DUBLIN CASTLE, September 21, 1841.

This day the Privy Council assembled, when Lieutenant-General the Right Honourable Sir Edward Blakeney, Commanding the Forces in Ireland, was sworn one of the Lords Justices of Ireland.

WHITEHALL, September 21, 1841.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Sir Edmund Lyons, Bart. Her Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary to the King of Greece, Captain in the Royal Navy, and Knight Commander of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, Her royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the insignia of the French Order of St. Louis, which his late Most Christian Majesty the King of France was pleased to confer upon him, in approbation of his services at the siege of the castle of Morea; and also that he may accept and wear the insignia of a Knight Commander of the Grecian Order of the Redeemer, which the King of Greece hath been pleased to confer upon him, in approbation of his services at Patras, in the year 1828; and that he may enjoy all the rights and privileges thereunto annexed:

And also to command, that Her Majesty's said concession and especial mark of Her royal favour be registered, together with the relative documents, in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto George-Paulett Cameron, Esq. Captain in the 40th Regiment of Native Infantry in the service of the East India Company, on the Madras Establishment, Lieutenant-Colonel in Persia, and Companion of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, Her royal licence and permission that he may accept and wear the insignia of the Portuguese Orders of the Tower and Sword and of the Conception, which the late Regent of Portugal was pleased to confer upon him, in approbation of his distinguished gallantry on several occasions, during the year 1833, while in the actual military service of Portugal, and that he may enjoy all the rights and privileges thereunto annexed; provided, nevertheless, that Her Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege, appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And also to command, that Her Majesty's said concession and especial mark of Her royal favour be registered, together with the relative documents, in Her Majesty's College of Arms.
