NOTICE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, during the ensuing Session, for leave to bring in a BILL for Continuing, Extending, Altering, Amending, and in part Repealing, the several Provisions of the following Acts of Parliament, or some of them, viz.—1st, An Act passed in the 32d year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled, “An Act for improving the Navigation of the River Clyde to the City of Glasgow; and for Building a Bridge cross the said River, from the said City to the Village of Gorbells.” 2dly, An Act passed in the 10th year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled, “An Act to explain and amend an Act made in the 32d year of the Reign of King George the Second for improving the Navigation of the River Clyde to the City of Glasgow, and for Building a Bridge cross the said River from the said City to the Village of Gorbells.” 3dly, An Act passed in the 49th year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled, “An Act for explaining and amending two Acts for improving the Navigation of the River Clyde to the City of Glasgow.” 4thly, An Act passed in the 6th year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled, “An Act for amending three Acts for enlarging the Harbour of Glasgow; and improving the Navigation of the River Clyde to the said City; and for other purposes therein mentioned;” and, particularly, for power to continue the operations authorised by the said recited Acts, and to execute and carry on, such additional works and operations as may be proper and expedient, for widening, enlarging, and still further deepening and improving the River Clyde from the Harbour at the Broomielaw to Port-Glasgow and Cardross, to such an extent, and in such a manner, as to enable vessels of larger dimensions, employed in the Foreign and Colonial as well as in the Coasting Trade, and especially large vessels moved by the power of Steam, freely to navigate the said River, and for thereafter maintaining the said River in such improved state; for power to enlarge and still further improve, and maintain in such improved state, the present Harbour of Glasgow and Quays thereof, on both sides of the said River; and especially to form and construct a Basin or Dock and other relative works in the Lands of Windmill croft, on the South side of the said River, for the reception and accommodation of vessels resorting to the said River and Harbour; and such Wharfs, Sheds, and other Works adjacent to the said Harbour and River, as may be necessary for the accommodation of the Trade, and safe deposition of Goods, Wares, and other Merchandise; and to deviate from the lines of the said Works and operations, or any of them, as delineated on the Maps and Plans thereof to be deposited as after-mentioned, to a distance not exceeding twenty yards upon the lands contained in the said Maps or Plans, in so far as regards the Works to be executed for the enlargement of the said Harbour on the North side of the said River, and to a distance not exceeding thirty yards, in so far as regards the Works to be executed for the enlargement or improvement of the said River; for power to contract for, provide, and regulate the supply of water for the use of the Shipping resorting to the said Harbour, Quays, and other works, and to exact and levy such remuneration therefor as may be considered reasonable; for power, for the several purposes aforesaid, to occupy and operate upon the Bed, Channel, or Alveus, and Banks of the River Clyde, and to take, treat for, purchase, and acquire by Jury valuation or otherwise, such Lands, Grounds, Heritages, and Fishings, adjacent to, or in the Alveus of the said River and Harbour, as may be necessary or expedient for widening, enlarging, and improving the said River and Harbour, and constructing the said Basin or Dock, and other works; for power to construct Jettees, connecting lateral Dykes, and other such works along the Lands and Estate of Erskine, as in the other parts of the said River; and for repealing any exception with regard to the said Lands and Estate, and the works to be executed along or below the same, or opposite thereto, which may exist in any of the before recited Acts; for power for effecting the purposes aforesaid, to exact and levy moderate and reasonable Rates and Duties upon Sailing and Steam Vessels, Goods, Wares, Merchandise, and other commodities entering into, or departing from, the said Harbour, Basin, or Dock, and other Works, or passing, carried, or conveyed, upon, into, or along the said River, either according to the present or existing Rates and Duties, or such moderately increased, or partly increased and partly diminished Rates as shall be considered expedient; for power to increase, alter, or diminish the whole, or such parts of the existing Harbour or Quay, and River, Shed, and Weighing or other Duties accordingly, and, likewise, as experience shall render necessary or advisable, to classify, reduce, lessen, or discontinue and revive the said Rates and Duties, respectively, from time to time, and in such proportions, as shall seem just and expedient; for power to borrow such an additional sum or sums of money as may be necessary for the said purposes, upon the credit of the said several and respective rates and duties; for extending, improving, and rendering more effectual the Bye-Laws and Regulations of the said River and Harbour; and for other purposes relating thereto:—Which said River, Navigation, Harbour, and proposed Basin or Dock, and other Works, are situated, and comprehended, in, or bounded by, or partly situated and comprehended in or bounded by, the Towns or Burghs of Glasgow, Renfrew, Dumbarton, and Port-Glasgow; in, or by, the Parish of Glasgow, or, more specially, as the said Parish has been subdivided, quoad sacra, in, or by, the several Parishes of St. James, St. Enoch, the Bridgegate, St. George, and St. Peter's, in the said City; in, or by, the Parish of the Barony of Glasgow, or, more specially, the said Parish has likewise been subdivided as aforesaid, partly by the said Barony Parish, and partly by the Parishes of Anderston, and St. Mark; in, or by, the Parish of Govan, or, more specially, as the said Parish has also been subdivided as aforesaid, partly in, or by, the Parish of Govan, and partly in, or by, the Parishes of Gorbals, Kirkfield, and Partick; and in, or by, the several Parishes of Renfrew, Old Kilpatrick, Inchinnan, Erskine, Kilmacollm, Port-Glasgow, Newark, Dumbarton, and Cardross, all in the Counties of Lanark, Renfrew, and Dumbarton:—And Notice is hereby further given, That the Plans and Sections describing or delineating the said intended works and improvements, together with the Books of Reference thereto, containing the names of the owners, or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands, houses, heritages, and other property in or through which such works and improvements are to be made, or which are to be taken and used for such purposes, required by the standing orders of Parliament, will be deposited for public inspection on or before the 30th day of November 1838, in the offices of the Principal Sheriff Clerks, as follows: that is to say, at Lanark, and Glasgow, for the said County of Lanark; at Paisley, and also at Renfrew, (if the Sheriff-Clerk has an office at the latter Town) for the said County of Renfrew; at Dumbarton, for the said County of Dumbarton; and that a Copy of so much of the said Plans, Sections, and Books of Reference, as relates to each of the Parishes, and Towns, or Burghs aforesaid, will be deposited for public inspection, on or before the 31st December 1838, with the Schoolmaster, if any, and, if there shall be no Schoolmaster, then with the Session Clerk of each of the said several Parishes, at their respective residences, and also with the Town Clerk of each of the said Burghs or Towns of Glasgow, Renfrew, Dumbarton, and Port-Glasgow, at their respective Offices within the said Burghs.

COUNCIL-CHAMBERS,
Glasgow, October 12, 1838.
