FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1838.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 5th day of November 1838,

PRESENT,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled 'An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad,' it was, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods should be imported into, nor should any goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, be exported from, any of the British possessions in America, by Sea, from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, or some other of such possessions, excepting to or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table in the said Act contained; and it was thereby provided, that if his Majesty should deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the said table, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; and that from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties and forfeitures therein contained, subject, nevertheless, to the limitations and restrictions thereafter provided, should extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively, as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act;

And whereas Her Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the before-mentioned provisions of the said Act respecting such free ports to the port of George Town, in Prince Edward's Island:

Now, therefore, under and by virtue of the said Act of Parliament, and in exercise of the powers thereby in Her Majesty in Council in that behalf vested, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that, from and after the eighth day of January one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, the provisions of the said Act, as far as the same relate to the free ports respectively therein mentioned, shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to the port of George Town, in Prince Edward's Island; and that, from and after the said eighth day of January one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act conferred upon the free ports therein-mentioned, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures in the said Act contained, subject to the limitations and restrictions therein-provided, shall extend to the said port of George Town, as fully and effectually as if such port had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

WAR-OFFICE, October 13, 1838.

COMMISSARIAT.

Deputy Assistant-Commissary-General Alexander Trotter to be Assistant-Commissary-General; dated January 20, 1837.

Commissariat Clerk Henry Clarke to be Deputy Assistant-Commissary-General; dated August 27, 1836.

NOTICE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session, for leave to bring in a Bill, for extending the terms and continuing and amending the powers, of an Act passed in the 10th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled 'An Act for more effectually making, amending, widening, repairing, and maintaining the Road from Scots-dyke in the County of Dumfries, by or through the Towns of Langholm and Hawick, to Haremos, in the County of Roxburgh,' which Road and the alterations thereon, authorised by the said Act, are situated in the several Parishes of Cannonby, Langholm, and Ewes, in the County of Dumfries, and Cavers, Hawick, Wilton, and Ashkirk, in the County of Roxburgh, in which Bill it is intended to renew and continue, the powers contained in the said recited Act, for purchasing and acquiring Lands and Premises, for the purposes thereof, and to alter, or increase the Tolls and Duties thereby authorised to be levied.

(Signed) JOHN & GEO. OLIVER, Clerks.

Hawick, November 8, 1838.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,

THAT it is intended to apply to PARLIAMENT during the ensuing Session, for leave to bring in a BILL for an Act for consolidating the following Acts, in so far as the same refer to the supplying the Inhabitants of the Town of Greenock with fresh and wholesome Water, and paving, cleansing, lighting, and watching the streets, and other public places within the said Town, and Police thereof, and of the Harbours and Port of Greenock, and other purposes undermentioned, viz.—An Act passed in the 13th year of the reign of His Majesty George the Third, entitled, 'An Act for deepening, cleansing, and making more commodious the Harbours of the Town of Greenock, for supplying the Inhabitants with fresh and wholesome Water, and for paving, cleansing, lighting, and watching the streets and other public places within the said town,'—An Act passed in the 29th year of the reign of his Majesty King George the Third, entitled, 'An Act for altering and enlarging the powers of an Act made in the 13th year of the reign of his present Majesty, entitled, 'An Act for deepening, cleansing, and making more commodious the Harbours of the Town of Greenock, for supplying the Inhabitants with fresh and wholesome Water, and for paving, cleansing, lighting, and watching the streets and other public places within the said Town,'—An Act passed in the 41st year of the reign of His said Majesty, entitled, 'An Act to amend two Acts made in the 13th and 29th years of the reign of his present Majesty, for making more commodious the Harbours of the Town of Greenock, and for other purposes mentioned in the said Acts, for watching the said Town and better supplying the same with Water: for regulating the fares of Coachmen, Chairmen, Porters, and Carters plying in the said Town, and of Pilots, Watermen and Jobbers employed in the said Harbours and on the River Clyde, and for feuing out the Glebe of the said Town,'—An Act passed in the 43d year of the reign of his said Majesty, entitled, 'An Act for the further improvement of the Harbours of the Town of Greenock, and for other purposes therein mentioned,'—An Act passed in the 50th year of the reign of His said Majesty, entitled, 'An Act for altering and enlarging the powers of several Acts of His present Majesty, for the improvement of the Town of Greenock and the Harbours thereof; for regulating the Police, and for the other purposes mentioned in the said Acts,'—And an Act of the 57th year of the reign of his said Majesty, entitled, 'An Act for the further improvement of the Town and Harbours of Greenock, for establishing and supporting a Harbour Police, and for the better regulating the poor of the three parishes of Greenock:—IN WHICH BILL it is intended to make provision for repealing, altering, amending, and enlarging the powers of the said several Acts, in so far as the same refer to the supplying the said Town with fresh and wholesome Water, and paving, cleansing, lighting, and watching the streets of the said Town, and Police thereof, and of the Harbours and Port of Greenock: and for including within the powers and provisions of the said intended Act, the limits and boundaries of the Burgh or Town of Greenock, as the same are set forth and contained in the Act 2d and 3d William Fourth, cap. 65, entitled 'An Act to amend the representation of the people in Scotland' and in the Schedule annexed thereto, referring to the said Burgh or Town; AND for power to collect and take water from the springs, rivulets, brooks and streams in the lands within six statute miles of the said Town of Greenock; and to erect reservoirs, cisterns, wells, and other works on such lands for the purpose of collecting the said Water, and to convey the same by means of pipes, sluices, conduits, aqueducts, or otherwise, into the said Town, and Harbours and Port of Greenock; AND ALSO, for approving and confirming a certain contract or agreement entered into between the Trustees acting under the said recited Acts, so far as the same refer to the supplying the Inhabitants of the said Town with pure and wholesome Water, and for paving, cleansing, lighting and watching the streets of the said Town, on the one part, and the Committee of Management of the Shaws Water Joint Stock Company, incorporated by Act of Parliament, on the other part, regarding the supply of a certain quantity of Water to the Inhabitants of the said Town, and the ships and vessels frequenting the said Harbours and Port of Greenock: AND for further powers for regulating the supply of Gas to the said Town and the Harbours and Port thereof, and in particular, for approving and confirming a certain contract or agreement made and entered into by and between the said Trustees on the one part, and the Provost, Bailies and Town Council of the said Town of Greenock, on the other part, in relation to the acquisition and establishment of the works and apparatus for the manufacture of Gas, and laying pipes for the supply of the same to the Inhabitants of the said Town: AND for the purposes aforesaid, to open up the roads, streets, squares, closes, and lanes of the said Town, and to lay pipes therein, in so far as not already done, and as may be deemed necessary and beneficial for the comfort of the said Inhabitants; and also for power to remove or repair, or cause to be removed or repaired, such ruinous houses and buildings, as from decay or otherwise, may be now, or may hereafter become, dangerous to the Inhabitants and persons frequenting the said Town, and for opening, widening, and straightening such of the streets, closes or lanes of the said Town, as may be found necessary or expedient, in particular for opening, widening, and otherwise improving the street or close called Taylor's Close, and to widen and improve the communication between the same and the street called Hamilton Street in the said Town: and also for power to erect such additional market places and buildings connected therewith, and houses and offices for the use of the police and fire engine establishments of the said Town; and to make and order to be made such causeways, pavements, sewers, and drains in the said Town, as may be found beneficial and necessary; and also for extending and enlarging the powers, and civil, criminal, and police jurisdiction of the Magistrates of the said Town: AND, generally, for more effectually maintaining and regulating the police of the said Town and Harbours and Port thereof, and for making such Bye Laws, rules and regulations for the good government and regulation of the said Town, and Police, and public Market places thereof, and of the said Harbours and Port, as may from time to time appear expedient—for power to take, acquire, and hold such lands and other hereditaments as may be necessary for any of the purposes aforesaid; and also for altering, varying, increasing, and extending the assessment and rates and duties authorised to be levied under the provisions of the said recited Acts, or any of them, in so far as the same refer to the supplying of the said Town with fresh and wholesome water, and paving, cleansing, lighting and watching the streets and the Harbours and Port thereof, and for levying new and additional Assessments, rates and duties in lieu thereof, and for borrowing such further additional sums of money, as may be necessary for any of the said purposes, and enabling bodies corporate and collegiate, and all other bodies or persons whatsoever, to lend upon the credit of the said rates and duties; and generally for such powers and authorities as may be necessary for all or any of the purposes aforesaid; AND IN WHICH SAID BILL it is further intended to make provision to enable the Provost, Bailies, and Town-Council of the said Town, to sell, transfer, or otherwise absolutely to dispose of the rates or duties heretofore in use to be levied by them from ships and vessels frequenting and using the said Harbours and Port of Greenock, to and in favour of the parliamentary trustees of the said Harbours and Port, and to enable such trustees to acquire, hold, and levy the same in all time coming: AND WHICH SAID TOWN, Harbours and Port, and the said intended works and brooks, streams, and rivulets, are and will be situated in the several Parishes of Greenock, viz., the Old or West, the New or Middle, the East, the North, the South, and St. Andrew's, the Parishes of Innerkip, Kilmacolin, and Port-Glasgow, or some of them, all in the County of Renfrew.

AND NOTICE IS HEREBY FURTHER GIVEN, that duplicate plans and sections of the said respective works and operations as regards Taylor's Close, with books of reference thereto annexed respectively, will be deposited in the office of the Principal Sheriff-Clerk, and Justice of Peace Clerk of the said County of Renfrew, at Paisley, and also at Greenock; and that copies will be deposited with the Schoolmasters of the Old or West, and New or Middle Parishes of Greenock, and also in the office of the Town-Clerk thereof, on or before the 30th day of the present month of November.

COUNCIL CHAMBERS,
Greenock, November 1, 1838.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, in compliance with the standing orders of both Houses of Parliament, that application is intended to be made to Parliament during the ensuing Session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter and amend an Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, and first year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, entitled 'An Act for enlarging, improving, and maintaining the PORT and HARBOUR of PERTH, for improving the Navigation of the River Tay to the said City, and for other purposes therewith connected', and another Act passed in the fourth and fifth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, entitled, 'An Act to alter and amend an Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of His late Majesty, and first year of the reign of His present Majesty, entitled 'An Act for enlarging, improving, and maintaining the Port and Harbour of Perth, for improving the Navigation of the River Tay, to the said City, and for other purposes therewith connected,' to the effect of extending the time allowed by the said last recited Act, for completing the operations of deepening the River Tay, and improving the Navigation of the said River, and of extending the time for taking Lands, Houses, and Premises, for the taking of which power is granted by the said recited Acts or either of them, and for authorising the Commissioners appointed under authority of the said last recited Act, to borrow or take up at interest, before the expiry of such extension of time, a farther sum of money to be expended by them for the purposes thereby authorised, such sum of money to form part of the sum already authorised to be ultimately borrowed upon the security of the rates and duties leviable under the said last recited Act, and expended for the purposes therein mentioned, and for making such alterations on, and additions to the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them, as may appear to be necessary, in consequence of the said extension of time and power to borrow money.

Perth, November 5, 1838.

INTIMATION is hereby given, that THOMAS SPEARS, Distiller, Yardheads, Leith, with the concurrence of the Trustee on his sequestrated estate, and of four-fifths of his Creditors in number and value, has applied by Petition to the Court of Session, for a discharge of all debts owing by him prior to the date of his sequestration.

Edinburgh, November 15, 1838.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,

THAT application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session, for leave to bring in a Bill to enable Mrs. Elizabeth Grierson, otherwise Crichton, widow and relict of James Crichton, Esquire, of Friars' Carse in the County of Dumfries, deceased, William Grierson, Esquire, and Charles James Johnstone, Esquire, the surviving Trustees of the Will of the said James Crichton, to found, endow, and establish a certain Institution or Asylum for the reception of Lunatics, and persons of unsound mind, by the name of the CRICHTON ROYAL INSTITUTION, at Dumfries, in the County of Dumfries; and to incorporate the said Founders and Trustees, and such other persons as shall be named in the said Bill, to be Governors and Directors of the said Institution, and their successors for the time being; and to enable them to sue and be sued in their corporate name, or in the name of any member or officer of said Institution; and to grant to them certain other powers, in order to enable them the better to carry on their charitable designs.

Dated this 12th day of November, 1838.
