FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1842.

DALKEITH PALACE, September 5, 1842.

THE following Addresses were presented to Her Majesty; which Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:—

UNTO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Dean and Faculty of Advocates.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Dean and Faculty of Advocates, desire to offer to your Majesty the humble assurance of our cordial participation in the general joy diffused amongst our fellow-citizens by your Majesty's gracious presence in this the capital of your ancient Kingdom, where your Majesty's Royal predecessors for so many centuries held sway.

We humbly beg leave on this occasion most dutifully to tender to your Majesty the expression of our steadfast attachment and devoted loyalty to your Majesty's Royal Person and House, under whose rightful and benignant rule the people of this country have experienced the best blessings of established government and constitutional liberty.

We fervently pray that your Majesty's life may be long preserved to gladden the hearts of your loyal subjects, and that, while under your Majesty's reign the honour and interests of the Empire are maintained, your Majesty may continue to enjoy the most ample measure of personal and domestic happiness, and the prospect of transmitting, in fullness of time, to your Royal descendants the peaceful and prosperous possession of the Throne of their Ancestors.

A. WOOD, Dean of Faculty,
By Order of the Faculty.

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Keeper, Deputy Keepers, Commissioners, and Society of Writers to your Majesty's Signet, approach your Majesty with a deep feeling of ardent and devoted attachment to your Majesty's person, family and government.

Your Majesty's gracious visit to the Metropolis of Scotland, the ancient seat of a long line of Kings, cannot fail to excite a lively feeling of heartfelt joy and gratitude throughout this part of your Majesty's dominions, and is an event which will form a memorable epoch in our domestic annals.

Deeply impressed with a strong sense of the benefits which this Country has derived from the accession of your Majesty's Illustrious House to the Throne of these realms, we cordially unite with our fellow-subjects in the exultation produced by your Majesty's auspicious arrival among us, and in the sincere and earnest prayer, that your Majesty's reign may be long and prosperous.

Signed in name, and behalf, and by authority of the Society, by

W. DUNDAS,
Keeper of H. M. Signet.
