TUESDAY, AUGUST 7, 1849.

WHITEHALL, August 1, 1849.

THIS Afternoon, at Three o'clock, Her Majesty, accompanied by His Royal Highness Prince Albert, embarked, at Osborne, on board Her Majesty's yacht the "Victoria and Albert," and immediately proceeded on Her voyage to Cork.

The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Wednesday the 1st August 1849.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

WE have it in command from Her Majesty to inform you that the state of public business enables her to dispense with your attendance in Parliament, and to close the present Session.

Her Majesty has directed us to express her satisfaction with the zeal and assiduity with which you have discharged the laborious and anxious duties in the performance of which you have been occupied.

Her Majesty has given her assent to the important measure you have passed to amend the Navigation Laws, in full confidence that the enterprise, skill, and hardihood of her people will ensure to them a full share of the commerce of the world, and maintain upon the sea the ancient renown of this Nation.

Her Majesty has commanded us to acquaint you that the friendly character of her relations with Foreign Powers affords her a just confidence in the continuance of peace. The preliminaries of peace between Prussia and Denmark have been signed under the mediation of Her Majesty; and Her Majesty trusts that this convention may prove the fore-runner of a definite and permanent treaty. Her Majesty's efforts will continue to be directed to promote the restoration of peace in those parts of Europe in which it has been interrupted.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

We are commanded by Her Majesty to return you her thanks for the provision which you have made for the public service. The public expenditure has undergone considerable reduction within the present year, and Her Majesty will continue to apply a watchful economy in every branch of the public service.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

We are commanded by Her Majesty to congratulate you on the happy termination of the war in the Punjaub. The exertions made by the Government of India, and the valour displayed by the army in the field, demand Her Majesty's warmest acknowledgements.

Her Majesty has observed with gratification the spirit of obedience to the laws which has been manifested by her subjects during the period which has elapsed since Her Majesty last addressed her Parliament. It is the characteristic of our Constitution that it renders the maintenance of order compatible with the fullest enjoyment of political and civil liberty.

The satisfaction with which Her Majesty has viewed the peaceful progress of her people in arts and industry has been greatly alloyed by the continuance of severe distress in one part of the United Kingdom. Her Majesty has observed with pleasure your liberal exertions to mitigate the pressure of this calamity; and Her Majesty commands us to thank you for your unremitting attention to measures calculated to improve the general condition of Ireland. It is Her Majesty's fervent hope that it may please the Almighty Disposer of Events to favour the operation of those laws which have been sanctioned by Parliament, and to grant to her Irish people, as the reward of the patience and resignation with which they have borne their protracted sufferings, the blessings of an abundant harvest, and of internal peace.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read; after which the Lord Chancellor said;

My Lords and Gentlemen,

By virtue of Her Majesty's Commission, under the Great Seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read, we do, in Her Majesty's name, and in obedience to Her commands, prorogue this Parliament to Tuesday the ninth day of October next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tuesday the ninth day of October next.

FOREIGN-OFFICE, August 1, 1849.

The Queen has been pleased to approve of Mr Saul Solomon, as Consul at St Helena for His Majesty the Emperor of Austria.

Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at the Castle, on Thursday next the 9th instant, at nine o'clock in the evening.

Notice is hereby given, that in consequence of the numerous Presentations which will take place at the Drawing-Room to be held by Her Majesty, on Thursday the 9th instant, it has been found necessary, in order that serious inconvenience may be avoided, to issue the following Regulation, which must be strictly adhered to, viz. that no gentleman, unless he be in charge of Ladies attending the Drawing-Room, can be admitted.

A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

Whereas by our Order in Council of this day's date, We were graciously pleased to annul, from and after the thirty-first day of December next, Our Royal Proclamations of the nineteenth day of May and the sixth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, regulating, according to the scheme set forth therein, or recognised thereby, the distribution of the net proceeds of prizes captured from the enemy; of captures and seizures under the several Acts of Parliament passed relating to the revenues of customs and to trade and navigation; for the abolition of the slave trade; for the capture and destruction of piratical vessels, and of the rewards conferred for the same; as also of the awards for all salvage granted to the crews of Our ships and vessels of war, when not otherwise specially apportioned by the terms of the respective awards and allowances. And in consequence of several new ratings and denominations of officers and others having been introduced into Our naval service since the dates of Our said former Proclamations, and for other causes, it is expedient that provision should be made for the future distribution of such net proceeds and salvage not otherwise specially apportioned, and all other moneys whatsoever granted to be shared in the manner of prize-money :

We do therefore now make known to all Our loving subjects, and to all others whom it may concern, by this Our proclamation, by and with the advice and consent of Our Privy Council, that Our royal will and pleasure is, and We do hereby direct that the distribution of all such net proceeds of prizes, rewards, allowances, salvage, awards, and of all bounties and grants whatsoever, distributable to Our royal navy in the manner of prize-money, shall be made as follows, videlicet :—

That the flag officer or officers shall have one-sixteenth part of the whole net proceeds arising from prizes captured from the enemy, and from all other captures, seizures, &c. as aforesaid, made by any of the ships or vessels under his or their command, and of the rewards conferred for the same, according to the following conditions and modifications—save and except as hereinafter provided and directed ;—that is to say : when there is but one flag officer, he shall have the entire one-sixteenth : when two flag officers shall be sharing together, the chief shall have two-thirds and the other flag officer shall have the remaining one-third of the one sixteenth part : and when there shall be more than two flag officers, the chief shall receive one-half of the said one-sixteenth, and the remaining half shall be equally divided among the junior flag officers : Commodores of the first class and captains of the fleet to share as flag officers.

Provided always, that no flag officer, unless actually on board any of Our ships or vessels of war, and at the actual taking, sinking, burning, or otherwise destroying any ship or ships of war, or privateers belonging to the enemy, shall share in the distribution of any head-money or bounty-money granted as a reward for the taking, sinking, burning, or otherwise destroying any such ship or vessel of the enemy :—

That no flag officer, unless actually present at the capture or destruction of any pirate ship, vessel, or boat, shall be entitled to share in any distribution of the proceeds or bounty in respect of the crews of such piratical ship, vessel, or boat.

That no flag officer shall share in any remuneration or reward conferred or awarded to any of Our ships or vessels as salvage, unless he shall have been actually on board the ship or vessel to which the award shall be made, or have personally aided and assisted in the transaction, at the time the service was rendered.

That no flag officer commanding in any port in the United Kingdom shall share in the proceeds of any prizes captured from the enemy, nor in other captures, seizures, rewards, or any distributive proceeds as aforesaid, made by any ships or vessels which shall sail from, or leave such port, by order of the Lord High Admiral, or of Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral.

That when ships or vessels under the command of several flag officers, belonging to separate stations, shall be joint captors, &c. each flag officer shall receive a proportion of the one-sixteenth, according to the number of officers and men present under the command of each such flag officer ; and when ships or vessels under orders from the Lord High Admiral, or from Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, are joint captors, &c. with other ships or vessels under a flag or flags, the like Regulation as to the apportionment of the flag share to the flag officer or officers is to be observed.

And with reference to these Regulations it is to be noted that a captain, commander, or other commanding officer, of a ship or vessel, shall be deemed to be under the command of a flag when he shall actually have received some order from, or be acting in the execution of some order issued by a flag officer, whether he be or be not within the limits of the station of such flag officer ; and in the event of his being directed to join a flag officer on any station, he shall be deemed to be under the command of such flag officer from the time when he arrives within the limits of the station, which circumstance is always to be carefully noted in the log-book ; and it shall be considered that he continues under the flag officer of such station until he shall have received some order directly from, or be acting in the execution of some order issued by some other flag officer duly authorized, or by the Lord High Admiral, or Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral.

And we hereby direct that the captain, commander, lieutenant commanding, or master commanding, or any other officer commanding any ship, sloop, or vessel of war, singly making a capture, or seizure, or otherwise entitled to the distributive benefit arising from any proceeds, reward, grant, bounty, salvage, or award, as aforesaid ; that is to say, the officer actually in command at the time, shall have one-eighth of the remainder, or if there is no flag, one-eighth of the entire net proceeds ; and if more than one commanding officer of the same rank of command shall be entitled to share as joint captors, &c. the one-eighth shall be equally divided between them ; but when captains, commanders, lieutenants commanding, and masters commanding respectively, Our ships, sloops, and vessels of war, shall share together, in whatever variety of combination, the one-eighth shall be so divided, into parts for a graduated apportionment, as to provide for each captain receiving six parts, each commander of a sloop three parts, and each lieutenant commanding, or master commanding a vessel of war, two parts, which We hereby direct shall be the proportion in which they shall respectively share ; commodores of the second class, and field officers of marines, or of land forces serving as marines, doing duty as field officers above the rank of major, to share as captains ; and field officers of marines, or of land forces serving as marines, and doing duty in the rank of major, to share as commanders of sloops.

And We hereby further direct, that after provision shall thus have been made for the flag share (if any) and for the portion of the commanding officer or officers, the remainder of the net proceeds shall be distributed in ten classes, so that each officer, man, and boy, composing the rest of the complements of Our ships, sloops, and vessels of war, and actually on board at the time of any such capture, seizure, &c. as aforesaid, and every person present and assisting, shall receive shares, or parts of shares, according to his class, as set forth in the following scale :—

A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

Whereas by an Act passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to provide for a new silver coinage, and to regulate the currency of the gold and silver coin of this realm," the Master and Worker of Our Mint, in London, was authorized and empowered to coin, or cause to be coined, silver bullion into silver coins, consisting of crowns, half-crowns, shillings, and sixpences, of the Standard of eleven ounces and two pennyweights of fine silver and eighteen pennyweights of alloy to the pound troy; and in weight after the rate of sixty-six shillings to the pound troy:

And Whereas by an Act passed in the twelfth and thirteenth years of our reign, intituled "An Act to extend an Act of the fifty-sixth year of King George the Third for providing for a new silver coinage, and for regulating the currency of the gold and silver coin of this realm," the Master and Worker of Our Mint, in London, was authorized and empowered to coin, or cause to be coined, silver bullion into silver coins of the Standard of fineness above-mentioned, and in weight after the rate of sixty-six shillings to every pound troy, whether the same be coined in crowns, or in any pieces of a lower denomination. And whereas We have thought fit to order that certain pieces of silver money should be coined to be called Florins or tenths of a pound, and to be the value of two shillings: And whereas, pursuant to Our said Order, and in virtue of the power given by the said recited Acts, a coinage of the said florins or tenths of a pound, of the standard, and at the rate aforesaid, has been made; and every such florin, or one-tenth of a pound has, for the obverse, Our effigy, crowned, with the inscription "Victoria Regina," and the date of the year; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom, contained in four shields, cross-wise, each shield surmounted by the royal crown, with the rose in the centre, and in the compartments between the shields the national emblems of the rose, thistle, and shamrock, surrounded by the words "One Florin one-Tenth of a Pound," and with a milled graining round the edge: And whereas pieces of silver money of the above description have been coined at Our Mint, and will be coined there, in pursuance of orders issued, and to be issued by Us:

We have therefore, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Our Royal Proclamation: And We do hereby ordain, declare, and command, that the said pieces of money so coined and to be coined, shall be current and lawful money of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of Our said Kingdom by the names aforesaid, and at the value hereinbefore assigned to them.

To the Town-Council of the BOROUGH of LEICESTER, and to all Others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by the Act 11th and 12th Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty, for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases," and by virtue of an Order of

To the Guardians of the Poor of the NEATH UNION, and to all Others whom it may concern.
