JUDICIAL SALE

LANDS IN DUMFRIES-SHIRE.

To be Sold by Public Roup, within the Parliament or New Session-House, Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 14th day of November 1838, at two o'clock, p. m. in terms of an Interlocutor of the Lords of the First Division of the Court of Session dated the 6th of July last,

THE LANDS of RUE and (the divided half of) FOUR-MERKLAND, with right of Fishing in the Water of Clouden,—situated in the parish of Holywood and county of Dumfries, belonging to Mr. William Welsh.

These properties, which lie contiguous, extend, according to a recent survey, to upwards of 222 imperial acres of sound arable and meadow land, besides a considerable extent under thriving wood. They are fit to carry crops of all kinds, and are only distant five miles from the town and seaport of Dumfries, where there is a constant demand for all descriptions of farm produce, and an abundant supply of lime and coal at moderate prices.

Although the property has of late, from the circumstances of the Proprietor, been under disadvantageous management, it is highly susceptible of improvement, at little expense, and would yield a large return for the outlay expended.

The Situation of the estate is desirable, both as regards scenery, and convenience of locality; and the old Tower of Fourmerkland, which is in a state of preservation, could easily, with some additions, be converted into a picturesque and suitable Mansion-house.

The proven annual rental of the Estate, according to the opinion of the most experienced neighbouring farmers, is

The public burdens . . . £206 13 0

Leaving of free annual value . . . £194 17 0½

And the proven value, after allowing deduction of £550 as the estimated expense of putting the steadings and fences in complete repair, is £5290, at which sum the Estate will be exposed to sale.

The lands are held feu under the Crown, and the teinds are valued and exhausted.

Immediate entry can be given to a purchaser.

The articles of roup and title-deeds, with a plan of the estate, are in the hands of THOMAS RANKEN, S.S.C. 10, Duke Street, Edinburgh, the Agent in the Sale, to whom, or to Mr. C. HARKNESS, writer, Dumfries, the Judicial Factor, application may be made for all farther information required, and either of whom, or Mr. THOMAS BRUCE, Register House, Edinburgh, will furnish copies of the Memorial and Abstract.

Edinburgh, August 20, 1838

NOTICE
