FROM FRIDAY, AUGUST 30, TO TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1822.

The following Addresses to the King having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Robert Peel, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, were presented by him to his Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Right Worshipful the Master, Depute-Master, Wardens, and other Office-Bearers and Members of St. Machar's Lodge of Freemasons in Aberdeen.

May it please your Majesty.

We, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Right Worshipful the Master, Depute-Master, Wardens, and other Office-Bearers and Members of St. Machar's Lodge of Freemasons in Aberdeen, beg leave to approach your sacred person, and with the sincerest joy to congratulate your Majesty upon your safe, and, we trust, happy arrival in the metropolis of your northern dominions.

Permit us, most gracious Sovereign, earnestly to solicit a continuance of your fatherly care for our ancient and honourable order, of which you are so justly the head and protector.

With hearts full of all the sentiments which the warmest gratitude and most affectionate duty can inspire, we sincerely pray that the same good Providence which has hitherto preserved your invaluable life, may still continue your effectual safeguard, and defend your sacred person from every danger.

Signed and sealed by appointment, in the name and on behalf of the Lodge of St. Machar at Aberdeen, this 12th day of August 1822 years of the Christian Æra, and of Light 5826.

MARIANUS MASSIE, Right Worshipful Master.

QUHYTEWOOLEN LODGE,
Lockerbie, 17th August 1822.

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty.

We, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful subjects, the Right Worshipful Master, Wardens, and Brethren of the Lockerbie Quhytewoolen Lodge of Freemasons, No. 262, animated by that spirit which pervades every class of your Majesty's subjects, and deeply impressed with a sense of the many invaluable advantages we have enjoyed since your Majesty condescended to become the Patron of our Order, we take this first and early opportunity of expressing our faithful attachment to your Majesty's sacred person and government, and also to your illustrious House, on this your Majesty's gracious visit to your ancient and hereditary kingdom of Scotland.

And, Sire, while we congratulate you on your safe arrival in the ancient capital of your royal progenitors, and hail your Majesty as our Sovereign and Lord, we have also the high and distinguished honour of addressing your Majesty by the name of Brother, and Patron of that Order to which we claim kindred.

That your Majesty may long live to sway the sceptre over this happy nation and people, is the humble prayer of, Sire, your most faithful and dutiful subjects, the Right Worshipful Master, Wardens, and Brethren of the Lockerbie Quhytewoolen Lodge of Freemasons.

Signed in name and by appointment of the Brethren, and the seal of the Lodge appended, by

WM. MARTIN, R. W. M.

[Transmitted by the Master.]

Unto the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lodge of Dunbar Castle of Freemasons, holding of the Grand Lodge of Scotland.

May it please your Majesty.

We, the Master, Wardens, and Brethren of the Lodge of Dunbar Castle, humbly beg leave to express our heartfelt congratulations to your Majesty on your safe arrival within your ancient kingdom of Scotland, and rejoice at the enthusiastic homage which all classes of its inhabitants are so publicly evincing to your royal person.

We take this opportunity of assuring your Majesty of our firm determination to support the glorious constitution of our country against every invader; and of our devoted attachment to your sacred person, which, if possible, is rendered more endeared to us by your Majesty's condescending kindness in becoming the Grand Patron of our Order.

In the true spirit of Masonry, we pray that the Great Architect of the Universe may perpetuate your Majesty's name in the grateful remembrance of your subjects, and that your reign among them may be long, prosperous, and happy.

Signed in name, by appointment, and in presence of the Brethren of the Lodge of Dunbar Castle, this 19th day of August 1822 years, by

WM. C. RITCHIE, Master.

[Transmitted by the Master.]

Unto the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Edinburgh Royal Arch Chapter of Freemasons, under the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Scotland.

May it please your Majesty.

We, the Principals, Office-Bearers, and Members of the Edinburgh Royal Arch Chapter of Freemasons, No. 1, in full Chapter assembled, beg leave, with the greatest humility, to approach the throne, and to express our sincere and affectionate congratulations on your Majesty's safe arrival in the capital of your ancient kingdom of Scotland.

Your Majesty's gracious visit to your Scots subjects affords them the high gratification of testifying personally to your Majesty, as their constitutional Sovereign, and the lineal representative of their ancient line of Kings, the attachment and devotion to their Monarchs for which the Scots, in every period of their history, have been distinguished. To your Majesty's royal ancestors the Scots are indebted for many of their peculiar and most inestimable privileges and liberties, and the memory of which, they hope, will never be extinguished.

In some less favoured countries, all orders of Freemasonry are proscribed; but, in your Majesty's dominions, the higher as well as the lower orders of Masonry are promoted by your Majesty's powerful protection and patronage, and for which we, and all orders of the craft, feel the most lively gratitude.

Animated with the warmest attachment to your Majesty's sacred person and family, we yield to none of your lieges in highly appreciating the invaluable blessings we, in common with all classes of your subjects, have enjoyed under your Majesty's paternal sway and the British constitution, during the eventful period you have held the reins of government; relying with perfect confidence that we shall continue to possess those blessings during your reign, and that your Majesty will transmit unimpaired to posterity all our civil and religious rights and liberties.

Our fervent prayer to the Almighty Architect of the Universe is, that the crown and throne of your ancestors may long be filled by your Majesty, and that your reign over a free, loyal, and religious people may be always happy and prosperous.

Signed in full Chapter, by the unanimous authority of the Members, and sealed with the seal of the Chapter, at Edinburgh, the 24th day of August 1822.

ALEX. DEUCHAR, First Principal.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Aboyne.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Royal Burgh of Newburgh, in Fife, beg leave to offer our loyal and dutiful congratulations on the occasion of your Majesty's visit to your faithful and loyal subjects of Scotland. Though we do not enjoy the actual presence of your Majesty, our gratification and feelings are not less lively than those of our fellow-subjects who now do so; and it is matter of peculiar pleasure to us, that we live where loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's royal House and government have always been conspicuous; and we beg leave to assure your Majesty, that in these sentiments we never shall be deficient; and we hope we shall long enjoy the benefit of your Majesty's benignant reign: And that your Majesty may receive the constant protection of Divine Providence, in the uninterrupted enjoyment of perfect peace and prosperity under the guardian care of Heaven, are the sincere wishes and earnest prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Burgh of Newburgh, in Fife.

Signed by the Chief Magistrate, in our name, and by our appointment.

JOHN ADAMSON, Chief Magistrate.

Council-House, Newburgh, Fife,
24th August 1822.

[Transmitted by the Chief Magistrate.]

To his Most Excellent Majesty the KING.

May it please your Majesty,

We, the Magistrates and Town-Council of the burgh of barony of Lerwick, beg leave most humbly and dutifully to express to your Majesty our unfeigned delight to learn that your Majesty has visited your ancient Kingdom of Scotland; and we sympathize in the pleasure which so important an event will yield to all the loyal inhabitants of that country and its kindred isles.

Should adverse winds and weather carry the ship which bears your Majesty to this most northern ap-pendage of your Majesty's European dominions, once the occasional residence of your royal Norman ancestors, (and we cannot indulge the flattering hope that any other contingency could confer on us so distinguished an honour), we will hail the day as the most auspicious in our history, and embrace with alacrity the opportunity of tendering to your Majesty the homage of our loyalty. We can offer but little that could comport with the dignity due to so illustrious a visitor; but we are deeply impressed with the truth of the sentiment, that profound respect and unbounded attachment to our Sovereign will be in themselves dearer to his exalted mind than all the attributes of external splendour, however varied and however great.

That your Majesty may be blessed with uninterrupted health to enjoy the amiable and rational pleasures derived from such truly parental excursions as your Majesty is now engaged in, and that you may long sway the sceptre of power over the noblest of empires, is the earnest prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

In the name of the Magistrates and Town-Council,

A. EDMONSTON, Senior Bailie.

Lerwick, Zetland, August 12, 1822.

[Transmitted by the Senior Magistrate.]

To the KING.

May it please your Majesty,

We, the Directors of the Society for the Support of Gaelic Schools in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland, in the name of the Society, whose interests are committed to our charge, approach your Majesty with feelings of the most respectful and grateful affection.

Participating in those genuine expressions of affectionate loyalty which your Majesty's presence among us has so universally called forth, we feel, and gratefully acknowledge, in common with every class of our countrymen, the weight of obligation under which we are laid by your Majesty's paternal goodness. But, in a particular manner, we are bound, in duty to the important institution entrusted to our management, and still more to that highly interesting population whose moral improvement has become a special object of your gracious patronage, to tender to your Majesty, for ourselves and for them, our most heartfelt thanks.

Looking to the influence which such an interposition of your Majesty's favour must diffuse among all ranks connected with the Highlands and Islands, we cannot but deem the high honour which your Majesty has conferred upon this Society, by becoming its Patron, an additional pledge of the favour of Him who is 'King of Kings' and whose blessing on this object of your royal patronage will, we trust, speedily produce in those remote parts of your empire the same fruits of religious education which distinguish your Majesty's subjects in the Lowlands of Scotland.

By this condescending kindness shewn by your Majesty to an institution, the object of which is to teach the Highlanders to read the Scriptures in their native tongue, the pious sentiment which is embalmed in the tenderest recollections of many of your people, will be transferred into the Gaelic language with peculiar emphasis; and the inhabitants of those sequestered regions will learn that it is still the royal wish, 'that every family should possess a Bible, and every child be taught to read it.'

That He who is the giver of all good, may pour on the head of your Majesty his choicest blessings, and that you may long be spared to experience the happiness of making a free, an intelligent, and a virtuous people happy, is our fervent wish and earnest prayer.

Signed in name and by appointment of the Directors.

MORAY, P.
