

from thence to the British colonies and foreign countries through the United Kingdom, and foreign and colonial newspapers, addressed to Lubeck, may be sent from foreign countries and the British colonies to Lubeck, through the United Kingdom (the conveyance in every case between the United Kingdom and Lubeck being direct, or via Hamburg by packet boat or private ship), at a rate of one halfpenny each.

Periodical works (not of daily publication, and not allowed to pass as newspapers), printed, published, and posted within the United Kingdom, addressed to Lubeck, and periodical works (not of daily publication, and not allowed to pass as newspapers), printed, published, and posted in Lubeck, addressed to the United Kingdom, may be transmitted between the two countries direct, or via Hamburg by packet boat or private ship, at the following rates, namely :

- For every publication, not exceeding two ounces in weight, one penny.
- Above two ounces in weight, and not exceeding three ounces, six pence.
- Above three ounces in weight, and not exceeding four ounces, eight pence.
- And for every additional ounce in weight above four ounces, up to sixteen ounces (the limit of weight beyond which such publications are not to be sent by the post, except at the letter rates of postage), two pence more ; and every lesser weight than an ounce is to be charged as a full ounce.

Printed courses of exchange, printed prices current, printed commercial lists, and such other printed papers as are allowed, either in the United Kingdom or Lubeck, to pass by the post at a reduced rate of postage, may, if posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Lubeck, or posted in Lubeck, addressed to the United Kingdom, be transmitted between the United Kingdom and Lubeck direct, or via Hamburg by packet boat or private ship, at a rate of one penny each.

Printed courses of exchange, printed prices current, and printed commercial lists, published and posted in or addressed to Lubeck, may be sent between Lubeck and the British colonies or foreign countries, through the United Kingdom, the conveyance between Lubeck and the United Kingdom being direct, or via Hamburg by packet boat or private ship, at a rate of one penny each.

The said newspapers, publications, printed courses of exchange, printed prices current, printed commercial lists, and such other printed papers as aforesaid, to be forwarded under and subject to the following conditions (that is to say) :

Each must be printed in the language of the country in which it is published.

Each must be published in the country from which it is sent, and be sent without a cover, or in a band or cover open at the sides ; and there must be no word or communication printed on the paper after its publication, or upon the band or cover thereof, nor any writing, figures, or manual marks upon it, or upon the band or cover of it, except the name and address of the person to whom sent.

There must be no paper or thing enclosed in or with any such newspaper, periodical publication, printed course of exchange, printed price current, printed commercial list, or other printed paper.

The courses of exchange, prices current, and commercial lists, must contain merely the names and prices of the goods, without mentioning the name or residence of the vender or sender.

Any newspaper, periodical publication, course of exchange, price current, commercial list, or other printed paper, not forwarded in conformity with such conditions, is to be chargeable with the full letter rates of postage.

And we do hereby further order and direct, that the terms and expressions used in this warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning, in all respects, as they would have had if inserted in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

And we do further direct, that this warrant shall come into operation on the first day of January 1848.

Provided lastly, and we do hereby declare and direct, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any three of them, by warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby fixed or altered, or the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.
