INDIA BOARD, August 29, 1839.

A DISPATCH has been received at the East India-house, from the Governor in Council of Bombay, of which the following is an extract :—

WE avail ourselves of the departure of the East India Company's steamer Berenice, for the Persian Gulf, to transmit to the Honourable the Secret Committee our latest intelligence up to this date.

Private letters have been received from Candahar up to the 20th of May, and the intelligence they communicate is satisfactory.

His Majesty, Shah Shooja-ool-Moolk, was crowned on the 8th of May, and we have the honour to enclose, in this dispatch, copies of three General Orders, issued on the occasion, by his Excellency Lieutenant-General Sir John Keane. We have not obtained these officially, but we have no doubt of their authenticity.

A force under command of Brigadier Sale, having been detached against Gerishk, that place was occupied, without opposition, on the 15th of May, the Sirdars of Candahar having decamped before the Brigadier's arrival.

The troops were generally healthy, and provisions, though still scarce, were becoming more plentiful. It was anticipated that the army would be able to commence its march on Cabool about the 10th of June, its movement before the above date being delayed on account of a large convoy of treasure and supplies expected from Shikarpore.

It was generally believed, in camp, that the native portion of the Bombay division of the Army of the Indus would remain at Candahar ; and that the European portion would proceed to Ghiznee ; and that, after reaching this place, the whole of the Bengal division would march on Cabool. No authentic intelligence had been obtained of the intention of Dort Mahomed ; but there is good reason to believe that he has already been deserted by many of his chiefs and followers.

The intelligence of the state of affairs at Herat continues satisfactory. A mission, under the guidance of Major Todd, was about to be deputed to that place, with presents from the Right Honourable the Governor General of India to Shah Kamran ; several officers of the Engineers and Artillery are to accompany the mission, for the purpose of improving the fortifications of Herat ; but we do not understand that it is considered necessary to send any portion of our army, now in Afghanistan, to that place.

GENERAL ORDERS.

Head-Quarters, Camp, Candahar, May 4.

THE combined forces of Bengal and Bombay being now assembled at Candahar, the Commander-in-Chief congratulates all ranks on the triumphant, though arduous, march which they have accomplished, from distant and distinct parts of India, with a regularity and discipline which is much appreciated by him, and reflects upon themselves the highest credit. The difficulties which have been surmounted have been of no ordinary nature, and the recollection of what has been overcome must hereafter be a pleasing reflection to those concerned, who have so zealously, and in so soldier-like a manner, contributed to effect them, so as to arrive at the desired end. The engineers had to make roads, and occasionally, in some extraordinary steep mountain passes, over which no wheeled carriage had ever passed. This was a work requiring science and much severe labour ; but so well has it been done that the progress of the army was in no way impeded. The heavy and light ordnance were alike taken over in safety, by the exertions and good spirit of the artillery, in which they were most cheerfully and ably assisted by the troops, both European and native, and in a manner which gave the whole proceeding the appearance that each man was working for a favourite object of his own.

2. His Excellency shares in the satisfaction which the troops must feel (after the difficult task they have accomplished, and the trying circumstances under which they have been placed, the nature of which is well known to themselves, and therefore unnecessary for him to detail) at knowing the enthusiasm with which the population of Candahar have received and welcomed the return of their lawful Sovereign, Shah Shooja-ool-Moolk, to the throne of his ancestors in Afghanistan. Sir John Keane will not fail to report to the Right Honourable Lord Auckland, Governor-General of India, his admiration of the conduct and discipline of the troops, by which means it has been easy to effect and to fulfil the plans of his Lordship in the operations of the campaign hitherto.

3. The Commander-in-Chief has already, in a general order, dated the 6th ultimo, expressed his acknowledgments to Major-General Sir Willoughby Cotton, for the creditable and judicious manner in which he conducted the Bengal column to the valley of Shawl. His Excellency has now a pleasing duty to perform, in requesting Major-General Wilshire, commanding the Bombay column, to accept his best thanks for his successful exertions in bringing the troops of that presidency to this ground in the most efficient and soldier-like state.

4. The Commander-in-Chief entertains a confident expectation that the same orderly conduct which has gained for the troops the goodwill of the inhabitants of the states and countries through which they have passed, will continue to be observed by them during their advance upon Cabool, when the proper time for the adoption of that step shall have been decided upon by his Excellency, in concert with his Majesty Shah Shooja-ool-Moolk, and the Envoy and Minister W. H. Macnaghten, Esq. representing British interests at the Court of the King of Afghanistan.

On the occasion of his Majesty Shah Shooja-ool-Moolk taking possession of his throne, and receiving the homage of his people at Candahar, the following ceremonial will be observed:—

The whole of the troops now at head quarters will be formed in review order at daylight in the morning of the 8th instant, on ground which will be pointed out to Assistant Adjutants General of divisions to-morrow afternoon, at five o'clock, by the Deputy Adjutant General of the Bengal army.

The troops will take up their ground in the following order from the right:—

Bengal.—Horse artillery, cavalry brigade, camel battery, 1st brigade of infantry, 4th brigade of infantry.

Bombay.—Horse Artillery, cavalry brigade, infantry brigade.

The fourth local horse will take up a position in the front of the right flank, and the Poonah auxiliary horse in front of the left flank, for the purpose of keeping the space in advance of the troops clear of the populace.

A platform will be erected for his Majesty Shah Shooja-ool-Moolk, in front of the centre of the line, on either flank of which detachments of his Majesty's cavalry will take post to prevent the intrusion of the populace.

Captain Lloyd's battery of Bombay Artillery will be stationed at the Edgah gate of the town, and will fire a royal salute as his Majesty passes.

The troops of his Majesty Shah Shooja will be drawn up in the street in the most convenient situation, between the gate and the British army, and will salute His Majesty as he passes. The King's artillery will be formed near the Palace, and will fire a royal salute on the departure and return of His Majesty.

On His Majesty approaching the platform, a royal salute is to be fired from one of the batteries in the line; and, on his appearing in front of the troops, he will be received with a general salute from the whole line, the colours being lowered in the manner that is usual to crowned heads, and, as soon as the infantry has shouldered arms, one hundred and one guns are to be fired from the batteries in line, under directions of Brigadier Stevenson.

The envoy, and ministers, and officers attached to the mission, the Commander in Chief and his personal staff, and the officers at the heads of departments, and Afghan Sirdars, are to be stationed on the right of the throne, syeds and moolahs on the left, the populace on both sides and rear of the Shah, restrained by His Majesty's cavalry, 4th local horse and Poonah auxiliary horse.

The Envoy and Commander in Chief will present nuzzurs, as representatives of government.

The officers of the Shah's force will also present nuzzurs, leaving their troops for that purpose after the Shah has passed, and returning to receive his Majesty.

The Shah's subjects will then present nuzzurs. At the close of the ceremony the troops will march past, the cavalry in columns of squadrons, the infantry in columns of companies, in slow time; the columns will move up to the wheeling point in quick time; the columns having passed will continue their route towards the encampment, the 4th brigade of Bengal infantry moving on to the Cabool gateway, at which His Majesty will enter the city, where it will form a street, and salute His Majesty as he passes.

The troops are to appear in white trousers; the officers of the general staff in blue trousers and gold lace.

Corps will parade on the occasion as strong as possible, and the encampments will be protected by the convalescents, and by quarter and rear guards, such extra guards as may be considered essentially necessary to be placed over treasure, at the discretion of brigadiers commanding brigades.

Officers commanding divisions are to be supplied with field states, showing the actual number of troops there are under arms in their respective commands, to be delivered when called for.

His Majesty having expressed a wish that his Excellency the Commander in Chief should be near His Person during the ceremony, Major-General Sir Willoughby Cotton will command the troops in line.

May 7.

Owing to the indisposition of Major-General Sir Willoughby Cotton, and his inability consequently to attend to-morrow, at the ceremonial on the occasion of His Majesty Shah Shooja-ool-Moolk taking possession of his throne, the post assigned to the Major-General by the General Order of the 5th instant, of commanding the line, will devolve on Major-General Wilshire as the next senior officer; and he is requested to meet the Deputy Adjutant and Deputy Quartermaster-General of the Bengal and Bombay troops on the ground, this afternoon, at the time he may fix, to make the necessary arrangements.

May 8.

Lieutenant-General Sir John Keane has received the gracious commands of His Majesty, Shah Shooja-ool-Moolk, to convey to Major General Wilshire, commanding in the field, to the generals and other officers and the non-commissioned officers and soldiers, who were present and assisted at the splendid spectacle of the King taking possession of his throne, this day, the deep sense His Majesty entertains of the obligation he owes to them, and to the British nation. The King added, that he would request W. H. Macnaghten, Esq. Envoy and Minister at His Majesty's Court, to convey these his Sentiments to the Right Honourable Lord Auckland, Governor-General of India.

By order of Lieutenant-General Sir John Keane,
Commander in Chief of the Army of the Indus,
R. MACDONALD, Lieutenant-Colonel, Military Secretary and Deputy Adjutant-General of Her Majesty's Forces, Bombay.

CROWN-OFFICE, September 2, 1839.
