards may have cause to sing, and its people to exult with joy.

May the Almighty architect of the universe guard and protect your Majesty, direct your councils, strengthen and support your plans, and adorn and prolong your valuable life, as a blessing to your country and people.

Signed in name and by appointment of the Brethren of the Lodge.

JOS. WHITE, Master.

Judicial Sale

OF
LANDS AND TENEMENTS AT TAIN, A HOUSE
IN CROMARTY, AND A TENEMENT IN HUNTLY.

To be Sold, by Public Roup, within the Parliament or New Session House of Edinburgh, upon Wednesday the 27th day of November next, betwixt the hours of two and four afternoon, before the Lord Ordinary on the Bills,

THE following LANDS, TENEMENTS, and others, which belonged to the late James Innes, residing in Tain, sometime agent there for the Bank of Scotland, viz.

Lot 1st, The Lands of HARTFIELD, in the immediate vicinity of the burgh of Tain, including 21 acres of moor-ground, feued from the burgh. The Lands are held but-gage; and the free proven rental, after deducting public and parish burdens, is £47: 7s.

From their local situation, and capability of improvement, these lands have been valued, and are appointed by the Court to be exposed at 27 years purchase of the free rental, which amounts to £1,278: 9s.

Lot 2. That Tenement in the High Street of the burgh of Tain, presently possessed by Mr John Gordon Robertson, surgeon, John Robertson, hardware-merchant, and Alexander Ross, merchant; and that other Tenement adjoining the above, presently possessed by Hugh Ross, Serjeant Alexander Macdonald, and Isabel Ross. Both these tenements are burdened with the liferent of a person who is now 36 years of age. The proven rental of the former tenement is £43; and the proven value is 18 years purchase, which amounts to

£774 0 0

Less, the value of the said liferent, according to the calculation of an accountant, when the liferenter was only 34 years of age,

512 11 3

£261 8 9

The proven rental of the other tenement is £7, and the proven value, being 12 years purchase, is

£84 0 0

Less, the value of the fore-said liferent, as above,

63 8 3

20 11 9

£282 0 6

The Court has, therefore, ordered this lot to be exposed at the upset price of £282: 0: 6.

Lot 3. That Tenement on the south side of the High Street of Tain, presently possessed by the said John Robertson, and by Mrs Elizabeth Reach. The proven rental of this lot is £47; and the Court has appointed it to be exposed at 14 years purchase, being £668.

Lot 4. That Tenement on the south side of the High Street of Tain, presently possessed by Alexander Clark, house-carpenter, and the widows of David Grant, shoemaker, and William Sinclair, baker.

Part of this tenement is feued to the said Alexander Clark for a yearly feu-duty of £5 0 0. And part was let to the said David Grant for 19 years after Whitsunday 1803, at a yearly rent of

£0 8 0

£5 8 0

The remainder was sold to the said William Sinclair for £210, of which there has only been paid £164: 18: 9s. and no disposition has yet been granted. The Court has appointed this lot to be exposed at 18 years purchase of the above rental of £5: 8s. being

£70 4 0

And the balance of the price of the part sold to William Sinclair, amounting to £45 1 2½

Making the upset price £115 5 2½. The purchaser will be taken bound to grant a disposition to William Sinclair's heirs, upon receiving the balance of the price of the part sold to him.

Lot 5. That Tenement on the north side of the High Street of Tain, presently possessed by David Ross, Esquire, Sheriff-substitute. The free proven rental of this lot is £24; and the Court has appointed it to be exposed at 15 years purchase, being £360.

Lot 6. That Tenement on the south side of the High Street of Tain, presently possessed by Mr Donald Ross, merchant. The proven rental of this tenement is £35; and the Court has ordered it to be exposed at 15 years purchase, which amounts to £525.

Lot 7. That House and Piece of Ground, situated on the east side of Geanies Street, in the New Town of Tain, presently possessed by Hugh Ross, saddler. The free proven rental of this lot is £5: 13: 0s; and the Court has appointed it to be exposed at £73: 9: 9s, being 13 years purchase of the free rental.

Lot 8. A House in Cromarty, presently possessed by Margaret Bain, Janet Mackay, and Catharine Ross. The proven rental is £4: 15s.: and the Court has ordered this lot to be exposed at 12 years purchase, being £37.

Lot 9. A Tenement in Huntly, situated on the south side of the square of that burgh, presently possessed by Peter Bremner. The free proven rental of this tenement is £10: 18s. 4d. and the Court has ordered it to be exposed at 12 years purchase, which amounts to £131.

The Lands of Hartfield and Tenements in Tain will be shewn by David Ross, Esquire, Sheriff-substitute there: The house in Cromarty by James Taylor, Esquire, Sheriff-substitute there; and the tenement in Huntly by Mr. Alexander Stewart, writer there.

The articles of roup and title-deeds are in the hands of Mr Robert Menzies, depute-clerk of Session; and every information will be given upon applying to Messrs Inglis & Weir, W. S., Edinburgh, or to John Macrae, Esquire, Humberston by Dingwall.
