The teinds of both Lots are valued and exhausted. The whole Lands abound with Game, consisting of Red and Roe Deer, Black Game, Grouse, Ptarmigan, Partridge, Hares, &c.; and to a sportsman they present great attractions. These Estates extend to, and embrace, a portion of the Hill of Loch-na-garr on the south-west, and include part of the most picturesque scenery in the county, with every variety of Highland landscape. They are in the immediate neighbourhood of Balmoral Castle, the lease of which, for upwards of 20 years, has been acquired by Her Majesty.

There is now a continuous communication, by railway from the south, as far as Montrose; and in the Report made to the half-yearly meeting of the Shareholders of the Caledonian Railway, held on 31st August, it is stated that it is probable the Trunk Line to Aberdeen will be completed before the next half-yearly meeting. The journey from London to Aberdeen will then be made in about 16 hours.

For further particulars application may be made to William Fraser, W. S. 12, Duke Street, Edinburgh, common agent in the said process; to William Skinner, Advocate in Aberdeen, the Factor upon the estate; or at the Office of Mr Beveridge, Depute-Clerk of Session, No. 3, General Register-House, Edinburgh, where copies of the printed memorial and abstract may be seen.
