ANDREW ISLES, Trustee.
Edinburgh, November 25, 1841.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,

THAT application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills, for Erecting, Altering, Extending, and Maintaining a LOW-WATER PIER or LOW-WATER PIERS at Burntisland, on the Frith of Forth, in the County of Fife, with the necessary Accesses, Wharfs, Houses, Offices, and other Works connected therewith, and for establishing a FERRY in manner after-mentioned: And also, for Making and Maintaining a NEW TURNPIKE ROAD, leading from a point in the town of Burntisland, where the Pier Gates are to be erected, along the Harbour of Burntisland, to the site of the present Court-House of the said Town, there joining the Great Northern Road leading from the Harbour of Burntisland by Kinross to the City of Perth, and proceeding along that Road to a point at the eastern extremity of the Town of Burntisland, from which it will run in an easterly direction till it joins the road between Pettycur and Kirkcaldy, within the town of Kinghorn, thus including in its course a portion of the said Great Northern Road, of 500 yards or thereby in length. And, so far as may be necessary for these purposes, to continue, alter, and amend, or to repeal the several Acts of Parliament made for improving the communication between the Counties of Fife and Mid-Lothian, across the Frith of Forth,—videlicet, An act passed in the 32d year of the reign of his Majesty King George the III., intituled, ‘An act for improving the communication between the County of Edinburgh and the County of Fife, by the passages or ferries cross the Frith of Forth, between Leith and Newhaven, in the County of Edinburgh, and Kinghorn and Burntisland in the County of Fife, and for rendering the Harbours and landing places more commodious.’ And another act passed in the 53d year of the reign of his said Majesty, intituled, ‘An act for further improving the communication between the County of Edinburgh and the County of Fife, by the Ferries cross the Frith of Forth, between Leith and Newhaven, in the County of Edinburgh, and Kinghorn and Burntisland in the County of Fife.’ And another Act passed in the 1st and 2d year of the reign of his Majesty King George IV., intituled, ‘An act to amend and enlarge the powers of an act of the 53d year of his late Majesty, for improving the communication between the County of Edinburgh and County of Fife, by the Ferries cross the Frith of Forth, between Leith and Newhaven, and Kinghorn and Burntisland.’ And another act passed in the 7th year of the reign of his said Majesty, intituled, ‘An act for further improving the communication between the Counties of Edinburgh and Fife, by the Ferries cross the Frith of Forth, between Leith and Newhaven, Kinghorn, Burntisland, and Dysart; and also to continue, alter, and amend an act passed in the 37th year of the reign of his Majesty King George III., intituled, ‘An act for regulating and converting the statute labour in the County of Fife, and for more effectually making and repairing the Highways within the said County; and also an Act passed in the 47th year of the reign of his said Majesty, intituled, ‘An act for further regulating and converting the statute labour in the County of Fife, and for more effectually making and repairing the Highways, Bridges, and Ferries within the said County.’ And an act passed in the 10th year of the reign of his said Majesty, King George the IV., intituled, ‘An act for repairing and keeping in repair the Turnpike Roads in the County of Fife, for rendering Turnpike certain statute labour and parish roads, and for making and maintaining certain new roads in the said County.’ And also to alter and amend an act passed in the 10th year of the reign of his said Majesty, King George IV., intituled, ‘An act for more effectually making, amending, widening, repairing, and maintaining the Great North Roads leading from the North Queensferry, and from the Harbour of Burntisland, both in the County of Fife, by Kinross to the City of Perth, and also the road from the said North Queensferry to the town of Dunfermline.’

Which Pier or Piers, accesses thereto, and other works connected therewith, and the said new Turnpike Road are, or will be situated in, or pass from, through, or into the Parishes of Burntisland and Kinghorn, in the County of Fife. In which Bill or Bills it is intended to take powers to acquire and take the lands and heritages necessary for the said Pier or Piers, accesses thereto, and other works, houses, and offices connected therewith, and for the said new Turnpike Road, and to make a lateral deviation from the line or lines of the said Pier or Piers, and other works and accesses, and Turnpike Road, or any of them, as laid down and delineated on the plans hereinafter referred to: Also to include the said intended new road, and the said 500 yards or thereby of the Great Northern Road by Kinross to Perth, at present under the management of the Trustees for the Great Northern Road, in the list of turnpike roads of the Kirkcaldy district, contained in the said first recited Act of the 10th year of the reign of his said Majesty King George IV., and to place it under the same regulations and superintendence as if originally included therein: Or, in the event of the said Trustees being unwilling to separate the said 500 yards or thereby of road from their trust, with power to the Trustees of the Kirkcaldy District, to enter into an arrangement with them, for keeping up and maintaining the said 500 yards or thereby of the Great Northern Road: And also, with power to the said Trustees of the Kirkcaldy District, to apply the tolls, rates, and duties collected under the said Act, in part or in whole, for the use of the said intended New Turnpike Road, and to borrow, take up at interest, or raise money by loan, upon the Credit of the said recited Turnpike Act, and rates, tolls, and duties thereby granted, or by subscription or otherwise, for the purpose of making and maintaining the said New Turnpike Road,—to take powers to the Trustees of the Fife and Mid-Lothian Ferries, under the said recited Acts,—to wind up the affairs of the said Trusts, realize the effects and property thereof, and divide the same among the Creditors of the Trust,—to confer upon Walter Francis Duke of Buccleuch and Queensberry, and John Gladstone, Esq. of Fasque, at whose expense the said Pier or

Piers, accesses thereto, and other works, houses, and offices connected therewith, are to be erected and made, and their assignees or lessees, or their respective heirs, executors, and successors, the exclusive right of ferry between Burntisland aforesaid, and the Pier of Granton, in the County of Mid-Lothian, on the south side of the Frith of Forth, and also the exclusive right to the Pier or Piers, accesses thereto, and other works, houses, and offices to be erected at Burntisland connected therewith, and of levying tolls, rates, duties, or dues thereat, for a term of years, with power to them to lease the same during such term, and to extinguish and prevent all right and privilege of ferry from the south shore to any place or station nearer to Burntisland than Pettycur on the east, and the property and Harbour of the Earl of Morton on the west. And also, exclusive of any right of the Magistrates and Town Council of Burntisland, and all others, to impose, demand, and levy tolls, rates, duties, or dues on Ships, Boats, and other vessels resorting to and using the said Pier or Piers, and on all Goods, Merchandise, Minerals, Passengers, Live Stock, Articles, matters and things of every kind, landed or shipped at the said Pier or Piers, to discontinue the rates and duties at present leviable under the said recited Ferry Acts, or any of them, and to establish new and other Ferry rates and duties, for and in respect of the Ferry to be established by the Bill, and to confer, vary or extinguish any exemption from payment of Tolls, Rates, or Duties, or any other rights or privileges necessary for the purposes of the said Bill, and to borrow, take up at interest, or raise money by loan, subscription, or otherwise, for the purpose of erecting, extending, and maintaining the said Pier or Piers, and works, and accesses connected therewith—and generally to do all matters and things necessary for the said purposes, or any of them.

AND NOTICE IS HEREBY FARTHER GIVEN, That Plans and Sections of the said Pier or Piers, and other works, accesses, and road, and duplicates thereof, together with the Books of Reference to the same, containing the names of the Owners, or reputed Owners, Lessees, or reputed Lessees, and occupiers of the lands and heritages intended to be taken or used for the said Pier or Piers, and other works, accesses, and road, will be deposited for public inspection with the principal Sheriff-Clerk of the County of Fife, at his Office in Cupar, on or before the 30th day of November 1841, and that copies of so much of the said Plans and Sections, and Books of Reference, as relate to each Parish, will be deposited with the respective Schoolmasters of the Parishes of Burntisland and Kinghorn, at the respective places of residence of such Schoolmasters, and with the Town-Clerks of the Royal Burghs of Burntisland and Kinghorn, at the Offices of such Town-Clerks respectively, on or before the 31st day of December 1841.

COUNTY OF ABERDEEN.

NEW TURNPIKE ACT.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session, for an Act to continue the term, and to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the first year of the reign of his late Majesty, King George the Fourth, intituled, 'An Act for more effectually making, maintaining, and repairing certain Roads in the county of Aberdeen, and in the counties of Banff and Kincardine,' or to repeal the said Act, and to obtain further and additional powers in lieu thereof. And power is intended to be obtained by the said Act, to make and maintain the several new lines of Road hereinafter mentioned: that is to say—

First. From the present Turnpike Road leading from Aberdeen to Inverury, at or near Port Elphinstone, to a point upon the Kintore and Alford Turnpike Road, at or near the Church of Kemnay; passing from, in, through, or into the parishes of Inverury, Kintore, and Kemnay, in the said county of Aberdeen:

Second. From a point on the Kintore and Alford Turnpike Road, at or near the Village of Monymusk, to the Bridge of Keig, at or near Castle Forbes; and from thence, on the north side of the River Don, to a point at or near the north end of the Bridge across the River Don at Alford; passing from, in, through, or into the parishes of Monymusk, Keig, Tough, Tullynessle and Forbes, in the said county of Aberdeen:

Third. From a point on the present Turnpike Road leading from Inverury to Forgue, at or near the Church of Forgue, to the River Doveron, at or near Rothiemay, with a Bridge across the said River; and from thence to the Town of Keith, passing from, in, through, or into the parishes of Forgue, Huntly, and Cairney, in the said county of Aberdeen; and the parishes of Grange and Keith, in the said county of Banff:

Fourth. From a point upon the present Turnpike Road leading from Inverury to Forgue, at or near Boynsmill, to the Town of Turriff; passing from, in, through, or into the parishes of Forgue, Inverkeithny, and Turriff, in the said county of Aberdeen:

Fifth. From a point upon the present Turnpike Road leading from Aberdeen to Inverury at or near its junction with the Old Meldrum Turnpike Road, to the north end of the Bridge across the River Dee, at or near Ruthrieston; passing from, in, through, or into the parishes of Newhills, Old Machar, and Banchory Devenick, in the said county of Aberdeen:

Sixth. From a point upon the present Turnpike Road, leading from Aberdeen to Inverury, at or near its junction with the Old Meldrum Turnpike Road, to a point upon the present Turnpike Road from Aberdeen to Skene, at or near its junction with the Echt and Midmar Turnpike Road; passing from, in, through, or into the parishes of Newhills, Peterculter, and Skene, in the said county of Aberdeen:

Seventh. An Extension of the Raemoir Turnpike Road, from a point thereon, near to where it crosses the Burn of Belty, on the Farm of Craighour; and from thence westward, passing near to the Schoolhouse of Torphins, and the Farms of Wester Belty, Collieston, Tillyching, and Manse of Lumphanan, to a point upon the Parliamentary Commissioners' Road leading from Kincardine O'Neil to Alford, at or near the Farm of Bogloch; passing from, in, through, or into the parishes of Kincardine O'Neil and Lumphanan, in the said county of Aberdeen:

Eighth. From a point between the eleventh and thirteenth Milestones upon the Turnpike Road leading from the Bridge of Don to Ellon, at or near the Farm of Old Mill of Foveran, to a point at or near the Cruden Toll Bar, on the Turnpike Road leading from Ellon to Peterhead; passing from, in, through, or into the parishes of Foveran, Logie Buchan, Slains, and Cruden, in the said county of Aberdeen; with a Bridge across the River Ythan, at or near the Farm of Waterside of Slains, in the parish of Slains, and county of Aberdeen:

And also to construct and erect a Bridge of Stone over the River Don, at Dyce, in the several parishes of Dyce and New Machar, in place of the present Wooden Bridge:

And it is also proposed, by the said intended Act, to enlarge the time for the purchase of Lands for the construction of such of the lines of Road comprized therein, as have not yet been completed.

And NOTICE IS ALSO HEREBY GIVEN, that it is proposed by the said intended Act, to levy Tolls, Rates, or Duties, for the use of the proposed new Roads and Bridges, and to alter the amount, and to regulate the levying, application, and apportionment of the Tolls, Rates, or Duties, granted by the said Act hereinbefore recited; and also to confer certain exemptions from the payment of Tolls, Rates, or Duties, leviable, or to become leviable, under the said recited Act, and the said intended Act, or either of them; and also to vary or extinguish certain exemptions from the payment of Tolls, Rates, or Duties, and other rights and privileges granted by the said recited Act, or otherwise.

And NOTICE IS HEREBY FURTHER GIVEN, that duplicate Plans and Sections of the said intended new lines of Road and Bridges, with Books of Reference thereto, containing the names of the owners, or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the respective lands through which the same are intended to be carried, will be deposited for public inspection at the office of the principal Sheriff-clerk of the said county of Aberdeen, at Aberdeen; and at the office of the principal Sheriff-clerk of the county of Banff, at Banff, on or before the 30th day of November next; and that a Copy of so much of the said Plans, Sections, and Books of Reference, as relates to each of the aforesaid parishes, will be deposited with the Schoolmaster of each such parish, on or before the 31st day of December next.—Dated the 20th day of October 1841.

COUNTY OF ABERDEEN.

NEW TURNPIKE ACT.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, in terms of the Standing Orders of the Honourable the House of Commons, that it is intended, in the ensuing Session of Parliament, to apply for leave to bring in a Bill to continue and renew the Act passed in the first year of the reign of his late Majesty George the Fourth, (7th May, 1821), intituled, 'An Act for more effectually making, maintaining, and repairing certain Roads in the county of Aberdeen, and in the counties of Banff and Kincardine,' to alter and amend the provisions thereof; to regulate or alter the application and appropriation of the Tolls, Rates, and Duties thereby leviable; and to include therein, among others, the following new or additional lines of Road; and to levy Tolls, Rates, and Duties thereon, viz:—

1. From a point on the present Turnpike Road leading from Inverury to Forgue, at or near the Church of Forgue, to the River Doveron, at or near Rothiemay, with a Bridge across the said River; and from thence to a point on the Banff and Keith Turnpike Road, at or near Braco; passing through the parishes of Forgue and Huntly, in the county of Aberdeen; and the parishes of Rothiemay and Grange, in the county of Banff; and also from a point on the said last-mentioned Turnpike Road near Montgrew, through the Old Town of Newmill, to a point on the Keith and Fochabers Turnpike Road, near Haughs of Keith, passing through the said parish of Keith, in the county of Banff.

2. From a point on the present Turnpike Road from Aberdeen to Huntly, at or near Leys of Drummuies, in the parish of Drumblade, to the River Doveron, at or near Rothiemay, with a Bridge across the said River; and from thence to a point on the Portsoy and Huntly Turnpike Road, at or near the Plantation of Scraib, in the parish of Rothiemay; passing through the parishes of Drumblade and Huntly, in the county of Aberdeen; and the parish of Rothiemay, in the county of Banff.

NOTICE IS FARTHER HEREBY GIVEN, that Plans and Sections in Duplicate of the foresaid intended new lines of Road, with Books of Reference, containing the names of the owners, or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees, and occupiers, of the respective lands through which said new lines of Road are intended to be carried, will be deposited for public inspection, at the offices of the Principal Sheriff-clerks of the said counties of Aberdeen and Banff—in so far as the same are proposed to be carried through the parishes within said counties respectively, on or before the 30th day of November next; and that copies of so much of the said Plans and Sections, and Books of Reference, as relates to each parish, in or through which the said new lines of Road are intended to be carried, will be deposited with the Schoolmaster of each respective parish, on or before the 31st day of December next.

THO. & NEWELL BURNETT.

Aberdeen, October 21, 1841.

NOTICE.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Heritors of the Counties of Ross and Cromarty, and of the part of Nairn, situate in Ross, intend to apply for leave to introduce into the ensuing Session of Parliament, a Bill to enable the said Heritors to determine what extent of Court-house, and relative accommodation may be requisite in each of the Eastern, Western, Cromarty, and Lewis Districts of the Shire; and thereafter to assess each District respectively for the amount of the expense necessary for providing the said accommodations required within the same; As also, for the regulation of the Assessment, Collection, and Disbursement of the Rogue or Police Money, within the said Districts: and for authorizing the Justices of the Peace named in any of the Commissions for parts of the said Sheriffdom, to act for the whole thereof.

H. I. CAMERON.

County Clerk's Office,
Dingwall, 29th October 1841.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in the event of a Bill being brought into Parliament in the ensuing Session, for continuing, altering, or amending an Act of the First and Second year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, entitled, 'An Act for enlarging, explaining, and continuing certain Acts of His late Majesty's Reign for repairing and keeping in repair the Road from Parkhouse, to or near the Three-mile-house in the county of Lanark,' or for repealing the said recited Act, and granting new powers for the maintenance, repair, and management of the said Road, or otherwise relating thereto, Application will be made to Parliament to insert in such Bill, provisions for enabling and obliging the Trustees of the said Road, to carry the said Road over the Polloc and Govan Railway by a Bridge, and to execute all works necessary for that purpose; which Bridge and Works will be situate in the parishes of Govan and Gorbals and Kingston, or one or more of them, in the county of Lanark: And Notice is also Given, that Plans and Sections of the said Bridge and other works, with Books of Reference to such Plans, will, on or before the 30th day of November next, be deposited in the office in Glasgow of the Principal Sheriff-Clerk of the said County of Lanark, and that a copy of the said Plans, Sections, and Books of Reference, will, on or before the 31st day of December next, be deposited with the Schoolmaster, or, if there be no Schoolmaster, with the Session-Clerk, if any, of each of the said Parishes.
