WHITEHALL, April 14, 1848.

THE following Address of congratulation to the Queen, on the occasion of the Birth of another Princess, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation, was presented accordingly to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

Unto Her Most Gracious Majesty
the QUEEN.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Edinburgh, beg to approach your Majesty's Throne, with the expression of our sincere and deep attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and of our thankfulness to Almighty God for His goodness in increasing your Majesty's domestic comforts and the number of the Royal Family by the birth of a Princess, and for preserving your Majesty's valuable life to your family and people.

That your Majesty may ever enjoy the blessing of the King of kings, and may long reign over a people distinguished for loyalty and that righteousness which exalteth a nation; and that finally your Majesty, and all who are dear to you, may enjoy eternal felicity in the kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ, is the prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects and servants.

Signed at Edinburgh, this 4th day of April 1848, in name and by authority of the Presbytery,

ROBERT LEE, Moderator.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto James Young, of the borough of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, gent., eldest son and heir of Andrew Young, late of the city of Glasgow, deceased, by Agnes his wife, sister of Thomas Jamieson, late of Newton Villa, in the parish of Shilbottle, in the county of Northumberland, Esq. also deceased, Her Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, in compliance with a direction contained in a proviso in the last will and testament of his late maternal uncle, the said Thomas Jamieson, take and henceforth use the surname of Jamieson, in addition to and after that of Young; and that he and they may bear the arms of Jamieson; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that this Her Majesty's concession and declaration be recorded in Her College of Arms.
