JUDICIAL SALE

OF THE REMAINING LOTS OF THE PROPERTY OF MALTA, STOCKBRIDGE.

To be Sold, within the Parliament House, Edinburgh, under authority of the Court of Session, on Wednesday the 19th day of January next, between the hours of Two and Four afternoon,

THE Remaining Lots of the PROPERTY of MALTA, Stockbridge, viz.—

Lot 2d and 3d.—BUILDING STANCES, Nos. 1 and 2, Malta Terrace, feu-duty £1:11:6 each, and upset price £20 each.

These two stances each measure 24 feet in breadth, and extend backwards 115 feet.

Lot 6th.—HOUSE, No. 6, Malta Terrace, consisting of 3 floors, with Dining-Room, Drawing-Room, Parlour, and 3 Bed-Rooms, besides Closets on upper floors, and Kitchen, Washhouse, Servants-Rooms, Closets and Cellars on ground flat, with large back green. Upset price £448:16. Feu-duty £2:2.

Lot 8th.—UNFINISHED HOUSE, No. 8, Malta Terrace. Upset price £250. Feu-duty £2:2.

This House is similarly laid out, and of the same size as the preceding one. The expence of completing it, according to a particular estimate made out, is only £163.

Lot 10th.—PIECE OF GROUND behind Malta Terrace, consisting of 1 rood, 6 falls, 32 ells, imperial measure, or thereby. Feu-duty £2:18:2. Upset price £200.

This Piece of Ground lies on the Water of Leith, and is eligibly situated for building; at present it is let as a washing-green, at £3 per annum; a much higher rent might have been got for it as garden ground, but the uncertainty of the possession prevented it being let for that purpose.

No burdens affect the Property but those above specified, and the entry of heirs and singular successors is taxed to a moderate amount.

The Articles and Conditions of Roup and Sale, with the Titles and Plans of the Property, are in the office of Mr. Menzies, General Register House, from whom, and from J. G. Wood, W. S. 8, South Charlotte Street, any information may be received.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

WILLIAM DUNCAN, Thread-Maker at Hilltown of Dundee.

JOHN KERR, Writer in Dundee, hereby gives notice, that the heritable subjects which were conveyed to him as Trustee for the Creditors of William Duncan, Thread-Maker in Hillton of Dundee, by the said William Duncan and Margaret Langlands or Duncan, residing in Hillton of Dundee, relict of the deceased Alexander Duncan, Reed-Maker there, and Elizabeth Guthrie or Duncan, spouse of the said William Duncan, conform to trust-disposition executed by them in his favour, of date the 9th day of December 1826, and recorded in the Books of Council and Session the 23d day of April 1830, have been sold, and the prices thereof realised; and that a division of the net proceeds will be made among those persons to whom the said William Duncan was indebted, at and preceding the 7th day of March 1826, (being the date when his estate was sequestrated), and that in the proportion of the sums which may be due to them respectively under the composition-contract entered into by him with his Creditors in the said process of sequestration.

The said John Kerr therefore requires, in terms of the foresaid disposition, all persons having claims against the said William Duncan, for composition on debts contracted, or due and owing by him, at and preceding the said 7th day of March 1826, to lodge their claims, with the vouchers thereof, and oaths of verity, in the hands of the said John Kerr, on or before the 31st day of January next; with certification, that those persons who fail to do so will receive no part of the trust-funds.

Dundee, November 26, 1830.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

ANDERSON and MACDOWALL, Booksellers and Stationers in Edinburgh.

ARCHIBALD GIBSON, Accountant in Edinburgh, Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said Anderson and Macdowall, requests the Creditors to meet within the chambers of William Scott Moncrieff and Archibald Gibson, Accountants, No. 7, Forres Street, Edinburgh, on Thursday the 16th day of December next, at two o'clock afternoon, for the purpose of instructing the Trustee and Commissioners relative to the settlement of the balance due on the accounts of the late Trustee, and other matters connected with the estate.
