WHITEHALL, Nov. 13. 1798.

THE King has been pleased to appoint Joseph Hunt, Esq. to be a Commissioner for conducting the transport service, and for the care and custody of prisoners of war.

DUBLIN CASTLE, Nov. 6. 1798.

Sunday last being the anniversary of the birth of the late King William the Third, of glorious memory, in the morning the flag was displayed on Bedford Tower; at noon there was a splendid appearance of the Nobility and other persons of distinction at the Castle, to compliment his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; after which his Excellency, attended by the Nobility and Gentry, and escorted by a squadron of horse, went in procession round the statue of King William. On his Excellency's return to the Castle, the great guns at the salute-battery, in his Majesty's park the Phoenix, were fired three rounds, and answered by volleys from the regiments in garrison, which were drawn up in College-Green. And at night there were bonfires, illuminations, and other demonstrations of joy.

NAPLES, September 25. 1798.

His Majesty's ships the Culloden, Captain Trowbridge, the Alexander, Captain Ball, and the frigate Bonne Citoyenne, came into this port on the 18th instant in the evening. His Sicilian Majesty went out in his boat into the bay to meet them, as did numerous English and Neapolitan boats. The ships gave the royal salute to his Majesty.—Admiral Sir Horatio Nelson, in the Vanguard, accompanied by the Thalia frigate, did not make his appearance in this bay until Saturday last the 22d instant, having been becalmed off Sicily.

The King of Naples not only went off to meet the Admiral, but instantly went on board the Vanguard, and staid on board until that vessel was at anchor in the port. The royal salute was given by all the King's ships, both on his Sicilian Majesty's arrival on board the Vanguard, and on his leaving the ship. The day being remarkably fine, numerous boats with colours and music attended the Vanguard, and all the shores and wharfs of Naples were crowded with a multitude of rejoicing people; and when the Admiral came on shore, the reception the Neapolitans gave him was expressive of the utmost kindness and gratitude.

SEPTEMBER 28. 1798.

Every assistance has been given to the Vanguard, the Culloden, and Alexander, so that these ships will be fit to go again to sea in a few days. Yesterday his Majesty's ship Colossus, Captain Murray, with four victualers, from Gibraltar, came to an anchor in this port.

This morning Sir Horatio Nelson has received a letter from Sir James Saumarez, dated from the port of Augusta in Sicily, the 17th instant, reporting all well in the Squadron under his command, and that he hoped, having got water and fresh provisions, to sail from thence for Gibraltar the Wednesday following.

SEPTEMBER 29. 1798.

Captain Gage, in the Terpsichore, arrived here this morning. He left Malta the 26th instant, when Sir James Saumarez with his Squadron, in conjunction with the Portuguese Squadron under the command of Marquis Nizza, had summoned the French to surrender and evacuate Malta, which was refused by M. Vaubois, the Commander in Chief of the Valetta; and that Sir James Saumarez was proceeding with his Squadron and French prizes to Gibraltar, having left the Portuguese
