TUESDAY, MARCH 25, 1834.

At the Court at St. James's, the 19th day of March 1834,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, c. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the training, and to regulate the quotas, of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewardry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewardry or stewardries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient, that such training or exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended; and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

ST. JAMES'S-PALACE, March 19, 1834.

CEREMONIAL of the Investiture of Major-General Sir Arthur Brooke with the Ensigns of a Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath.

By command of the Sovereign, Major-General Sir Arthur Brooke was conducted, with the usual reverences, to His Majesty, preceded by Sir William Woods (Clarenceux King of Arms,) the Officer of Arms attendant upon the Knights Commanders, bearing, upon a crimson velvet cushion, the star, ribband, and badge of the second class of the Order.

The sword of State was thereupon delivered to His Majesty, and the Major-General, kneeling, was knighted therewith; after which he had the honour to kiss His Majesty's hand.

Then the Officer of Arms, on his knee, presenting to the Sovereign the ribband and badge of a Knight Commander, the King was graciously pleased to invest Sir Arthur Brooke therewith.

The Major-General having again had the honour to kiss the Sovereign's hand, and having received from His Majesty the star of a Knight Commander, retired from the Royal Presence with the usual reverences.

March 19, 1834.

The King was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood upon Major-General Lorenzo Moore, Companion of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, and Military Knight Commander of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order.
