

At the Court at St. James's, Thursday, November 25, 1830.

A Chapter of the Most Noble Order of the Garter having been summoned for this day, the following Knights Companions, in their mantles and collars, and the Officers of the Order, in their mantles, chains, and badges, assembled at St. James's Palace, soon after two o'clock, and having been called over by Garter Principal King of Arms, a procession was made from the Royal Closet to the Chapter-room, in the following order, viz.

The Duke of Richmond.
The Marquess of Exeter. The Duke of Devonshire.
The Duke of Dorset.
The Marquess of Anglesey. The Earl Bathurst.
The Duke of Newcastle.
The Marquess Wellesley.
The Earl of Hardwicke.
The Marquess Camden.

The Earl Spencer. The Earl of Westmorland.
His Royal Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Coburg.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester.
His Royal Highness the Duke of Sussex. His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland.

Sir Thomas Tyrwhitt, Kt. Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod. The Hon. and Rev. the Dean of Windsor, Register of the Order. Sir George Nayler, Knt. Garter Principal King of Arms.

The Bishop of Salisbury, Chancellor of the Order. The Bishop of Winchester, Prelate of the Order.

THE SOVEREIGN.

The Sovereign and Knights Companions being seated, the Chancellor, standing on the left hand of His Majesty, signified to the Chapter the Sovereign's royal will and pleasure, that the vacant stall in the Royal Chapel of St. George, at Windsor, be filled; and as by the statutes none but a Knight can be elected, His Grace John Duke of Bedford was introduced into the Royal presence, preceded by Garter and Black Rod, and was knighted by his Majesty with the Sword of State, after which His Grace, having kissed the Sovereign's hand, retired.

The Knights Companions then proceeded to the election, and the suffrages having been collected by the Chancellor, were by his Lordship presented to the Sovereign, who was pleased to command him to declare, and he accordingly declared, that the Most Noble John Duke of Bedford had been duly elected a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

Then, by the Sovereign's command, his Grace was received at the door of the Chapter-room by the Marquess of Exeter and the Duke of Richmond, the two junior Knights Companions, and conducted between them to His Majesty, preceded by Garter (bearing the ensigns of the Order upon a crimson velvet cushion), and by Black Rod. The Duke of Bedford kneeling near the Sovereign, and Garter presenting on his knee the Garter, His Majesty, assisted by their Royal Highnesses the Dukes of Cumberland and Sussex, the two senior Knights Companions, buckled it on his Grace's left leg, the Chancellor pronouncing the usual admonition.

Garter next presented, in like manner, the Ribband with the George, and His Majesty, with the assistance of the said two senior Knights Companions, put the same over the Duke's left shoulder, the Chancellor pronouncing the admonition. His Grace having kissed the Sovereign's hand, and received the congratulations of each of the Knights Companions, withdrew.

The Chapter being ended, Garter, by command of the Sovereign, called over the Knights Companions, and a procession was made back to the Royal Closet, in the same order as before.

The Lands contained in Lot IV will be exposed to sale in cumulo at the upset price of £11,702, 4s. 3d., and the Lands of Spittal and Heavyside will be exposed in one lot, at £10,984, 6s. 4d.; and if no offerers shall appear for the Lands in these lots, or either of them, then the lot or lots remaining unsold will immediately thereafter be exposed to sale in the smaller divisions, and at the upset prices specified above, as the proven values thereof respectively.

Of Lot 4th, about 261 acres are arable, 15 meadow, 30 sound pasture, and 13 are under wood. And of Lot 5th, about 324 acres are arable, 26 meadow, 25 pasture, 80 moss, and 14 under wood. The moss land in the farm of Heavyside is susceptible of great improvement by draining, and would, in the opinion of the valuers, produce, if improved, an additional rental of £50, but this contingent rental has not been reckoned on in the preceding valuation. The great roads from Edinburgh to Dumfries and from Glasgow to Peebles pass through the town of Biggar. The Lands hold of a subject superior, and the entry of singular successors is taxed to a double of the feu-duty. The teinds are valued and exhausted.

The articles of roup and title-deeds may be seen in the hands of Mr. John Pringle, Depute Clerk of Session, and for further particulars application may be made to Patrick Cockburn, Accountant, 5, York Place, or George Turnbull, W. S. 16, Thistle Street, Edinburgh.
