At three o'clock the Knights were called over by Ulster, and proceeded to the presence of the Grand Master, who was seated in the Chair of State, and the Knights Companions took their respective seats at the table according to their Stalls.

His Excellency then commanded Ulster to read Her Majesty's Letter, authorising the Chapter to be held, which being done, the Earl of Miltown was introduced by the Gentleman Usher and Ulster King of Arms, and received the honour of Knighthood.

His Excellency the Grand Master, then communicated to the Chapter that Her Majesty had been pleased to nominate the Right Honourable Sir Joseph Leeson, Knt., Earl of Miltown, to be a Knight Companion of the Most Illustrious Order, and commanded that his Lordship should be invested with the ribband and badge on the present occasion.

By command of the Grand Master, the two junior Knights present proceeded to the door of the Chapter-room, and conducted the Earl of Miltown between them to the right of the Chair of State, Ulster bearing the ensigns of the Order before them on a velvet cushion, where his Lordship made and subscribed the declaration appointed by Her Majesty's command, instead of the Oath

His Excellency the Grand Master, assisted by the two senior Knights Companions present, put the ribband with the badge over the Earl's right shoulder, pronouncing the admonition; after which the Earl was congratulated by His Excellency, and the Knights present, and took his seat at the table. The Chapter being ended, Ulster, Knight Attendant, called over the names of the Knights Companions present, who each rose from his seat on the pronouncement of his name, and the Chapter broke up.
