FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1830.

WHITEHALL, February 20, 1830.

THE King has been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable James Abercromby to be Chief Baron of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland, vacant by the resignation of Sir Samuel Shephard.

The King has been pleased to order a congé d'elire to pass the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; empowering the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. Asaph to elect a Bishop of that See, the same being void by the death of the Right Reverend Father in God Doctor John Luxmoore, late Bishop thereof; and His Majesty has been also pleased to recommend to the said Dean and Chapter, the Right Reverend Father in God Doctor William Carey, now Bishop of Exeter, to be by them elected Bishop of the said See of St. Asaph.

The King has also been pleased to grant to the Reverend George Chandler, D. C. L. the dignity of Dean of the Cathedral Church of Chichester, void by the death of Doctor Samuel Slade.

The King has also been pleased to grant to the Reverend Richard William Jelf, M. A. the place and dignity of a Canon of the Cathedral Church of Christ in the University of Oxford, void by the death of Doctor Thomas Hay.

The King has also been pleased to grant to the Reverend John Bull, D. D. the place and dignity of a Canon of the Cathedral Church of Christ in the University of Oxford, void by the death of Doctor Phineas Pett.

The King has also been pleased to grant to the Reverend James Somers Cocks, M. A. the place and dignity of a Canon or Prebendary of the Cathedral Church of Worcester, void by the death of Doctor Sir Herbert Oakeley, Bart.

The whole of the above Property is in the highest state of cultivation. It lies in the immediate vicinity of the Towns of Kirkcaldy, Kinghorn, and Bruntsland, and within a very short distance from Pettycur, to all of which places there are excellent roads. The cess of the whole, with a trifling exception, is redeemed, and the other burdens are moderate. The whole, excepting a small part of the Farm of Grange, holds of the Crown. The Farm of Grange affords nearly three votes, and several of the other Lands upwards of one vote in the County of Fife. A property possessing so many advantages in every respect is seldom to be met with in the market, and is highly deserving of attention, either for residence or investment.

Printed particulars will be furnished by Mr. William Douglas, Writer in Kirkcaldy, and by Mr. Dundas, C. S. 25, St. Andrew Square, Edinburgh, in whose hands the plans and title-deeds may be inspected.

Offers for Sale, by Private Bargain, will be received by Mr. Dundas any time previous to the day of Sale.

NOTICE.

THE Lord President and Lord Moncreiff, within the Lord President's chambers, Hill Street, upon Monday 8th March 1830, at 12 o'clock noon, will hear all Persons concerned in the Entailed Estate of DUNURE, in the County of Ayr, upon any objections they may have to a Bill to be proposed to Parliament, for disentailing a part of that Estate, and vesting the same in Trustees, for the purposes specified in the Bill.
