FROM FRIDAY, APRIL 28, TO TUESDAY, MAY 2, 1797.

DOWNING-STREET, April 29.

A Letter, of which the following is a copy, has been received from Colonel Craufurd by the Right Hon. Lord Grenville, his Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Foreign Department, dated April 13, 1797.

MY LORD,

I have the honour to inform your Lordship, that General Hoche has given notice to General Werneck, that the armistice which had been arranged for the Lower Rhine, will expire this day.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) CHARLES CRAUFURD.

Right Hon. Lord Grenville, &c. &c.

DOWNING-STREET, April 29.

By dispatches from Colonel Graham, dated at the head-quarters of his Royal Highness the Archduke Charles, at Vorderenberg, the 8th instant, it appears, that no general action had taken place since the date of his last dispatches; and that General Buonaparte's head-quarters were then at Bruck.

VIENNA, April 11.

An armistice for six days has been agreed upon between the Archduke Charles and General Buonaparte; which will expire on the 13th instant.

April 12.

Accounts from the Tyrol state, that Baron de Laudon had gained several considerable advantages over the enemy. On the 4th he had made himself master of Botzen, and on the 5th he had advanced as far as Deutchén and Branrol.

The enemy abandoned Millervald, Oberau, Unterau, and set fire to the two bridges between Oberau and Ampozzo, in the night of the 4th, and retired precipitately to Pustertal. General Laudon had in the mean time taken the enemy in the rear, and had forced them to abandon the posts of Clauser and Steben; they were also driven from Brixen, and Baron Kerpen had advanced the whole of his line, and had effected a junction and fixed his head-quarters at Brixen.

The enemy left behind them a considerable quantity of provisions and ammunition.

The people of the Tyrol are rising in a mass, and the commotions in the Venetian States threaten the French in the rear.

Prince Esterhazy is advancing through Croatia with a considerable body of Hungarians.

ADMIRALTY-OFFICE, April 29.

Extract of a Letter from Mr William Arnold, Collector of his Majesty's Customs at Cowes; to Evan Nepean, Esq. dated April 27, 1797.

I have the honour to inform you, that a French privateer the Daphné, of Cherbourg, Bar Corpa, master, of the burden of 33 tons, with 25 men, 2 carriage guns and 2 swivels, has been taken and brought in here yesterday by the Nancy cutter, a small revenue cruiser belonging to this port, Robert Willis commander, 32 ton admeasurement, with 10 men and 1 swivel gun only.

[Price 4d.]

The privateer is marked on the stern, Vigilant, of Guernsey, a deception often made use of, I am informed, to decoy British trading vessels within reach of the guns of the enemy's cruiser.

ADMIRALTY-OFFICE, April 29.

Extract of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Sir Hyde Parker, Knight, Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Jamaica, to Evan Nepean, Esq. dated the 9th March 1797.

Inclosed I have the honour to transmit a list of such armed vessels as have been captured or destroyed since my last.

A List of Prizes captured by his Majesty's ship La Magicienne, during our last cruise.

La Fortune, of	8 guns,	74 men.
Le Poisson Volant, of	12 guns,	80 men.
Le Poisson Volant, of	5 guns,	50 men.
Spanish cutter, of	6 guns,

formerly called the Bawvac, laden with olives and dry goods.

By the Diligence,

La Fogoufe, of 6 guns, 57 men.

One privateer schooner, destroyed by the boats of the Squadron, under the command of Lieutenant Spread, of his Majesty's ship Queen, who retook an American brig she had captured in our fight, to recover which the boats were sent in chase.

H. PARKER.

At the Court at St. James's, the 26th of April 1797,

PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

This day the Right Hon. Charles Henry Somerset, commonly called Lord Charles Somerset, Comptroller of his Majesty's Household, was, by his Majesty's command, sworn of his Most Hon. Privy Council, and took his place at the board accordingly.

His Majesty having been pleased to appoint George Beckwith, Esq. to be Governor and Commander in Chief of the Bermuda, or Somers's Islands; Stephen de Lancey, Esq. to be Captain General and Governor in Chief of the Island of Tobago and its dependencies; and the Hon. Andrew Cochrane Johnstone to be Captain General and Governor in Chief of the Island of Dominica; they this day took the usual oaths appointed to be taken by the Governors of his Majesty's Plantations.
