

To the CREDITORS of

JOHN JACKSON, late Hatter in Edinburgh.

CHARLES CALDER, Hatter in Edinburgh, Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said John Jackson, has made up a state of the funds recovered by him, and of the claims lodged against the same, with a scheme of division of said funds among the creditors, which, with the trustee's accounts, will remain in his hands for the inspection of all concerned until Monday the 9th of April next, being the first lawful day after the expiration of one year from the date of the first deliverance on the petition for sequestration; on which day the trustee requests a General Meeting of the Creditors within John's Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, at twelve o'clock noon, to receive their dividends, and to give such directions respecting the future management of the estate, as to them shall appear necessary.

To the CREDITORS of

ROBERT HARDY, Horse-dealer at Williams Craigs.

JAMES AITKEN, writer in Falkirk, trustee elected upon the sequestrated estate of the said Robert Hardy, at a general meeting of the Creditors, and whose election has since been confirmed by the Court of Session, in terms of the late bankrupt act, hereby intimates, that the Sheriff Substitute of Linlithgow has fixed Monday the 19th March next, at 11 o'clock forenoon, for the first diet, and Monday the 2d April next, at the same hour, for the second diet, within the Sheriff Court Room of Linlithgow, for the public examination of the bankrupt, his wife, or others of his family, or connected with his business.—

The Trustee further intimates, that a meeting of the Creditors will be held at same place and hour, on Tuesday the 3d day of the said month of April, for instructing the Trustee as to the management and recovery of the estate. And the whole Creditors are hereby required to produce in the Trustee's hands, their claims and vouchers, or grounds of debt, with their oaths on the verity thereof, at or previous to the said meeting: and unless the said productions are made between and the 2d November 1798, being ten months after the date of the first deliverance on the petition for sequestration, the party neglecting, shall have no share in the first distribution of the debtor's estate, in terms of the fore-said act of Parliament.

To the CREDITORS of

JAMES HARDY DOUGLAS, residing at Craigtintny, STATES of Mr Douglas's affairs are made up, and will lie in the hands of Robert Allan, accountant in Edinburgh, the trustee, until Wednesday the 4th day of April next, on which day, at 12 o'clock noon, he requests the creditors to meet within his house, North St David's Street, to give directions as to the future management. There is at present no dividend.

To the CREDITORS of

JOSEPH BOGUE, Merchant in Grangemouth.

A Meeting of the Creditors having taken place on the 21st of September 1797, the day after the last public examination of the said Joseph Bogue, in terms of the statute, he then made offer of a certain composition for his debts, which appeared reasonable to the creditors present; and they appointed another meeting to be called and held within the house of George Turner, vintner in Falkirk, upon Wednesday the 21st day of March 1798; at one o'clock afternoon, in order to consider of the above proposal made by Mr Bogue for a composition.

The trustee on Mr Bogue's sequestrated estate therefore requests the attendance of his whole creditors at said meeting, by themselves, or others duly authorized.

To the CREDITORS of

WILLIAM MORRISON, Manufacturer in Dundee.

EBENEZER ANDERSON, Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said William Morrison, in terms of the act of Parliament, hereby intimates to the Creditors, that he has recovered part of the funds belonging to the bankrupt, and has made up a state of these, together with the different claims made on the estate, and a scheme of division among the Creditors, with a state of the funds still unrecovered, and of the money remaining in the Bank, after deduction of the sum so to be divided; which scheme and state lie open in the Trustee's hands for the inspection of the Creditors, or their agents, for the space of one month from this date.

The Trustee, in terms of said act, further intimates, that upon the 29th day of March next, being one complete year after the first deliverance on the petition for sequestration, he will commence payment to the Creditors of their respective dividends, in terms of said act. Dundee Feb. 1798.
