WHITEHALL, May 28, 1828.

THE following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, having been transmitted by James Ochoacar Lord Forbes, His Majesty's Commissioner, to the Right Honourable Robert Peel, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him presented to the King, which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:—

May it please your Majesty,

THE gracious letter with which your Majesty has honoured this meeting of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, has been received by us with sentiments of profound respect.

We entreat your Majesty to be assured, that our loyalty and affection to your Majesty's Person and Government remain unshaken, and that it shall be our earnest study to imitate that zeal for the interests of pure morality and religion, and that wisdom and discretion, which your Majesty condescends to approve in former Assemblies.

We consider it as a high encouragement in the discharge of our duties, that we are permitted to depend upon your Royal co-operation and support, and upon your Majesty's unalterable resolution to maintain the Church which we represent in the full possession of all its established rights and privileges.

The renewed appointment of the Right Honourable James Ochoacar Lord Forbes, to represent your Royal Person in this Assembly, we most gratefully acknowledge as a fresh instance of your Majesty's favour. The proof which he has already given of his qualifications for executing that high and important trust, ensures to him our most respectful and cordial reception.

The royal donation of £2,000 for the propagation of Christian Knowledge in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland, we receive with lively gratitude, and we shall apply it with fidelity and diligence to the pious purpose for which it is given.

That Almighty God, by whom Kings reign, may bless your Majesty, and all the Members of your Royal House; that He may direct your Majesty's Councils, and prosper your Government, and that after enjoying long the affection of a loyal and grateful people, you may receive a Heavenly Crown, are the prayers of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of this General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and by our appointment, by (Signed) Stevenson MacGill, Moderator.
