TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1849.

WHITEHALL, September 4, 1849.

THE Queen has been pleased to grant unto Sir Albert-Denison Conyngham, commonly called Lord Albert-Denison Conyngham, of Denbies, in the county of Surrey, Knight Commander of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, and one of the Representatives in Parliament for the city of Canterbury, third, but second surviving son of Henry Marquess Conyngham, Knight of the Most Illustrious Order of St Patrick, deceased, by Elizabeth his wife, eldest daughter of Joseph Denison, of Denbies aforesaid, Esquire, and sister and co-heir of William-Joseph Denison, late of Seamer, in the East Riding of the county of York, of Denbies aforesaid, and of Pall Mall, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, one of the Knights of the Shire for the Western Division of the county of Surrey, both deceased, Her royal licence and authority that he and his issue may, in compliance with a proviso contained in the last will and testament of his maternal uncle, the said William-Joseph Denison, take and use the surname of Denison only, in lieu of his present surname of Conyngham, and that he and they may bear the arms of Denison quarterly with his and their own family arms; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

To the Church-Wardens of ST ANNE'S PARISH, BLACKFRIARS, and to all Others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by the Act 12th and 13th Victoria, cap. 3, entitled, "An Act to amend the Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Act, 1848," it is provided, "that it shall be lawful in England or Wales for the General Board of Health to cause inquiry to be made by a Superintending Inspector, or by such other ways and means as the General Board of Health may deem fit to direct, into the state of the Burial Grounds in any part of England or Wales excepted from the powers of the Public Health Act, 1848, or in any populous city, town, or place in England or Wales to which for the time being the said Act has not been applied, and if it appear to the General Board of Health that any such Burial Ground is in such a state as to be dangerous to the health of the persons living in the neighbourhood thereof, it shall be lawful for the said General Board of Health in England and Wales, under the seal of the said Board, and under the hands of two or more Members thereof, to issue such Orders as the said Board may think fit for the application of such disinfecting substances, and for the adoption of such other measures of precaution in relation to the premises, as may, in the opinion of the said Board, tend to lessen or remove the danger to health.

And whereas Gavin Milroy, Doctor of Medicine, Superintending Inspector to the said Board, has enquired into the state of the Burial Ground of the Parish of St Anne, Blackfriars, and has reported the said Burial Ground to be in a condition dangerous to the health of the persons living in the neighbourhood thereof,

We, the General Board of Health, being of opinion that in order to lessen or remove the danger to health at present arising from the said Burial Ground, it is expedient that interments should be discontinued therein for the present, do hereby order and require the said Church-Wardens and other persons having the care and control of the same, to cause the discontinuance of interments in the said Burial Ground until further order, and to make such provision for interment elsewhere as to them may appear necessary, under the Tenth Section of the Nuisances Amendment Act aforesaid, or otherwise.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this sixth day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine.

To the Church-Wardens of the Parish of SAINT ANDREW, HOLBORN, and to all Others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by the Act 12th and 13th Victoria, cap. 3, intituled, "An Act to amend the Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Act, 1848," it is provided, "that it shall be lawful in England or Wales for the General Board of Health to cause inquiry to be made by a Superintending Inspector, or by such other ways and means as the General

Board of Health may deem fit to direct, into the state of the Burial Grounds in any part of England or Wales excepted from the powers of the Public Health Act, 1848, or in any populous city, town, or place in England or Wales, to which, for the time being, the said Act has not been applied; and if it appear to the General Board of Health that any such Burial Ground is in such a state as to be dangerous to the health of the persons living in the neighbourhood thereof, it shall be lawful for the said General Board of Health in England and Wales, under the seal of the said Board, and under the hands of two or more Members thereof, to issue such Orders as the said Board may think fit for the application of such disinfecting substances, and for the adoption of such other measures of precaution in relation to the premises as may, in the opinion of the said Board, tend to lessen or remove the danger to health.

And whereas Gavin Milroy, Doctor of Medicine, Superintending Inspector to the said Board, has enquired into the state of the Burial Ground of Saint Andrew's, Holborn, and has reported the said Burial Ground to be in a condition dangerous to the health of the persons living in the neighbourhood thereof,

We, the General Board of Health, being of opinion that, in order to lessen or remove the danger to health at present arising from the said Burial Ground, it is expedient that interments should be discontinued therein for the present, do hereby order and require the said Church-Wardens, and other persons having the care and control of the same, to cause the discontinuance of interments in the said Burial Ground until further order, and to make such provision for interment elsewhere, as to them may appear necessary under the Tenth Section of the Nuisances Amendment Act aforesaid, or otherwise.

To the Trustees of the Poor of the Parish of ST LEONARD, SHOREDITCH, and to all Others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by the Act 11th and 12th Victoria, cap. 123, intituled, "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty, for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases," and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain, We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such Directions and Regulations as the said Board shall think fit, for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases;

And whereas various parts and places within the Parish of St Leonard, Shoreditch, appear to be affected by formidable epidemic and endemic disease,

We, the General Board of Health, do hereby, in further exercise of the power vested in us as aforesaid, issue the Directions and Regulations hereinafter contained, to extend to the Parish of St Leonard, Shoreditch.

That four legally qualified medical men, or (in case so many legally qualified medical men cannot be obtained) advanced medical students, be forthwith appointed, to carry out a regular and efficient system of house to house visitation, especially in the affected districts of the aforesaid Parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch.

To the Directors of the Poor of the Parish of ST GILES-IN-THE-FIELDS and ST GEORGE, Bloomsbury, and to all Others whom it may concern.

WHERAS by the Act 11th and 12th Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases," and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain; We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such Directions and Regulations as the said Board shall think fit, for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases,

And whereas various parts and places within the Parishes of St Giles-in-the-Fields and St George, Bloomsbury, appear to be affected by formidable epidemic or endemic disease,

We, the General Board of Health, do hereby order the execution of the Directions and Regulations hereinafter contained, to extend to the aforesaid Parishes of St Giles-in-the-Fields and St George, Bloomsbury, and we do hereby order and require you, the said Directors, to carry into effect the said Directions and Regulations forthwith:—

1. That an Inspector of Nuisances be forthwith appointed to examine into the condition of the affected districts, and to report upon all cases of nuisances injurious to health requiring removal or abatement.

2. That a sufficient and adequate staff of men, with all proper materials, be kept in readiness to carry out all works of lime washing, &c. in the cases of houses where Cholera has occurred, and in such other instances as the medical officers of the Parish shall direct.

3. Two additional properly qualified medical officers be immediately appointed, or in case so many properly qualified medical men cannot be obtained, advanced medical students be selected to devote their whole time to regular house to house visitation of the affected districts of the aforesaid Parishes, and that they carry medicines with them, and administer them on the spot to all who may be attacked by Cholera, or by any of its premonitory symptoms.

4. That a suitable house of Refuge be forthwith provided for the reception of the families of those necessitous persons who have been attacked by Cholera, and of those necessitous persons living under the same roof, or within the immediate vicinity of persons so attacked.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the STRAND UNION, and to all Others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by the Act 11th and 12th Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty, for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases," and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain; We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such Directions and Regulations as the said Board shall think fit, for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases;

And whereas the Parishes included in the Strand Union appear to be affected by formidable epidemic or endemic disease,

We, the General Board of Health, do hereby order the execution of the Direction and Regulation following, by you the said Guardians.

That two legally qualified medical men be forthwith appointed in addition to those already appointed, in and for the said Union, to afford to persons afflicted by, or threatened with Cholera, such medical aid as may be proper, and more particularly, to assist in carrying out the system of from house to house visitation within the said Union, and such other measures of precaution in relation to the said disease as it may be deemed advisable to adopt.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this twelfth day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine. (Signed) EDWIN CHADWICK.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the GRAVESEND and MILTON UNION, and to all Others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by the Act 11th and 12th Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty, for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases," and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain, We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such Directions and Regulations as the said Board shall think fit, for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases;

And whereas we have been informed that a vessel lately arrived, and is now lying off Gravesend, having cholera on board;

We, the General Board of Health, do hereby order and require that the Guardians of the Gravesend and Milton Union, or the Guardians of any other Union in whose jurisdiction the case may be, shall, by themselves or their officers, enter the said vessel or any other vessel arriving off Gravesend, in which cholera or other epidemic disease has occurred, and examine the sanitary condition of the same, and enquire into the health of the crew or crews, and if need be, order cleansing, purification, and all other necessary measures for the prevention of disease which are authorized or required to be adopted in any dwellings on land by the General Regulations of the Board of the 4th day of April 1849, issued to the Guardians of the Poor throughout England and Wales.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this twelfth day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine. (Signed) EDWIN CHADWICK.

To the Church-Wardens of the Parish of St MARY, NEWINGTON, SURREY, and to all Others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by the Act 12th and 13th Victoria, cap. 3, intituled, "An Act to amend the Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Act, 1848," it is provided, "that it shall be lawful in England or Wales for the General Board of Health to cause inquiry to be made by a Superintending Inspector, or by such other ways and means as the General Board of Health may deem fit to direct, into the state of the Burial Grounds in any part of England and Wales excepted from the powers of the Public Health Act, 1848, or in any populous city, town, or place in England or Wales, to which, for the time being, the said Act has not been applied, and if it appear to the General Board of Health, that any such Burial Ground is in such a state as to be dangerous to the health of the persons living in the neighbourhood thereof, it shall be lawful for the said General Board of Health in England and Wales, under the seal of the said Board, and under the hands of two or more Members thereof, to issue such Orders as the said Board may think fit for the application of such disinfecting substances, and for the adoption of such other measures of precaution in relation to the premises, as may, in the opinion of the said Board, tend to lessen or remove the danger to health.

And whereas Gavin Milroy, Doctor of Medicine, Superintending Inspector to the said Board, has inquired into the state of the Burial Ground of Saint Mary's, Newington, in the County of Surrey, and has reported the said Burial Ground to be in a condition dangerous to the health of the persons living in the neighbourhood thereof,

We, the General Board of Health, being of opinion that in order to lessen or remove the danger to health at present arising from the said Burial Ground, it is expedient that interments should be discontinued therein for the present, do hereby order and require the aforesaid Church-Wardens, and other persons having the care and control of the same, to cause the discontinuance of interments in the said Burial Ground until further order, and to make such provision for interment elsewhere as to them may appear necessary, under the Tenth Section of the Nuisances Amendment Act aforesaid, or otherwise.

To the Guardians of the Poor of SAINT SAVIOUR, Southwark, and to all Others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by the Act 11th and 12th Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases," and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain; We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such Directions and Regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases ;

And whereas various parts and places within the Parish of Saint Saviour, Southwark, appear to be affected by formidable epidemic or endemic disease, and it is desirable that further provisions should be made to meet the emergency,

We, the General Board of Health, do hereby order the execution of the Directions and Regulations hereinafter contained, to extend to the aforesaid Parish of Saint Saviour, Southwark.

That an Inspector of Nuisances be forthwith appointed to examine into the condition of the affected districts, and to report upon all cases of nuisances injurious to health requiring removal or abatement.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this thirteenth day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the ST OLAVE'S UNION, SURREY, and to all Others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by the Act 11th and 12th Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty, for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases," and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain, We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such Directions and Regulations as the said Board shall think fit, for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic and contagious diseases ;

And whereas the Parishes included in the Saint Olave's Union appearing to be affected by formidable epidemic or endemic disease, We, the General Board of Health, did, on the 16th day of July last, issue certain Directions and Regulations to apply to the aforesaid Saint Olave's Union ;

And whereas it appears that further arrangements are requisite in order adequately to meet the demands of the present emergency, We, the General Board of Health, do hereby order the execution of the Directions and Regulations, viz.—

1. We hereby authorize and require that the Board of Guardians of the Saint Olave's Union forthwith appoint two additional duly qualified Medical Officers beyond the two extra Medical Officers already appointed, and whose services shall be secured for the term of one calendar month from the date of this Order, and that the said two additional Medical Officers to be appointed under this Order, shall devote their time exclusively to making a house to house visitation throughout the affected districts, at least once daily, and attend such cases and perform such other duties as the Medical Superintending Inspector may direct.

2. We further authorize and require the said Board of Guardians to provide without delay proper and adequate hospital accommodation for the treatment of those who may be attacked by Cholera or other epidemic or endemic disease, and who cannot secure efficient attention and care at their own homes.

3. We likewise authorize and require the Board of Guardians of the Saint Olave's Union to appoint for a period of one calendar month, two non-medical visitors to act under the directions of the Medical Superintending Inspector.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this thirteenth day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine.

To the Church-Wardens of the Parish of ST GEORGE THE MARTYR, SOUTHWARK, and to all Others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by the Act 12th and 13th Victoria, cap. III, intituled, "An Act to amend the Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Act, 1848," it is provided, "that it shall be lawful in England or Wales for the General Board of Health, to cause enquiry to be made by a Superintending Inspector, or by such other ways and means as the General Board of Health may deem fit to direct, into the state of the Burial Grounds in any part of England or Wales excepted from the powers of the Public Health Act 1848, or in any populous city, town, or place, in England or Wales, to which for the time being the said Act has not been applied, and if it appear to the General Board of Health that any such Burial Ground is in such a state as to be dangerous to the health of the persons living in the neighbourhood thereof, it shall be lawful for the said General Board of Health in England and Wales, under the seal of the said Board, and under the hands of two or more Members thereof, to issue such Orders as the said Board may think fit, for the application of such disinfecting substances, and for the adoption of such other measures of precaution in relation to the premises as may in the opinion of the said Board tend to lessen or remove the danger to health."

And whereas Gavin Milroy, Doctor of Medicine, Superintending Inspector to the said Board, has enquired into the state of the said Burial Ground called the Lock Burial Ground, belonging to the Parish of St George the Martyr, Southwark, and has reported the said Burial Ground to be in a condition dangerous to the health of the persons living in the neighbourhood thereof,

We, the General Board of Health, being of opinion, that in order to lessen or remove the danger to health at present arising from the said Burial Ground, it is expedient that interments should be discontinued therein for the present, do hereby order and require the aforesaid Church-Wardens and other persons having the care and control of the same, to cause the discontinuance of interments in the said Burial Ground until further Order, and to make such provision for interment elsewhere, as to them may appear necessary under the Tenth Section of the Nuisances Amendment Act aforesaid or otherwise.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this thirteenth day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine.

The Liferent Interest of a Gentleman, aged 61, in certain Lands in the County of Linlithgow, let on lease at £105 a year of clear rental; the Liferent Interest of the said Gentleman in the said Lands being one-tenth pro indiviso.

For particulars, apply to William Wood, Accountant, 7, North Bank Street, the Trustee.

JOHN MILLER, Accountant in Glasgow, Trustee on the sequestrated estates of LOCHHEAD & BROWN, Stationers and Account Book Manufacturers, 154, Argyle Street, Glasgow, as a Company, and of Robert Lochhead and John Paterson Brown, the Individual Partners of that Company, as Partners thereof, and as Individuals, hereby intimates, that an account of his intrusions with the funds of the estates, brought down to the 5th current, and states of the funds recovered and of those outstanding as at the same date, have been made up and examined by the Commissioners on said estates in terms of the Statute: That he has examined the claims of the several Creditors who have lodged their oaths and grounds of debt on or before the 5th current, and made up lists of those Creditors entitled to be ranked on the funds of the said estates, and also of those whose claims have been rejected in whole or in part; further, that a dividend of Eleven Shillings and Sixpence per pound will be paid to those Creditors whose claims have been admitted by the Trustee, at his Counting-House, No. 71, Queen Street, Glasgow, on the 6th day of November next.—Of all which Notice is hereby given, in terms of the Statute.

JNO. MILLER, Trustee.

Glasgow, September 15, 1849.

DONALD MACRAE, Writer in Kingussie, Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the Reverend DONALD CAMERON, sometime Minister of the Parish of Laggan, now deceased, hereby intimates, that an account of his intrusions with the funds of the estate, brought down to the 27th day of August last, and states of the funds recovered and of those outstanding as at the same date, have been made up and examined by the Commissioners, in terms of the Statute. The accounts and states lie in the Office of the Trustee, for the inspection of all interested. At a meeting of the Commissioners on said estate held here this day, they postponed a dividend till the recurrence of the next stated period for making a dividend, and they also dispensed with the Trustee sending to the Creditors circulars containing copies or abstracts of the funds belonging to the said estate.—Of all which Notice is hereby given, in terms of the Statute.

DOND. M'RAE, Trustee.

Kingussie, September 10, 1849.

ROBERT SMITH, Advocate in Aberdeen, Trustee on the sequestrated estate of CHARLES GRASSICK, Farmer, Buchaam, Strathdon, Banker and Cattle Dealer, Aberdeenshire, hereby intimates, that an account of his intrusions with the funds of the estate, brought down to the 3d instant, and states of the funds recovered and of those outstanding as at the same date, have been made up by him and examined by the Commissioners on said estate, in terms of the Statute; and farther, that the Commissioners have postponed payment of a dividend until the next Statutory period for making the same, and have also dispensed with circulars being sent to the Creditors.—Of all which Notice is hereby given, in terms of the Statute.

ROBERT SMITH, Trustee.

Aberdeen, September 8, 1849.

A Petition having been presented to the Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills, at the instance of ALEXANDER CLARK, Accountant and House Factor in Glasgow, a Creditor in the character therein stated, to the extent required by law, of JAMES GORDON, sometime Messenger-at-Arms and Sheriff-Officer, residing in Spreul's Court, Trongate Street, Glasgow, now deceased, praying for sequestration of his estates, his Lordship, upon the 18th day of August last, granted warrant to cite George Huntly Gordon, residing in Glasgow, eldest lawful son of the said deceased James Gordon, and James, Charles, Robert, Margaret, Mary, and Elizabeth Gordon, all residing at No. 5, Spring Place, Hutchesontown, Glasgow, the other children of the said deceased James Gordon, his successors, and their tutors and curators, if they any had, for their interest, in terms of the Statute, to appear in Court within twenty-one days after citation, to show cause why sequestration of the estates of the said deceased James Gordon should not be awarded, in terms of the Statute. The said successors having been duly cited to appear accordingly, and no appearance having been made, the Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills, upon the 17th day of September current, ordered intimation of the foresaid warrant to be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and of new ordained the successors of the deceased James Gordon to appear within a farther space of twenty-one days from the date of publication of the said intimation, to shew cause why sequestration of the estates of the said deceased James Gordon should not be awarded, in terms of the Statute.
