

tween Hamburg and any of the countries or places mentioned in the schedule hereto, through the United Kingdom, (conveyed between Hamburg and the United Kingdom, direct by packet boat, or private ship), there shall be charged and taken, in lieu of the rates of postage payable on such letters under the said recited warrant, the rate of British postage set opposite the name of every such country or place in such schedule.

And that on every letter, not exceeding half an ounce in weight, posted in, or addressed to Hamburg, and passing between Hamburg and any other country or place beyond the seas, through the United Kingdom, conveyed between Hamburg and the United Kingdom direct by packet boat, or private ship, and conveyed from or to the United Kingdom to or from any such other country or place beyond the seas, by private ship, there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of British postage of one shilling and two pence.

And we further direct, that on every letter, not exceeding half an ounce in weight, posted in, or addressed to Lubeck, transmitted by the post between any part of the United Kingdom and Lubeck (either direct, or via Hamburg), by packet boat, or private ship, there shall be charged and taken, in lieu of the rates of postage payable on such letters under the said Act, an uniform rate of British postage of six pence.

And that on every letter, not exceeding half an ounce in weight, posted in, or addressed to Lubeck, transmitted by the post, and passing (either direct or via Hamburg), between Lubeck and any of the countries or places mentioned in the schedule hereto, through the United Kingdom, (conveyed between Lubeck or Hamburg, and the United Kingdom, direct by packet boat, or private ship), there shall be charged and taken, in lieu of the rates of postage payable on such letters under the said recited warrant, the rate of British postage set opposite the name of every such country or place, in such schedule.

And that on every letter, not exceeding half an ounce in weight, posted in, or addressed to Lubeck, and passing between Lubeck and any other country or place beyond the seas, through the United Kingdom, conveyed between Lubeck and the United Kingdom (either direct, or via Hamburg) by packet boat, or private ship, and conveyed from or to the United Kingdom to or from any such other country or place beyond the seas by private ship, there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of British postage of one shilling and two pence.

And we further direct, that on every letter, transmitted as is mentioned in this warrant, exceeding half an ounce in weight, there shall be charged and taken progressive and additional rates of postage, according to the scale of weight and number of rates in the said Act contained as to letters estimating and charging each additional rate at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this warrant, if not exceeding half an ounce in weight.

And we further direct, that the terms and expressions used in this present warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning, in all respects, as they would have had if inserted in the said Act.

And we further direct, that this warrant shall come into operation on the 6th day of April 1841.

Provided lastly, and we hereby declare and direct, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, for the time being, of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any three of them, by warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby altered, or the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and, from time to time, to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable, are to be paid.
