To the Proprietors of the NEW BUNHILL FIELDS CEMETERY, Deverell Street, New Kent Road, Southwark, in the County of Surrey; and to all other persons having the care and controul of the Burial Ground hereinafter described.

WHEREAS by the "Nuisances' Removal and Diseases' Prevention Act, 1848," it was enacted that when any part of the United Kingdom should appear to be threatened by any formidable epidemic, endemic, or contagious disease, the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any three or more of them (the Lord President of the Council, or one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State being one), might, by Order or Orders to be by them made, direct that the provisions contained in the said Act for the prevention of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases, be in force in Great Britain, and that every such Order should be in force for six calendar months, or for such shorter period as in such Order should be expressed.

And whereas by an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, (the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State being one,) bearing date the 28th day of September 1848, the said provisions of the said recited Act were directed to be put in force throughout the whole of Great Britain for a period of six calendar months thence next ensuing; And whereas, by another Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, (the Most Honourable the Lord President of the said Council being one,) bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, the said recited Order of the 28th day of September 1848 was renewed for a period of six calendar months from the date of the said last-mentioned Order; And whereas, by another Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, (the Most Honourable the Lord President of the said Council being one,) bearing date the 25th day of September 1849, the said first-mentioned Order was renewed for a further period of six calendar months from the said 25th day of September 1849, which said last-mentioned Order is now in force throughout the whole of Great Britain; And whereas, by another Act of Parliament, passed in the thirteenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Nuisances' Removal and Diseases' Prevention Act, 1848," it was enacted that it should be lawful for the General Board of Health to cause enquiry to be made by a Superintending Inspector, or by such other ways and means as the General Board of Health might deem fit to direct, into the state of the Burial Grounds in any part of England or Wales excepted from the powers of the Public Health Act, 1848, or in any populous city, town, or place, in England or Wales to which, for the time being, the said Act had not been applied, and if it appeared to the General Board of Health that any such Burial Ground was in such a state as to be dangerous to the health of the persons living in the neighbourhood thereof, it should be lawful for the said General Board of Health in England and Wales, under the seal of the said Board, and under the hands of two or more Members thereof, to issue such Orders as the said Board might think fit, for the application of such disinfecting substances, and for the adoption of such other measures of precaution, in relation to the premises, as might, in the opinion of the said Board, tend to lessen or remove the danger to health; And whereas, after the issuing of the said above-recited Orders of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and whilst the same have continued in force, the General Board of Health have caused enquiry to be made by Gavin Milroy, Doctor of Medicine, a Superintending Inspector to the said Board, into the state of a certain Burial Ground, known as the New Bunhill Fields Cemetery, situate in Deverell Street, New Kent Road, in the Parish of Saint Mary, Newington, in the County of Surrey, being a part of England excepted from the powers of the Public Health Act, 1848; And whereas it now appears to us, the said General Board of Health, upon the report of the said Gavin Milroy, upon and after the enquiry made by him as aforesaid, that the said Burial Ground is in such a state as to be dangerous to the health of the persons living in the neighbourhood thereof; now We, the said General Board of Health, being of opinion that the adoption of the measures of precaution hereinafter specified would tend to lessen the aforesaid danger to health, do hereby, in exercise of the power vested in us by the above-recited Acts, order and direct you, the Proprietors of the said Cemetery, and all other persons (if any there be) having the care and controul of the said Burial Ground, to do, and cause to be done, the following works and matters in, and in relation to the said Burial Ground, and the mode of interment therein, that is to say :—

1. That the whole surface of the said Burial Ground (excepting such parts thereof as are now used as footpaths, or are now covered with flat stones,) shall be forthwith covered with quick lime of an uniform thickness of three inches at the least.

2. That when any portion of the said lime shall be removed for the purpose of making or digging any grave in the said Burial Ground, or for any other purpose, such lime shall be replaced immediately after the filling up of the grave, or the completion of such purpose, and a sufficient quantity of quick lime shall be provided, and from time to time shall be applied, so as to keep the whole of the said Burying Ground (except the parts above excepted) covered therewith, to the thickness of three inches as aforesaid.

3. That to prevent the contamination of springs of water, every grave which shall be made or dug in the said Burial Ground, shall be covered at the bottom thereof with quick lime, of an uniform thickness of three inches at the least, upon which covering of lime the coffin containing the corpse, which shall be buried or deposited in such grave, shall be placed.

4. That not more than one corpse shall be buried or deposited in any grave, and every grave in which any corpse shall be buried or deposited, shall be filled up to the level of the ordinary surface of the said Burial Ground immediately upon the corpse being buried or deposited therein, and no further burial shall take place in the same grave, nor shall any other corpse be deposited therein.

5. That no corpse shall be buried or deposited in any grave in the said Burial Ground at a less distance than two feet and six inches from any other grave, such distance to be computed from that part of the coffin containing such corpse which is nearest to such other grave.

6. That no corpse shall be buried or deposited in any grave in the said Burial Ground in which, after the burial or deposit thereof, there shall not be at least five feet of earth remaining between the ordinary surface of the said Burial Ground and the upper part of the coffin in which such corpse shall be contained.

7. Provided always, that the foregoing Directions and Regulations, which are respectively numbered 3, 4, 5, and 6, shall not apply to burials in stone or brick graves, vaults, or catacombs.

8. That no corpse shall be deposited in any stone or brick grave, vault, or catacomb in the said Burial Ground, or in any vault or receptacle connected therewith, unless such corpse shall be enclosed in a coffin made of, or lined with lead of the weight of at least six pounds to every superficial square foot, and of the thickness throughout of one-tenth of an inch, nor unless such coffin or lining be soldered up, or otherwise secured so as to be perfectly air-tight.

9. That if, in making or digging any grave in the said Burial Ground, or in opening any part of the said Burial Ground for any purpose whatever, any human bone, or other part of a human body, or any coffin, or portion of a coffin, shall be found, or become visible, the earth that shall have been disturbed by such making, digging, or opening, shall be forthwith filled in and covered with quick lime to the depth of at least three inches, in addition to the uniform thickness of lime with which the surface of the said Burial Ground is hereinbefore ordered to be covered.

10. That no grave shall be made or dug, nor shall the ground, for any purpose, or upon any pretence, be opened in any part of the said Burial Ground, where a corpse has been buried or deposited within ten years now last past.

And We do further order and direct, that this Order shall take effect on the day of the date hereof, and the works and matters above specified shall continue to be done, acted upon, and executed by you, the said Proprietors and other persons (if any), until further or other Order be made in relation to the premises.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health in Great Britain, this sixth day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine.

To the Mayor and Commonalty, and Citizens of the City of London, Governors of the House of the Poor commonly called ST BARTHOLOMEW'S HOSPITAL, near WEST SMITHFIELD, London, of the Foundation of King Henry the Eighth; and to all other persons having the care and controul of the Burial Ground herein-after described.

WHEREAS by the "Nuisances' Removal and Diseases' Prevention Act, 1848," it was enacted that when any part of the United Kingdom should appear to be threatened by any formidable epidemic, endemic, or contagious disease, the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any three or more of them (the Lord President of the Council, or one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State being one), might, by Order or Orders to be by them made, direct that the provisions contained in the said Act for the prevention of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases, be put in force in Great Britain, and that every such Order should be in force for six calendar months, or for such shorter period as in such Order should be expressed;

And whereas by an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, (the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State being one,) bearing date the 28th day of September 1848, the said provisions of the said recited Act were directed to be put in force throughout the whole of Great Britain for a period of six calendar months thence next ensuing; And whereas, by another Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, (the Most Honourable the Lord President of the said Council being one,) bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, the said recited Order of the 28th day of September 1848 was renewed for a period of six calendar months from the date of the said last-mentioned Order; And whereas, by another Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, (the Most Honourable the Lord President of the said Council being one,) bearing date the 25th day of September 1849, the said first mentioned Order was renewed for a further period of six calendar months from the said 25th day of September 1849, which said last mentioned Order is now in force throughout the whole of Great Britain; And whereas, by another Act of Parliament passed in the thirteenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled, "An Act to amend the Nuisances' Removal and Diseases' Prevention Act, 1848," it was enacted, that it should be lawful for the General Board of Health to cause enquiry to be made by a Superintending Inspector, or by such other ways and means as the General Board of Health might deem fit to direct, into the state of the Burial Grounds in any part of England or Wales excepted from the powers of the Public Health Act, 1848, or in any populous city, town, or place in England or Wales to which, for the time being, the said Act had not been applied, and if it appeared to the General Board of Health that any such Burial Ground was in such a state as to be dangerous to the health of the persons living in the neighbourhood thereof, it should be lawful for the said General Board of Health in England and Wales, under the seal of the said Board, and under the hands of two or more Members thereof, to issue such Orders as the said Board might think fit, for the application of such disinfecting substances, and for the adoption of such other measures of precaution in relation to the premises as might, in the opinion of the said Board, tend to lessen or remove the danger to health; And whereas, after the issuing of the said above-recited Orders of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and whilst the same have continued in force, the General Board of Health have caused enquiry to be made by Richard Dugard Grainger, Esquire, a Superintending Inspector to the said Board, into the state of the Burial Ground, of or belonging to the said Hospital, situate near West Smithfield, London, being a part of England excepted from the powers of the Public Health Act, 1848; And whereas it now appears to us, the said General Board of Health, upon the report of the said Richard Dugard Grainger, upon and after the enquiry made by him as aforesaid, that the said Burial Ground is in such a state as to be dangerous to the health of the persons living in the neighbourhood thereof; Now We, the said General Board of Health, being of opinion that the adoption of the measures of precaution herein-after specified, would tend to lessen the aforesaid danger to health, do hereby, in exercise of the power vested in us by the above-recited Acts, order and direct you, the Governors of the said Hospital, and all other persons (if any there be) having the care and controul of the said Burial Ground, to do, and cause to be done, the following works and matters in, and in relation to, the said Burial Ground, and the mode of interment therein, that is to say:—

1. That the whole surface of the said Burial Ground (excepting such parts thereof as are now used as footpaths, or are now covered with flat stones,) shall be forthwith covered with quick lime of an uniform thickness of three inches at the least.

cepted) covered therewith, to the thickness of three inches as aforesaid.

3. That to prevent the contamination of springs of water, every grave which shall be made or dug in the said Burial Ground shall be covered at the bottom thereof with quick lime, of an uniform thickness of three inches at the least, upon which covering of lime the coffin containing the corpse which shall be buried or deposited in such grave, shall be placed.

4. That not more than one corpse shall be buried or deposited in any grave in the said Burial Ground, and every grave in which any corpse shall be buried or deposited shall be filled up to the level of the ordinary surface of the said Burial Ground immediately upon the corpse being buried or deposited therein, and no further burial shall take place in the same grave, nor shall any other corpse be deposited therein.

5. That no corpse shall be buried or deposited in any grave in the said Burial Ground at a less distance than two feet and six inches from any other grave, such distance to be computed from that part of the coffin containing such corpse which is nearest to such other grave.

6. That no corpse shall be buried or deposited in any grave in the said Burial Ground in which, after the burial or deposit thereof, there shall not be at least five feet of earth remaining between the ordinary surface of the said Burial Ground and the upper part of the coffin in which such corpse shall be contained.

7. Provided always, that the foregoing Directions and Regulations, which are respectively numbered 3, 4, 5, and 6, shall not apply to burials in stone or brick graves, vaults, or catacombs.

8. That no corpse shall be deposited in any stone or brick grave, vault, or catacomb, in the said Burial Ground, or in any vault or receptacle connected therewith, unless such corpse shall be enclosed in a coffin made of, or lined with lead of the weight of at least six pounds to every superficial square foot, and of the thickness throughout of one-tenth of an inch, nor unless such coffin or lining be soldered up, or otherwise secured so as to be perfectly air-tight.

9. That if in making or digging any grave in the said Burial Ground, or in opening any part of the said Burial Ground for any purpose whatever, any human bone, or other part of a human body, or any coffin, or portion of a coffin shall be found, or become visible, the earth that shall have been disturbed by such making, digging, or opening, shall be forthwith filled in and covered with quicklime to the depth of at least three inches, in addition to the uniform thickness of lime with which the surface of the said Burial Ground is hereinbefore ordered to be covered.

NOTICE.

A Petition having been presented by his Grace GEORGE DOUGLAS GLASSSELL CAMPBELL, DUKE OF ARGYLL, to the Sheriff of the County of Argyll, in terms of the Act 3d and 4th Victoria, chapter 48, for authority to grant a Feu-Charter of a Piece of Ground situated in the Town and Burgh of Campbeltown, and Shire aforesaid, therein described, in favour of the Trustees therein named for the purposes of the said Act,—the Sheriff-Substitute of the Kintyre District of said County, by Interlocutor of date 19th October 1849, ordained notice of said Petition to be published in the Edinburgh Gazette and North British Advertiser three times, at intervals of fourteen days, with certification : And Notice is hereby given accordingly.

Edinburgh, 14, Rutland Square,
 October 26, 1849.

EDINBURGH SLAUGHTERHOUSES REMOVAL.

NOTICE is Hereby Given, that it is intended to apply to Parliament in the next Session for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills to alter, amend, continue, enlarge, or wholly or partially to repeal the powers and provisions of the following Acts of Parliament, or some of them, or some parts of them, viz :—An Act of the Parliament of Scotland, passed on the 4th day of August 1621, intituled “Ratificatione of the Act of Secreit Counsell aganis Baxteris, Brewstaris, Flescheors, and Candlemakers off Edinburt;” An Act passed in the twenty-second year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “An Act for preventing the Slaughtering of Cattle within the City of Edinburgh, and for removing nuisances and annoyances therefrom;” An Act of the first and second year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled “An Act to regulate and secure the Debt due by the City of Edinburgh to the Public, to confirm an agreement between the said City and its Creditors, and to effect a settlement of the affairs of the said City and the Town of Leith;” An Act of the third year of the reign of Her said Majesty, intituled “An Act for abolishing certain Petty and Market Customs in the City of Edinburgh, and granting other duties in lieu thereof;” An Act passed in the seventh year of the reign of Her said Majesty, intituled “An Act to amend an Act passed in the third year of the reign of Her present Majesty, for abolishing certain Petty and Market Customs in the City of Edinburgh, and granting other duties in lieu thereof;” An Act of the tenth and eleventh year of the reign of Her said Majesty, intituled “An Act to enlarge and improve the Meal, Corn, and Grain Markets of the City of Edinburgh, and for other purposes in relation thereto;” An Act of the eleventh and twelfth year of the reign of Her said Majesty, intituled “The Edinburgh Police Act, 1848;” and another Act of the last-mentioned year of Her said Majesty, intituled “The Leith Municipal and Police Act, 1848.”

And that by the said Bill or Bills powers will be sought to be conferred on the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Edinburgh, to purchase and acquire lands and premises, suitably situated within the bounds of Police of the said City, or near or adjacent thereto, and upon the same to erect, establish, and maintain Slaughterhouses, one or more, for the slaughtering and dressing of cattle, sheep, swine, and other animals, of what kind soever, for public consumption; and to make and construct all sheds and other buildings, and accesses, and appurtenances that may be necessary or convenient for the said Slaughterhouse or Slaughterhouses; and, from time to time, to improve, extend, and enlarge, the said Slaughterhouse or Slaughterhouses, sheds, buildings, accesses, and appurtenances, and to erect additional houses, one or more, with additional sheds, buildings, accesses, and appurtenances, as circumstances may require.

And by which Bill or Bills, power will be sought to purchase and acquire such lands and premises, and erect, construct, and maintain such Slaughterhouse or Slaughterhouses, sheds, buildings, accesses, and appurtenances, from funds of, or to be provided by, the Corporation of the said City; and, for provision, or reimbursement of such funds, to borrow money upon the security of the said Slaughterhouse or Slaughterhouses and premises, and of the rates and duties, or rents, to be levied and collected in respect thereof.

And by which Bill or Bills power will be sought to levy and collect for, and in respect of, the use of the said Slaughterhouse or Slaughterhouses, such rates and duties, or rents, as shall be found necessary for the management and maintenance of the same, and the final payment of the sums of money so borrowed and expended by the said Corporation, or for the reimbursement to such Corporation of the funds to be provided by them, as aforesaid; and to reduce or increase the amount of such rates and duties, or rents, as shall be found expedient; and provision will be made in regard to the carcasses of animals introduced, in whole or in part, for sale within the said bounds of Police, which animals shall not have been slaughtered at the said Slaughterhouse or Slaughterhouses, calculated to prevent any evasion of the use of the same, by levying, in respect of such carcasses, or parts thereof, the same or such like rates and duties as would be leviable, if such animals had been slaughtered at the said Slaughterhouse or Slaughterhouses, or by levying such other rate or duty, or adopting such other means of prevention, as shall be sanctioned by Parliament.

And by which Bill or Bills it will also be provided, that upon the said Slaughterhouse or Slaughterhouses being opened for public use, and after due advertisement, all Butchers, Fleshers, and other persons whatsoever shall be prohibited, under suitable penalties, from slaughtering cattle, sheep, swine, or other animals of what kind soever, within the said bounds of Police, or one mile, or other distance, more or less, beyond the same, elsewhere than at the said Slaughterhouse or Slaughterhouses.

And by the said Bill or Bills it is intended to confer powers on the said Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council, to make all proper bye-laws for the regulation of the said Slaughterhouse or Slaughterhouses, and the government of the parties using and frequenting the same; and regarding the conveyance of Butchers' meat therefrom to the Markets, Shops, or other places where the same may be exposed for sale; and to enforce observation thereof under suitable penalties; and to alter and amend the said Bye-laws from time to time, as to them shall seem just and proper: And it is also intended to extend the jurisdiction of the Magistrates of the said City over the said Slaughterhouse or Slaughterhouses, and over all persons resorting thereto, or employed therein, if such Slaughterhouse or Slaughterhouses, or any of them, shall be erected beyond the Royalty of the said City.

And Notice is Farther Hereby Given, that it is intended by the said Bill or Bills to levy tolls, rates, and duties, and to alter the tolls, rates, and duties leviable under the before-recited Acts, or some of them; and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, and extinguish other rights and privileges.

CITY CHAMBERS,
Edinburgh, 10th November 1849.

GLASGOW MARKETS AND SLAUGHTER-HOUSES.

(Amendment of Acts, &c.)

NOTICE is Hereby Given, that it is intended to apply to Parliament in the ensuing Session, for leave to bring in a Bill for continuing, altering, enlarging, amending, and, in so far as necessary, repealing the following Acts of Parliament, and the several Acts therein recited, viz. An Act passed in the first year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for amending an Act of His late Majesty King George the Third, relating to the conversion of the Statute Labour within the Royalty of Glasgow, and another Act of His said late Majesty, relating to the sale of Live Cattle in the City of Glasgow; and for opening certain Streets, and otherwise improving the said City;" An Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of his said Majesty, intituled "An Act for establishing additional Market-places in the City of Glasgow, for opening certain Streets and Communications therein, and otherwise improving the said City;" and an Act passed in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the better regulation and management, and for the extension of the Slaughter-houses and Market accommodation in the City of Glasgow, and for other purposes in relation thereto." By which Bill it is intended to repeal so much of the said last-recited Act as enacts that the provisions thereof shall not extend to, nor include the Burgh of Calton, and Village and Lands of Mile-end, or the Burgh of Anderston; and to extend the powers and provisions of the said recited Acts, and of the said Bill, over the whole lands and territory within the Parliamentary and Municipal limits and boundaries of the City and Royal Burgh of Glasgow, as the same are defined and described in an Act passed in the second and third years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Representation of the People in Scotland." And it is also intended to take power to extend and enlarge the existing Market-places and Slaughter-houses in the said City, and to erect and establish new and additional Markets and Slaughter-houses, with all requisite accommodation, and with such buildings as may be necessary for the deposit and manufacture of offal, blood, tallow, garbage, and other products from animals, so as to prevent nuisance to the inhabitants; and for these and the other purposes of the said recited Acts, and of the said Bill, and for the sanitary improvement of localities in the neighbourhood of the Markets, Slaughter-houses, and other buildings erected, or to be erected, to take powers for the purchase of lands and houses, compulsorily or by agreement; to borrow money; to regulate the said Markets, Slaughter-houses, and other buildings; to lease the same; to make bye-laws; and to take all such other powers as may be necessary for effectually carrying out the purposes of the said recited Acts, and of the said Bill: And it is further intended to alter, re-adjust, abolish, or commute the tolls, rates, and duties by the said recited Acts, or any of them, authorized to be levied; and to levy such new and additional tolls, rates, and duties as may be requisite for the purposes of the said Acts, and of the said Bill; and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and other rights and privileges: And it is also intended by the said Bill to declare that the trust, created by the said recited Acts, shall cease and determine; and that the property of the said Markets and Slaughter-houses, and the tolls, rates, and duties by the said recited Acts, and by the said Bill authorized to be levied, shall be vested in the Magistrates and Council of the said City, as representing, and on behalf of the community thereof: And also to authorize, that after paying all the necessary expenses connected with the said Markets and Slaughter-houses, and of carrying the said recited Acts, and the said Bill, into execution, any balance or residue that may remain of the said tolls, rates, and duties, may be applied towards the sanitary improvement of the said City, and the benefit of the inhabitants.

CITY-CHAMBERS,

Glasgow, November 10, 1849.

GUARDIAN FIRE AND LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY,

GIVING FURTHER POWERS TO.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an application is intended to be made in the next Session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill to regulate the manner in which the Guardian Fire and Life Assurance Company shall sue and be sued; to extend, alter, amend and enlarge the powers, provisions, and authorities given by, and contained in the Deeds of Settlement made on the establishment of the said Company, bearing date the seventeenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, and the twenty-sixth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-two, or to enable the said Company so to do; and also to give other powers and authorities to the said Company, particularly for making investments of the funds of the Company, for facilitating the transfers of the Company's securities, for enabling the Company to purchase the business of other Assurance Companies, for enabling Proprietors to hold any number of Shares, for enabling the Company to alter the provisions of the Deed of Settlement relative to the Division and Appropriation of Profits, for enabling the Directors to grant Policies upon such terms as to Participation in Profits as they may think fit, and for limiting the Claims of future Policy-holders to part of the paid-up Capital of the Company.
