PART OF THE LANDS OF ORBISTON,
IN LANARKSHIRE.

To be Sold by Public Roup, within the Parliament or New Session House, Edinburgh, under authority of the Court of Session, and in presence of the Lord Ordinary on the Bills, on Wednesday the 7th July next, at two o'clock afternoon,

THE SOUTH LOT of the LANDS OF ORBISTON, lying in the parish of Bothwell, and shire of Lanark, with the BUILDINGS and MANUFACTORY lately erected thereon.

These Lands (including 10 acres feued and let on long leases,) contain 291 acres English statute measure or thereby, and are particularly described in former advertisements. The principal Building is above 200 feet in length, with a wing of about 100 feet additional. It is 42 feet broad over all; and the height of the wall is 36 feet. It is built in the most substantial manner, and is in perfect repair. The Manufactory is a building 50 feet by 40, or thereby, and stands close upon the Calder.

The property is bounded on the north-east by the road from Glasgow to Lanark, by Carluke, and is within eight miles from Glasgow and three from Hamilton.

The Upset Price was £14,297 15 2
But is now Reduced to 13,492 17 10

The FIRST LOT consists of the Lands to the south of the parish road from Bothwell Bridge and Lawmuir, to the road from Glasgow to Lanark by Carluke, including the Four Fields to the south of the Farmstead of Lawmuir, the two small Fields to the north and north-west thereof, with said steading, and the Buildings and Manufactory.

This lot contains about 98½ acres, Imperial measure, and the upset price is £6,551 : 9 : 8d.

The large Buildings and Manufactory cost £12,000 within these five years, and as they could easily be fitted up for a manufactory, and water for a Steam Engine may be had on the lands, this lot well deserves the attention of manufacturers. One-half of the public burdens, &c. for the

THE SECOND LOT consists of the Piece of Ground and Houses near Crossgates, containing about 7½ Imperial acres, possessed by Robert Bryce. This lot is well adapted for feuing. The upset price is £450.

If this lot is not sold, it will be then exposed with LOT THIRD, which contains the Remainder of the Property, being about 175 Imperial acres, with the feu-duties, and quit-rents, and farm-steadings at Orbiston Mains and Bankslap, and Houses at Bankhead and Muirhead. This lot forms a very compact farm, and the steadings are complete and in good order. The upset price of these two lots is £7,746 5s. 6d.

In the event of the two lots not being sold together, LOT THIRD will be exposed separately, at the upset price of £7,296 : 5 : 6.

The other half of the public burdens, &c. will be allocated on this lot.

These lots are more particularly described in the memorial and abstract, and are delineated on the plans in the hands of the Judicial Factor and Clerk to the Process.

The articles of roup, title-deeds, memorial and abstract, and a plan of the lands, may be seen at the office of Mr. John Pringle, Register House, Edinburgh; and for farther particulars application may be made to Jas. C.; or to Mr. Alexander Paul, Orbiston, the Judicial Factor, who is in possession of copies of the memorial and abstract, and a plan of the lands, and who will give directions for showing the property.
