VALUABLE DISTILLERY, &c. AT HADDINGTON,

As fully described in former Advertisements.

To be Sold by Authority of the Court of Session, in virtue of a Warrant of Roup pronounced in an Action of Ranking and Sale of the Estates of ARCHIBALD DUNLOP, Distiller, Haddington, in the Parliament or New Session House of Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 24th day of June next, between the hours of two and four o'clock afternoon, in presence of the Lord Ordinary on the Bills,

THE Valuable Distillery, Utensils, Dwelling House, and Offices, with Garden and Ground attached thereto, situated in the immediate vicinity of the Town, and within the County of Haddington, all as recently possessed by Mr. Dunlop.

This Distillery is constructed on the best principle, and in the most substantial manner, and is in complete working order and repair. The various parts of the works, for storing, malting and mashing the grain, and for distilling and preparing the spirits, with two steam engines, and all other relative utensils, machinery, and conveniences requisite, will be found perfectly adapted for carrying on an extensive business, in the best manner. The situation is peculiarly favourable for a Distillery, there being at all seasons an abundant supply of good water, coal at a moderate price, and Haddington Market for purchasing the best corn direct from the growers, and delivered without expense, whilst there is always a ready demand for druff and dregg.

The Dwelling House, Offices, and Garden, are situated at a proper distance from the Distillery, are in excellent order, and competent for a large and respectable family.

The feu-duty to the Town of Haddington is £70, 10s. a year, and the entry of heirs and singular successors is taxed to £5 Sterling additional. The teinds are conveyed by the feu-contract, and are nearly exhausted. The estimated free rent of the whole premises, on a ten years lease, was proven to be £327, 9s. and on a nineteen years lease, £277, 9s.

The Premises may be seen on applying to Mr. Ferme, Banker, Haddington. The Title-Deeds, Articles of Roup, and Copies of the Memorial and Abstract, are in the office of Mr. Thomas Beveridge, Depute-Clerk of Session, Register House; and application may also be made for Copies of the Memorial and Abstract, and of the Inventory of Distillery Utensils, &c. to George McClelland, W. S. 146, Princes Street, Common Agent in the Sale.
