ESTATE IN STRATHEARN.

To be Sold, by Private Bargain, between the 1st and 14th days of November 1827, or by Public Auction, within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 14th day of the same month of November, between the hours of Two and Three Afternoon,

The Sale, in either case, to be subject to the approbation of the Court of Session, in one of the Divisions thereof,

THE FARM and LANDS called DUNKIRK or WEST PARKS of Moncreiffe, situated on the South-side of the Water of Earn, in the Parish of Dumbarnie and County of Perth. These Lands contain, in Scots measure, about 97 acres of arable, and 6 acres of pasture. The Earn is their boundary on the whole of one side and part of another; and they are in the near vicinity of the increasing village of Bridge of Earn, distant three miles from the city of Perth, and noted as the resort, every season, of numerous visitors, attracted by the mineral waters, and the salubrity and picturesque scenery of the adjacent country. Their soil is of good quality, partaking of the fertile nature of the district to which they belong.

They are held of the Crown, and afford a Freehold Qualification in the county of Perth. The present rent is 98 holls of Wheat, the like quantity of Barley, and the like quantity of Oats, convertible according to the highest fiars of Perthshire. The public burdens are moderate.

For further particulars application may be made to Thomas George Mackay, Esquire, at Moncreiffe House, or to Mr. John Lyal, at Horse Mill, by Bridge of Earn, or to Messrs. Walker, Richardson, and Melville, W. S. 110, George Street, Edinburgh.

CHAPTER I
 THE DISCOVERY OF AMERICA
 The first discovery of America was made by Christopher Columbus in 1492. He sailed from Spain in search of a westward route to the Indies. On October 12, 1492, he landed on the island of San Salvador in the West Indies. This event marked the beginning of European exploration and settlement in the Americas.

CHAPTER II
 THE EARLY SETTLEMENTS
 The first permanent European settlement in North America was founded by the Pilgrims in 1620. They arrived on the Mayflower and established the Plymouth Colony in Massachusetts. Other early settlements followed, including Jamestown in Virginia and the Roanoke Colony.

CHAPTER III
 THE GROWTH OF THE COLONIES
 The colonies grew rapidly in the 17th century. The population increased, and the colonies became more self-sufficient. They developed their own laws and customs, and their relationship with the British crown became increasingly strained.

CHAPTER IV
 THE STRUGGLE FOR INDEPENDENCE
 The American Revolution began in 1775. The colonists fought for their independence from British rule. The war ended in 1781 with the British surrender at Yorktown. The United States Declaration of Independence was signed on September 17, 1776.

CHAPTER V
 THE CONSTITUTION AND THE UNION
 The Constitution of the United States was drafted in 1787 and ratified in 1788. It established the framework for the federal government and the relationship between the states and the federal government. The Union was strengthened and the country began to expand westward.

CHAPTER VI
 THE WESTERN EXPANSION
 The United States expanded westward in the 18th and 19th centuries. The Louisiana Purchase of 1803 doubled the size of the country. The Oregon Trail and the California Gold Rush were major events in the westward expansion.

CHAPTER VII
 THE CIVIL WAR
 The Civil War was fought from 1861 to 1865. It was a conflict between the Union and the Confederate States of America. The war resulted in the preservation of the Union and the abolition of slavery.

CHAPTER VIII
 THE RECONSTRUCTION AND THE GILDED AGE
 Reconstruction followed the Civil War, from 1865 to 1877. It was a period of rebuilding the South and integrating African Americans into society. The Gilded Age followed, a period of rapid industrialization and economic growth.

CHAPTER IX
 THE PROGRESSIVE ERA
 The Progressive Era was a period of social and political reform, from the 1890s to the 1920s. Reformers sought to address the problems of industrialization, such as child labor and monopolies. The Progressive Era led to significant changes in American society.

CHAPTER X
 THE INTERWAR PERIOD
 The interwar period was a time of relative peace and economic growth, from 1918 to 1929. The United States emerged as a world power after World War I. The 1920s were a period of prosperity and cultural change.

CHAPTER XI
 THE GREAT DEPRESSION
 The Great Depression was a period of economic hardship, from 1929 to 1939. It was caused by the stock market crash of 1929 and led to widespread unemployment and poverty. The New Deal was implemented to address the crisis.

CHAPTER XII
 WORLD WAR II
 World War II was fought from 1939 to 1945. The United States entered the war in 1941 after the attack on Pearl Harbor. The war resulted in the defeat of the Axis powers and the end of the Great Depression.
