FIRST NOTICE—FIRST TERM.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN FULLARTON, Esquire, of Glenorchard.

IN a Process of Ranking and Sale of the Estate of Glenorchard, in Stirlingshire, depending before the Court of Session, (First Division, Mr. William Pringle, Clerk), at the instance of Alexander Stevenson, W. S. as Trustee for John M. Menzies, against the said John Fullarton and his Creditors, Lord NEWTON, for Lord ELDIN, Ordinary, by interlocutor dated 27th instant, and signed 28th, allowed a proof of the rental and value of the lands; and also appointed the whole Creditors of the said John Fullarton to produce their respective claims, grounds of debts, and diligences competent to them respectively, against the said John Fullarton or his estate, in the Clerk's hands, betwixt the 24th day of June next, and that for the FIRST TERM, with certification as in a reduction-improbation; and ordained the interlocutor, assigning the First Term for production, to be inserted once in the Minute-Book, and also in the Edinburgh Gazette, once every week for three weeks successively, immediately after pronouncing said interlocutor, to the end it may come to the knowledge of all concerned.

And also assigned said 24th June next to the Creditors to depone on the verity of their respective debts, and granted commission to the Judge-Ordinary of the bounds, or to any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace within whose bounds the Creditors respectively reside, to take their oaths, to be reported said 24th June next; with certification, that no Creditor shall be ranked until he shall have made oath on the verity of his debt.

Edinburgh, May 29, 1828.
