ROXBURGHSHIRE AND BERWICKSHIRE ROADS AMENDMENT.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing Session, for leave to bring in a Bill, or Bills, to alter, amend, enlarge, or wholly or partially to repeal, the powers and provisions of the Acts following, or some of them, and to enact new and other powers and provisions in lieu thereof, videlicet:—An Act passed in the 46th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “An Act for more effectually repairing and amending certain Roads in the Counties of Roxburgh and Berwick, and for better regulating the Statute Labour, and making and repairing the High Roads and Bridges in the said County of Roxburgh;” An Act passed in the ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled “An Act for more effectually making, amending, widening, repairing, and maintaining certain Roads in the Counties of Roxburgh and Berwick;” and An Act passed in the third year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled “An Act for further and more effectually repairing and maintaining several Turnpike Roads, in the County of Roxburgh.”

And Notice is also hereby given, that it is intended by the said Bill, to amend and continue, or to repeal and enact, of new, the powers and provisions of the Act second before recited, and to place under the powers and provisions of the proposed Act, the roads at present comprehended under the Act third before recited, or some part of the said roads, and to transfer to the Trustees under the said proposed Act, the whole, or some part, of the trust property and effects of the Trustees under the said third before recited Act; and thereby to incorporate the whole Roads, at present comprehended under both of the said two last recited Acts, or part of the said Roads, under one trust-management in time to come.

And Notice is also hereby given, that it is intended by the said Bill, or Bills, to render Turnpike, and to confer powers on the Trustees to be thereby appointed, to assume, and manage and maintain as Turnpike Roads, the following Roads at present managed as Statute

Labour Roads, and maintained by conversion money, in lieu of Statute Labour, under the Acts before recited, or some of them, videlicet:—The Road leading from the Edinburgh and Jedburgh Turnpike Road at or near the Townfoot Bridge of Jedburgh, by the back of the boundaries to the junction with the Jed-water line of Turnpike Road at or near Kenmuir Lodge; also the Road branching off from the said Road at or near the west corner of boundary Bank property, and leading by Wildcatgate to the junction of the Roads from Oxnam and Morebattle at or near Howdenburnhead; and also the following Road, or so much and such part thereof as it shall be found expedient so to render Turnpike, videlicet, The Road from the Royal Burgh of Selkirk, so far as situated in the County of Roxburgh, from the confines of the County of Selkirk by Toftsbarns to the Jedburgh Turnpike Road at or near Ancrum Side Bar, in the County of Roxburgh.

And Notice is farther hereby given, that it is intended by the said Bill, or Bills, to seek powers to levy tolls, rates, and duties, and to alter existing tolls, rates, and duties, leviable under the before recited Acts, and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, and extinguish other rights and privileges.
