FROM FRIDAY, Nov. 3, TO TUESDAY, Nov. 7, 1797.

WESTMINSTER, NOV. 2.

This day his Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in his royal robes, seated on the throne with the usual solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a message from his Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, his Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Speech:—

“ My Lords and Gentlemen,

“ It is matter of great concern to me that the earnest endeavours which I have continued to employ, since I met you last in Parliament, to restore to my subjects the blessings of Peace, on secure and honourable terms, have been unhappily rendered ineffectual. The declaration which I have caused to be published, and the other papers which I have directed to be laid before you, will, I am confident, abundantly prove to you and to the world, that every step has been taken on my part, which could tend to accelerate the conclusion of peace; and that the long delay and final rupture of the negotiation are solely to be ascribed to the evasive conduct, the unwarrantable pretensions, and inordinate ambition of those with whom we have to contend, and, above all, in their inveterate animosity against these kingdoms. I have the fullest reliance, under the blessings of Providence, on the vigour and wisdom of your Councils, and on the zeal, magnanimity, and courage of a great and free people, sensible that they are contending for their dearest interests, and determined to shew themselves worthy of the blessings which they are struggling to preserve.

[Price Sixpence.]

“ Compelled as we are, by the most evident necessity, to persevere in the defence of all that is dear to us, till a more just and pacific spirit shall prevail on the part of the enemy, we have the satisfaction of knowing that we possess means and resources proportioned to the objects which are at stake.

“ During the period of hostilities, and under the unavoidable pressure of accumulated burthens, our revenue has continued highly productive; our national industry has been extended, and our commerce has surpassed its former limits.

“ The public spirit of my people has been eminently displayed; my troops, of every description, have acquired fresh claims to the esteem and admiration of their country, and the repeated successes of my Navy over all our different enemies, have been recently crowned by the signal and decisive victory with which PROVIDENCE has rewarded the exertions of my fleet under the command of Admiral Lord Duncan.

“ No event could be attended with more important and beneficial consequences, or form a more brilliant addition to the numerous and heroic exploits, which, in the course of the present war, have raised to a pitch hitherto unequalled the Naval Glory of the Country.

“ Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

“ I have directed the estimates for the ensuing year to be laid before you. The state of the war, joined to the happy consequences of our recent success, will, I trust, admit of some diminution of expence, consistently with the vigorous efforts which our situation indispensably requires. In considering of the best mode of defraying the heavy expence which will still be unavoidable, you will, I am persuaded, bear in mind that the present crisis presents every motive to animate you to the most effectual and spirited exertions; the true value of any temporary sacrifices which you may find necessary for this purpose; can only be estimated by comparing them with the importance of supporting effectually our public credit, and convincing the enemy, that while we retain an ardent desire for the conclusion of peace on safe and honourable terms, we possess the means, as well as the determination, to support with vigour this arduous contest, as long as it may be necessary for maintaining the safety, honour, and independence of these kingdoms.

"My Lords and Gentlemen,

"After the experience I have had of your loyalty and attachment to me, and of your anxious regard for the interests of my subjects; I have only to recommend to you a perseverance in the same principles and conduct.

"The events of every day must impress you more and more with a sense of the blessings which we derive from our civil and religious establishments, and which have so long distinguished us among all the nations of Europe. These blessings can only be preserved by inculcating and enforcing a due reverence and obedience to the laws, by repressing with promptitude every attempt to disturb our internal tranquillity, and by maintaining inviolate that happy Constitution, which we inherit from our ancestors, on which the security and happiness of every class of my subjects essentially depend."

Commissions signed by his Majesty, for the army in Ireland,

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE approach of the drawing of the IRISH STATE LOTTERY for November, renders it necessary for adventurers (particularly those who reside at a distance in the country) to lose no time in forwarding their orders to the respective Lottery Offices in London, at which they usually deal; the great and increasing demand for Tickets and Shares, in the present Irish Lottery, making it very probable that the small number of Tickets of which this Lottery consists will be inadequate to supply the Public.

PRESENT PRICE OF TICKETS &amp; SHARES

And only 30,000 Tickets:

Country correspondents, by remitting to any Lottery Office of credit in London, bank notes, Post Office orders, or cash by the carriers, mail or stage coachmen, may have Irish Tickets and Shares sent them, and their orders complied with the same as if personally present.

The drawing begins on Monday 20th November.

SALE OF LANDS IN ARGYLSHIRE,

AND

HOUSE IN THE NEW TOWN OF EDINBURGH.

By Authority of the Court of Session, there will be exposed to SALE by Public Roup within the Parliament House of Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 13th day of December 1797, between the hours of five and six in the afternoon, THE ESTATE which belonged to the deceased Archibald Mac-Donald of Sanda, Esq. Advocate, lying in the district of Kintyre, and Shire of Argyre.

The gross rent of the whole estate is L. 648 : 15 : 10 Sterling; and the free proven rent, after deducting feu and teind duties and other public burdens, is L. 603 : 17 : 9; which the Lords have appointed to be exposed at the upset price of L. 16,908 : 17 Sterling.

These lands are of considerable extent, mostly of excellent soil, and capable of the highest cultivation and improvement, having abundance of limestone, fuel and water carriage, the situation remarkably pleasant, and the greatest part of these lands, as well as the Island of Sanda, are bounded by the sea, and a considerable part of them are out of lease, having been in the natural possession of the late proprietor.

For the accommodation of purchasers, it is proposed to expose this estate in the following Lots, at such a proportion of the total upset price abovementioned as corresponds to the rents of these different lots:

LOT I.—The LANDS of NORTH and SOUTH MACHRIREOCH, with the Mansion-house, Garden and Offices; the Lands of Penlactan; the Lands of Pennyfoirach; the Lands of Kilmoshenachan; the Lands of Blaithill and Coulrachan; the Lands of Acharna; the Lands of Achadadowie, and Meadow called Monemore; the Lands of Eden, Pennyland, Mill and Mill Acres, and Pennyland Smithy and Acres belonging thereto. The proven gross rent of these lands is L. 486 : 5 : 10. It is proposed to lay L. 32 : 12 : 10 8-12ths of the public burdens on this lot, so there will remain L. 453 : 12 : 11 4-12ths of free rent, which is intended to be exposed at L. 12,702 : 2 : 5 4-12ths Sterling.

LOT II.—The ISLAND of SANDA, with the small Islands adjacent, called the SHEEP ISLAND and GLENMORE ROCK. The proven gross rent of these Islands is L. 67 : 10 : 0; and it is proposed to lay L. 4 : 10 : 7 of the public burdens on this lot, so there will remain L. 62 : 19 : 5 of free rent, which is intended to be exposed at L. 1,763 : 3 : 8 Sterling.

N.B. This island in the mouth of the Frith of Clyde and Irish Channel, is of considerable extent, fertile soil, an excellent harbour, and not two miles from the coast; may be rendered of great value as a fishing station, or for carrying on trade with Ireland, both sides of the Frith of Clyde, and the Western Isles. Great quantities of kelp might be made, both upon the shores of the islands, and of the rest of the estate on the main land.

LOT III.—The LANDS of GARTINACOPAIG. The proven gross rent of these lands is L. 30; and it is proposed to lay L. 2 : 0 : 4 of the public burdens on this lot, so there will remain L. 27 : 19 : 8 of free rent, which is intended to be exposed at L. 783 : 10 : 8 Sterling.

LOT IV.—The LANDS of DRUMMORENABADOCH. The proven gross rent of which is L. 65 Sterling; and it is proposed to lay L. 5 : 14 : 3 4-12ths of the public burdens on this lot, so there will remain L. 59 : 5 : 8 8-12ths of free rent which is intended to be exposed at L. 1,660 : 0 : 2 8-12th.

HOUSE IN EDINBURGH.

That HOUSE, being No. 52, in George Street, in the New-Town of Edinburgh, presently possessed by William Forbes, Esq. banker, to be exposed at the upset price of L. 1,500 Sterling.

Intending purchasers are referred to the printed abstract of the proven rental; copies of which will be had from William Macdonald, writer to the signet, Prince's Street, Edinburgh; to whom, or to Mr Duncan Campbell, Sheriff-substitute at Campbeltown, factor on the estate, or Mr Jeffrey, depute clerk of Session, at his office, application may be made for farther particulars.

Printed for the Proprietors.
