[ Price Sixpence. ]

To the CREDITORS of

JAMES HENDERSON, factor at Shevado.

AT the Meeting of the said James Henderson's Creditors, held on the 4th day of July current, in terms of the advertisement formerly published, the said James Henderson appeared, and proposed to the Meeting a composition of five shillings for each pound of his whole debts, with interest, as at the date of the sequestration; and made offer of security therefor, payable twelve months from the date of the Meeting. And the agents for Creditors assembled thereat, having been unanimously of opinion, that said offer was a just and reasonable one, and having agreed for themselves, and the respective Creditors for whom they act, to accept thereof, the Trustee hereby requests a Meeting of the whole Creditors of the bankrupt, upon Friday the 28th day of July current, within the house of George Moir, vintner in Aberdeen, at twelve o'clock noon; for finally deciding on said offer, or failing the acceptance thereof, for giving further instructions to the Trustee as to the management and disposal of the estate.

ROBERT MORRICE.

NOTICE.

THE Trustee on the sequestrated estate of ANGUS MACKINNON, late Upholsterer in Edinburgh, has made up a state of the affairs of the bankrupt, and of his outstanding funds, which lie in the hands of Alexander Ritchie, writer to the signet, for the inspection of the Creditors, who are hereby requested to attend a general meeting, to be held in John's Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, on Monday the 7th day of August next, at one o'clock afternoon, for giving directions to the trustee relative to these outstanding funds, and for bringing the affairs of the trust to a final close. The whole stock of the bankrupt, and of such debts as could be recovered, having been converted into cash, and a first dividend made thereof, no dividend can be made, till the debts still outstanding be recovered or disposed of.

Edinburgh, July 6. 1797.

SECOND NOTICE—SECOND TERM.

IN the Ranking and Sale of the Estate of JOHN MACKENZIE of Gruenzard, Lord Armadale, Ordinary, on 27th June ult. " assigned the 14th day of November next to the whole creditors of the Bankrupt to produce all their claims, rights, and diligences, competent to them respectively against him or his estate, and whole vouchers thereof, and that for the second Term, with certification, that what writs shall not be produced, shall be held as false and forged, so far as they may affect the Bankrupt's estate, and the interests of the creditors thereon, who have or shall produce their rights and diligences affecting the same; and ordains intimation or notice hereof to be made to all parties concerned, by inserting this interlocutor in the Edinburgh Gazette weekly, for three successive weeks immediately after the date of this interlocutor; as also assigned the said 14th day of November next to the creditors (who had not already done so) to depone on the verity of their respective debts, and for that purpose granted commission to the Judge-Ordinary, or to any of his Majesty's Justices or the Peace, within whose bounds in the country any of the said creditors reside, to take such oaths, any lawful day betwixt and the said 14th day of November next, to be reported to the Lord Ordinary the said day, with certification, as set forth in the act of federant; and, in the mean time, remitted to Robert Pitcairn, writer in Edinburgh, to take the oaths and depositions of such creditors as live in and about Edinburgh, on the verity of their debts."
