TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN RICHMOND, late of Kirkſtyle. — —

The creditors, at their meeting this day, having ſeen it neceſſary to adjourn the conſideration of the queſtion relative to the ſtates of the different proceſſes preſently depending in the Court of Seſſion, to this day three weeks, I therefore hereby give notice of ſaid adjournment, and requeſt the creditors to meet on that day, being the 14th day of February next, within the houſe of John Bryan, innkeeper in Kilmarnock, at twelve o'clock noon, to reſume conſideration of the ſtates of ſaid proceſſes.

At this meeting the creditors are to give ſuch inſtructions, relative to the future management of theſe proceſſes, as may appear to them proper. JAMES GREGG.

Kilmarnock, Jan. 24. 1799.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

SMITH, JOHNSTON, and COMPANY, late of Friday Street, London; and THOMAS JOHNSTON, as an Individual.

The Court of Seſſion this day ſequeſtrated the eſtate of the Company, and of Thomas Johnſton, the ſurviving partner, as an individual, and appointed the creditors to meet on Wedneſday next, the 6th of February, at 12 noon, in tht Tontine Auction Rooms of Glaſgow, to chuſe an interim factor; and on Wedneſday the 6th of March next, at the ſame place and hour, to chuſe a truſtee. Edinr. 31*ſt Jan.* 1799.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

GEORGE CORRIE, or CURRIE, Cattle Dealer in Eccleſechan.

At a meeting of the creditors of the ſaid George Corrie or Currie, held upon the 18th day of January laſt, the truſtee, as inſtructed by two of the creditors (none of them having attended ſaid meeting), accepted of an offer of compoſition formerly made by the bankrupt, of five ſhillings in the pound of his whole debts, and Jonathan Corrie in Eccleſechan was propoſed as his cautioner—That William Thomſon, writer in Dumfries, the truſtee, is ſince informed that the ſaid Jonathan Corrie is a minor. Intimation is therefore given that a meeting of the creditors is to be held within the coffee-houſe of Dumfries, upon Wedneſday the 13th day of February inſtant, for the purpoſe of inſtructing the truſtee whether he is to accept of the ſaid Jonathan Corrie's bond; at which meeting the creditors are requeſted to attend by themſelves or their agents.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES MITCHELL, Merchant in Nether Tenements of Caldhame.

That at a meeting of the creditors of the ſaid J. Mitchell, held at Brechine upon Tueſday the 22d day of January laſt, the bankrupt propoſed to give a compoſition of eight ſhillings in the pound, payable in three and ſix months, and offered ſecurity therefore to the ſatisfaction of the meeting. The truſtee does therefor, in terms of the ſtatute, require the whole creditors of the ſaid James Mitchell again to meet within the houſe of J. Martin, vintner in Brechine, upon Saturday the 16th day of February current, at one o'clock afternoon, to conſider and determine upon ſaid offer.
