To Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the City of Gloucester, in Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

We, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of your Majesty's ancient and loyal City of Gloucester, joyfully avail ourselves of your Majesty's auspicious presence, humbly to assure your Majesty of the profound loyalty and attachment which we and our fellow-citizens at large bear towards your Majesty's sacred Person and Crown.

And we earnestly pray, that under the protection of Divine Providence, continued and increased blessings may be shed upon your Majesty and your Royal Consort; that your Majesty's reign may be distinguished by the glory and undisturbed prosperity of this great country; and that your Majesty may be visited with every personal and domestic blessing, and long preserved to reign over a loyal and devoted people.

Given under the common seal of the said City, the 25th day of September, in the 13th year of Her Majesty's reign.

JOHN BURRUP, Mayor.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Newcastleupon-Tyne.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, respectfully tender to your Majesty, on the occasion of this your first visit to the ancient Town of Newcastleupon-Tyne, the cordial and sincere expression of our loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's Crown and Person.

In past times, the visits of the Sovereign to this Town have been for the purposes of war. We congratulate your Majesty that your visit is made in happier times and under more auspicious circumstances.

We are sensible of the value of the blessings we enjoy, and are firmly persuaded that to the virtues of the Sovereign, as well as to the Constitutional Government under which we live, are we indebted, under Divine Providence, for the preservation of peace and tranquillity throughout your Majesty's dominions during a period of trial and difficulty.

We pray that your Majesty may long reign over a happy, prosperous, and united people.

Given under the common seal of the Borongh of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, this 25th day of September 1849.

> JAMES DENT WEATHERLEY, Mayor of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the City of York, on behalf of ourselves and our fellow-citizens, humbly approach your Majesty, and hail, with heartfelt joy and delight, the arrival of your Majesty, and your Illustrious Consort, in this your Majesty's ancient and loyal city.

Deeply sensible of the numerous blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and happy sway, we cordially join in the acclamations with which your Majesty has recently been welcomed by your loving subjects in your progress through various parts of your Majesty's dominions, and we earnestly pray that your Majesty may long be blessed with uninterrupted health to rule over a loyal and contented people.

Given under our common seal, this 28th day of September 1849.

JAMES MULL, Mayor.

WHITEHALL, September 29, 1849.

The Queen has been pleased to order a conge d'elire to pass the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, empowering the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Norwich to elect a Bishop of that see, the same being void by the death of Doctor Edward Stanley, late Bishop thereof; and Her Majesty has also been pleased to recommend to the said Dean and Chapter the Very Reverend Doctor Samuel Hinds, Dean of the cathedral church of Carlisle, to be chosen by the said Dean and Chapter of Norwich, Bishop of the said see of Norwich.

FOREIGN-OFFICE, October 1, 1849.

The Queen has been pleased to approve of M. Octave Delepierre as Consul, ad interim, in London, for his Majesty the King of the Belgians.

BUCKINGHAM-PALACE, September 29, 1849.

His Royal Highness Prince Albert has been pleased to appoint Edwin Saunders, Esq. to be Surgeon-Dentist in Ordinary, in the room of Mr Nasmith, deceased.

The Lord Lieutenant, in pursuance of the power vested in him by the Act 11 Victoria, cap. 2, is pleased by this Order, under the hand of his Under Secretary, to revoke any Licence or Licences granted to carry or to have Arms under the said Act, to Thomas Mara, of Roscabell, in the district of Cashel, and county of Tipperary.

Given at Her Majesty's Castle of Dublin, this 25th day of September, 1849.

By His Excellency's Command,

T. N. REDINGTON.

To the Church-Wardens of the Parish of SAINT MARY, NEWINGTON, SURREY, and to all Others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by the Act 12th and 13th Victoria, cap. 3, intituled, "An Act to amend the Nuisances' Removal and Diseases' Preventisn Act, 1848," it is provided, "that it shall be lawful in England or Wales for the General Board of Health to cause inquiry to be made by a Superintending Inspector, or by such other ways and means as the General Board of Health may deem fit to direct, into the state of the Burial Grounds in any part of England and Wales excepted from the powers of the Public Health Act, 1848, or in any populous city, town, or place in England or Wales, to which, for the time being, the said Act has not been applied, and if it appear to the General Board of Health, that any such Burial Ground is in such a state as to be dangerous to the health of the persons
