To the Trustees of the Poor of the Parish of ST LEONARD, SHOREDITCH, and to all Others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by the Act 11th and 12th Victoria, cap. 123, intituled, "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty, for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases," and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain, We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such Directions and Regulations as the said Board shall think fit, for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases;

And whereas various parts and places within the Parish of St Leonard, Shoreditch, appear to be affected by formidable epidemic and endemic disease,

We, the General Board of Health, do hereby, in further exercise of the power vested in us as aforesaid, issue the Directions and Regulations hereinafter contained, to extend to the Parish of St Leonard, Shoreditch.

That four legally qualified medical men, or (in case so many legally qualified medical men cannot be obtained) advanced medical students, be forthwith appointed, to carry out a regular and efficient system of house to house visitation, especially in the affected districts of the aforesaid Parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this eighth day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the CARMARTHEN UNION, and to all Others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by the Act 11th and 12th Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty, for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases," and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain; We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such Directions and Regulations as the said Board shall think fit, for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases;

We, the General Board of Health, do hereby, in further exercise of the power vested in us as aforesaid, issue the Directions and Regulations hereinafter contained, to apply and extend to the Carmarthen Union:—

That eight additional legally qualified medical men be forthwith appointed, to aid in carrying out a regular and efficient system of house to house visitation, especially throughout the affected districts of the aforesaid Carmarthen Union, and in assisting such other measures as may be considered expedient or necessary for the treatment and diminution of the disease.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this eighth day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine.

To the Trustees of the LONDON FEVER HOSPITAL, and to all Others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by the 8th Section of the "Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Act, 1848," it is enacted, that "whenever it is intended to build or open any Hospital for the reception of Patients afflicted with contagious or infectious disorders, the Trustees or other persons by whose authority such Hospital is intended so to be built or opened as aforesaid, shall give notice of such intention to the said General Board of Health, or (in Ireland,) to the Commissioners of Health hereinafter-mentioned; and no Hospital shall be built or opened as aforesaid, until the said General Board of Health or Commissioners of Health, as the case may be, have approved thereof in writing."

And whereas the Trustees of the London Fever Hospital have made application to us, the said General Board of Health, for our approval of the opening of a building in the Parish of Islington, in the County of Middlesex, for the purpose of a Fever Hospital,

And whereas the method of ventilation adopted in the said building is at present incomplete and insufficient for the purposes required in such a building,

Now, therefore, We, the General Board of Health, do hereby sanction the opening of the said Hospital, but only to the extent, and during the period that shall from time to time be certified by one of our Superintending Inspectors, until the deficiencies aforesaid shall be supplied in a manner to the satisfaction of such Inspector.

Given under our hands and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this eighth day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine.
