Claims and oaths of verity thereto, are required to be lodged with the Trustee at or before the first meeting. Creditors failing to do so betwixt and 13th February 1836, shall have no share in the first dividend. Wm. Miller, Solicitor.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

GEORGE ROBERTSON, Junior, Grocer in Glasgow.

WILLIAM JOHNSTONE, Accountant in Glasgow, Trustee on the estate of the said Geo. Robertson, Junior, hereby intimates, that having now realized nearly the whole of the recoverable funds of the estate, he intends, immediately after the 10th day of June next, to make a final division thereof among the Creditors who shall have lodged before that date, their claims with him properly vouched, and acceded to the trust, certifying to those that fail to do so, that they shall be cut off from any share of the funds realized.

Glasgow, May 6, 1835.

JUDICIAL SALE
OF
SUBJECTS IN LEITH AND LINLITHGOW.

Upset Prices Reduced.

To be Sold by Public Roup, within the Parliament or New Session House of Edinburgh, upon Wednesday the 13th day of May current, between the hours of two and four afternoon, in presence of the Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills, in terms of a warrant by the Second Division of the Court of Session,

THE remaining Lots of the Subjects in Leith and Linlithgow, which formerly belonged to Mr. William Cunynghame, Writer in Linlithgow, as particularly described in the Memorial and Abstract of the prepared state in the Process of Sale.

Lot 1.—The Just and Equal six-eighth shares or parts, pro indiviso of the Dry Dock, Shipbuilding Yard and pertinents, with a Dwelling-house and other Buildings, lying contiguous, and situated near the North end, and to the West of the Westmost Drawbridge of Leith.

The whole of the preceding Subjects are at present possessed by the Heirs of the Deceased Mr. William Butement, Shipbuilder, on a lease which will expire at Whitsunday 1837, at the yearly rent of - - - £180 0 0

Deduct repairs stipulated for, and executed, viz. £420 0 0

1-7th whereof from each year's rent, or - - - 60 0 0

Ditto, further allowance for New Dock Gates, &c. £170-} whereof from each year, or - - - 42 10 0

Sum £ - - - 102 10 0

Remains, £77 10 0

Deduct payable to Mr. Goalen, the proprietor, of the other 2-8ths. - - - 19 7 0

Remains for Mr. Cunynghame 6-8ths. or, - - - 58 2 0

Deduct Mr. Cunynghame's proportion of feu-duty, 2 13 7 1-12th

Cess or land tax, 0 12 0

3 5 7 1-12th

Remains rental during the currency of the lease of only - - - £54 16 10 11-12ths

But a very considerable rise of rent must necessarily take place at the termination of the lease in 1837, when the heavy abatements on account of the extensive repairs, which must add so greatly to the permanent value of this lot, will cease.

This Lot will be exposed at the reduced Upset Price of £1550.

Lot 3.—That Tenement of Land, back and fore, under and above, with the Yard and Pertinents thereof, lying within the Burgh of Linlithgow, on the north side of the King's High Street thereof, and commonly called Lang's Land.

The Proven Rental of this Lot was £22: 13s. It is at present partly occupied from year to year by five different tenants, whose rents amount to the aggregate sum of £19: 15s. and is partly unlet. It is holden burgage, and the only public burden is the burgh cess, estimated at 3s. 4-12ths. It will be exposed at the reduced Upset Price of £230.

Lot 4.—That other Tenement of Land, back and fore, under and above, with the Pertinents thereof, lying within the Burgh of Linlithgow, upon the north side of the King's High Street thereof, as the same was formerly possessed by Messrs. George and William Cunynghame, Writers in Linlithgow.

The estimated Proven Rental of this Lot is £24, but part of it only is occupied from year to year at a rent of £12. It is also holden burgage, and the only public burden is the burgh cess, estimated at 3s. 5d. 9-12ths. It will be exposed at the reduced Upset Price of £260.

Lot 5.—That other Tenement of Land, back and fore, under and above, with the Yard and Small Piece of Ground belonging thereto, generally known by the name of the Guildry House; and which subjects also lie within the Burgh of Linlithgow, upon the north side of the King's High Street thereof.

This Lot is at present occupied from year to year by four different tenants, whose rents amount to the aggregate sum of £9: 4s. It is also holden burgage, and the only public burden is the burgh cess, estimated at 1s. 1d. 11-12ths. It will be exposed at the reduced Upset Price of £90.

The Articles of Roup, Title-deeds of the different Lots, and the Memorial and Abstract, may be seen in the office of Mr. Adam Wilson, Depute Clerk of Session, Register House, the Clerk to the Process of Sale; and every other information will be given on application to Mr. Allan Menzies, W. S. 19, Hill Street, the Judicial Factor, or Mr. Hugh Bremner, W. S. 19, Moray Place, the Common Agent.
