

Edinburgh Gazette.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

FROM TUESDAY, AUGUST 27, TO FRIDAY, AUGUST 30, 1822.

Edinburgh, August 29, 1822.

This afternoon, at ten minutes past three o'clock, his Majesty embarked from Port Edgar Pier, a little to the westward of Queensferry, on board his yacht the Royal George, and immediately proceeded on his voyage to England. His Majesty passed Inchkeith at half-past five o'clock, his yacht having all sail set, and a fine breeze from the north-north-west.

The following Addresses to the King having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Robert Peel, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, were presented by him to his Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty.

We, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nine Incorporated Trades of the ancient and Royal Burgh of Dundee, in Common Hall assembled, beg leave to approach your Majesty, with unfeigned expressions of our firm attachment to your Majesty's person and government, and to congratulate your Majesty on your safe arrival in this part of the united kingdom. We feel highly gratified by your Majesty's condescension in visiting Scotland, and affording your loyal subjects an opportunity of shewing their warm attachment to their Sovereign, and of thus drawing closer those ties of mutual affection which subsist between the King and his people.

That your Majesty, under the blessing of Divine Providence, may long be preserved to reign over a loyal, happy, and flourishing people, is our earnest wish and prayer.

Signed in name and by order of the meeting.
JAS. CHALMERS, Convener.

Dundee, 15th August 1822.
[Transmitted by the Honourable Mr Maule, M. P.]

To his Most Excellent Majesty, King George the Fourth, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Defender of the Faith,

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council, Feuars, Merchants, Ship-Owners, and other Inhabitants of the ancient burgh of barony of Thurso.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council, Feuars, Merchants, Ship-Owners, and other inhabitants of the ancient burgh of barony of Thurso, though placed in the most northern corner of your Majesty's dominions, yielding to none in sentiments of zeal and affection to your Majesty, beg leave, on the present joyful occasion, to approach your Majesty with renewed sentiments of loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's person and government, and to present our united and heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's gracious visit to our native country, your Majesty's ancient Kingdom of Scotland.

Recollecting with pride the long line of Kings who so happily swayed the sceptre of our native land, we rejoice to see their ancient palace of Holyrood once more gladdened with the presence of so illustrious a descendant; and most ardently pray that your Majesty's present visit may be productive of the highest gratification to your Majesty, and of lasting advantage to all classes of your Majesty's subjects in Scotland,—that the Almighty Governor of the Universe may grant your Majesty a long and prosperous reign,—and that the descendants of your great and illustrious House may rule over a loyal, a happy, and an affectionate people, while time endures.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, at a meeting called for the special purpose, at Thurso, the 5th day of August 1822 years, and the seal of the town is hereto affixed, by
GEO. PATERSON, Chief Magistrate.

[Transmitted by the Right Honourable Sir John Sinclair, Baronet.]

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty George the Fourth.

We, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Deacon, Boxmaster, and remanent Members of the Taylor Incorporation of your ancient Royal Burgh of Perth, with feelings of the highest veneration and respect, beg leave to approach your Majesty, for the purpose of expressing our most sincere congratulations on your Majesty's condescending visit to your ancient kingdom of Scotland.

With hearts as loyal as true, we, with your Majesty's other Scottish subjects, rejoice to behold the first of the British Monarchs who for nearly two centuries has condescended to honour Scotland with a royal visit, and, in unison with the feelings of your Majesty's other subjects, exult at having a Sovereign so illustrious and so beloved amongst us; and it is our sincere prayer, that your Majesty may be long spared to reign over a free and a loyal people.

Signed in our name and in our presence by JOHN FERGUSSON, Deacon.

Perth, 12th August 1822.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Breadalbane.]

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Burgh and Parochial Schoolmasters of Scotland, humbly beg leave to approach the throne, to offer our congratulations on your Majesty's arrival in your ancient kingdom of Scotland.

Deeply sensible as we are of the many public blessings we enjoy, we should be wanting in the duty we owe to your Majesty, if we did not, on this happy occasion, join the united voices of our countrymen, in testifying our joy, and expressing our fidelity and attachment to your Majesty's person and government.

As members of an institution which has, in an eminent degree, contributed to form the moral and religious character of our country, we make it our constant endeavour, to inculcate upon the minds of
