

NOTICE.

ROBERT ADAMSON, Merchant in Dundee, Trustee on the sequestrated estate of PETER DAVIDSON, Junior, and COMPANY, Fish Curers and Wood Merchants in Dundee, in Pulteneytown, Wick, and in Cork, in Ireland, as a Company, and of Peter Davidson, residing at Seafield, Broughty Ferry, near Dundee, and of Stephen Davidson, residing at Pulteneytown aforesaid, the Individual Partners of that Company, as Partners, and as Individuals, hereby intimates, that at the third general meeting of Creditors held on the 15th day of January current 1844, the Bankrupts made an offer of a composition of Six Shillings per Pound upon their debts at the date of the sequestration, payable as follows, viz.—Two Shillings per Pound with security, payable at four months after their final discharge: One Shilling and Six Pence per Pound with security, payable at eight months after the date of said discharge: One Shilling and Six Pence per Pound with security, payable at twelve months after the date of said discharge; and One Shilling per Pound without security, payable at fifteen months after the date of said discharge. The Bankrupts offered further to pay and provide for the expenses attending the sequestration, and the remuneration to the Trustee. The securities offered by the Bankrupts were David Davidson, Fish Curer, Dundee, and Pulteneytown, Wick, as sole cautioner for the first instalment, and John Kerr, Fleisher, Dundee, and William Anderson, Innkeeper, Dundee, as joint cautioners for the second and third instalments, and for the due payment of the expenses of the sequestration, and the remuneration of the Trustee. The Bankrupts have attached the following condition to their offer, viz.—‘This offer however, is made, under and subject to the following explanation, and not otherwise, viz.—that as the valuation put by the Aberdeen Town and County Bank upon the heritable securities held by them, is £1,250, which includes the Saw Mill, and ground on which it is built,—while it is more than doubtful if their securities embrace the Saw Mill and ground, the Bank shall give up the heritable properties to us at £1,000, and allow the balance of £250 as a supposed half of the value of the Saw Mill and ground, to go into the general fund, for payment of the Creditors.’ The Trustee intimates further, that the Creditors present at said meeting resolved unanimously that the said offer and security should be entertained for consideration; and Notice is hereby given, that another general meeting of the Creditors on said sequestrated estate will be held within the Royal Hotel, Dundee, on Wednesday the 7th day of February next 1844, at one o’clock afternoon, for the purpose of finally deciding on the said offer and security proposed.
