THIS extensive Estate, comprehending the entire Parish of Durriss, and a large part of Banchory Ternan, on the south side of the River Dee, is estimated to contain 20,000 Imperial acres. It is situated in the northern district of the County of Kincardine. It includes a handsome modern Mansion-House; many fine Grain and Grazing Farms; extensive and beautiful Plantations; six miles of Fishings in the River Dee; and a great range of Moors, abounding with grouse and other game. The Woods have been lately valued by an experienced Surveyor, who estimates their present value at upwards of £16,000, and when they shall come to maturity their value will be more than £50,000. Most of the Estate has been recently let to substantial and improving tenants. It affords upwards of Eight Freehold Qualifications in the County, and the Patronage of the Parish Church of Durriss will be sold with the Lands. The distance from Aberdeen is nearly 12 miles, and 8 from the County Town of Stonehaven. The roads to both, and those intersecting the Estate, are good.

An Estate so extensive, compact, improveable, and valuable, seldom comes into the market, being equally desirable either as a residence or as an advantageous investment for a large capital.

S. 42, Northumberland Street, Edinburgh, who will shew the title-deeds, detailed rentals, and articles of sale; to Messrs. BROOKS, POWELL, & BRODERIP, Lincoln's-Inn, London; to Messrs. NOTICE TO MARINERS.

TARBETNESS LIGHTHOUSE.

THE COMMISSIONERS of the NORTHERN LIGHTHOUSES hereby give Notice, that a LIGHTHOUSE has been erected upon TARBETNESS, in the Moray Frith, the Light of which will be exhibited on the night of Friday the 29th day of January current, and every night thereafter, from the going away of daylight in the evening, till the return of day in the morning.

The following is a Specification of the position of the Light house, and the appearance of the Light, by Mr. Stevenson, Engineer to the Commissioners.

TARBETNESS forms the North-eastern extremity of Cromartyshire, situate in lat. 57° 54' north, and in long. 3° 47' west—distant about 12 miles from the entrance to Cromarty Frith. By COMPASS, the Lighthouse bears from the sunken rocks called the Three Kings and the King's Sons, N.E. ¼ E. distant 9 miles; from Halliman's Scares, lying off Covesea or Cowsey Point, N.N.W. ¼ W. distant 18 miles; from Clythness S.W. by W. ¼ W. distant 31 miles; and from Culloden Rock W. by S. distant one mile.

Tarbetness Light will be known to Mariners as an Intermittent Light, suddenly appearing like a Star of the first magnitude, and continuing in view 2½ minutes, when it is suddenly eclipsed for half a minute; thus producing its characteristic effect once in every three minutes. It must, however, be observed, that within the Moray Frith, in a south-westerly direction from Tarbetness, where the Light cannot be mistaken for any other on the coast, it will be permanently visible, until the Mariner pass within a Line drawn from Tarbetness through a point half a mile seaward of the King's Sons; when it will be intercepted from his view by the high land of the coast. The interception of the Light by the land will thus form a direction to avoid these dangerous Rocks.

The Lantern is open or glazed seaward from S. W. ¼ W. to W. ¼ N. and is elevated 175 feet above the medium level of the sea. The Light, in clear weather, will be seen at the distance of five or six leagues, and at lesser distances, according to the state of the atmosphere.

By order of the Commissioners of the Northern Lighthouses,

C. CUNINGHAM, Sec.

Edinburgh, January 14, 1830.
