Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1849.

By the Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland.

CLARENDON.

WHEREAS under the provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament, held in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, entitled "An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws relative to Jurors and Juries in Ireland," the Justices assembled at the October Quarter Sessions of the Peace, holden in and for the division of Dundalk, in the county of Louth, at Ardree, in the said division, on the nineteenth day of October last, duly fixed a Special Sessions to be holden at the Sessions' House, in Dundalk aforesaid, on Monday, the nineteenth day of November instant, within and for the division of Dundalk, in said county of Louth, for the purpose of examining the Lists of Jurors returned by the High Constables and Collectors within said division, pursuant to the provisions in said Act contained, and did give public notice of such place and time :

And whereas it has been represented unto Us, by the Clerk of the Peace for said county of Louth, that the lists of persons returned pursuant to the provisions of said recited Act, for the said division of Dundalk, could not be examined or corrected by reason of the non-attendance at said Sessions of any Justice of the Peace of said county, whereby said Sessions could not be effectually holden for the purpose aforesaid :

And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament, held in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, entitled "An Act to amend two Acts of the third and fourth, and fourth and fifth years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, for consolidating and amending the Laws relative to Jurors and Juries in Ireland," it is enacted that in every case in which, in any county at large, or any division thereof, or in any county of a city, or county of a town, such Special Sessions shall not be effectually held for the purpose in said Act stated, whether by reason of a sufficient number of Justices not attending, or by reason of a day or place not being fixed for the holding of such Sessions, or by any other cause, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by Warrant under his or their hand or hands, to fix a day, and also a place in such county or division, or county of a city, or county of a town, for holding a Special Session for the purpose of examining the List of Jurors, as in the said Act of the third and fourth years of the reign of His said late Majesty is directed :

Now We, George William Frederick Villiers, Earl of Clarendon, Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland, do, by this Our Warrant, in pursuance of the Authority so vested in Us, under and by virtue of the provisions of said recited Act of the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, appoint and fix that a Special Sessions, for the purpose of examining the List of Jurors, as in the said Act of the third and fourth years of the reign of His said late Majesty is directed, shall be held at Dundalk, in and for the said division of Dundalk, in the county aforesaid, on the thirteenth day of December next, being sixteen days from the publication of this Our Warrant ; of which all persons concerned are to take notice.

Given at Her Majesty's Castle of Dublin, this 26th day of November 1849.

By His Excellency's Command,
T. N. REDINGTON.

By the Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland.

CLARENDON.

WHEREAS under the provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament, held in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, entitled "An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws relative to Jurors and Juries in Ireland," the Justices assembled at the October Quarter Sessions of the Peace, holden in and for the division of Ballymahon, at Ballymahon, in the said division, on the eleventh day of October last, duly fixed a Special Sessions to be holden at the Sessions' House in Ballymahon, on Tuesday, the twentieth day of November, within and for the division of Ballymahon, in said county of Longford, for the purpose of examining the Lists of Jurors returned by the High Constables and Collectors within said division, pursuant to the provisions in said Act contained, and did give public notice of such place and time :

And whereas it has been represented unto Us, by John Versechoyle Crawford, the Clerk of the Peace for said county of Longford, that the lists of persons returned pursuant to the provisions of said recited Act, for the said division of Ballymahon, could not be examined or corrected by reason of the non-attendance of a sufficient number of the Justices of the Peace for the said county of Longford, whereby said Sessions could not be effectually holden for the purpose aforesaid ;

And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament, held in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, entitled " An Act to amend two Acts of the third and fourth, " and fourth and fifth years of His late Majesty " King William the Fourth, for consolidating and " amending the Laws relative to Jurors and Juries " in Ireland," it is enacted that in every case in which, in any county at large, or any division thereof, or in any county of a city, or county of a town, such Special Sessions shall not be effectually held for the purpose in said Act stated, whether by reason of a sufficient number of Justices not attending, or by reason of a day or place not being fixed for the holding of such Sessions, or by any other cause, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by Warrant under his or their hand or hands, to fix a day, and also a place in such county or division, or county of a city, or county of a town, for holding a Special Session for the purpose of examining the List of Jurors, as in the said Act of the third and fourth years of the reign of His said late Majesty is directed :

Now We, George William Frederick Villiers, Earl of Clarendon, Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland, do, by this Our Warrant, in pursuance of the Authority so vested in Us, under and by virtue of the provisions of said recited Act of the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, appoint and fix that a Special Sessions, for the purpose of examining the List of Jurors, as in the said Act of the third and fourth years of the reign of His said late Majesty is directed, shall be held at Ballymahon, in and for the said division of Ballymahon, on the twenty-first day of December next, being twenty-four days from the publication of this Our Warrant ; or which all persons concerned are to take notice.

Given at Her Majesty's Castle of Dublin, this 26th day of November 1849.

By His Excellency's Command,
T. N. REDINGTON.

By the Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland.

CLARENDON.

WHEREAS under the provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament, held in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, entitled " An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws relative to Jurors and Juries in " Ireland," the Justices assembled at the October Quarter Sessions of the Peace, holden in and for the southern division of the county of Dublin, at Kilmainham, in the said division, on the seventeenth day of October last, duly fixed a Special Sessions to be holden at the Sessions' House in Kilmainham, on Wednesday, the fourteenth day of November, within and for the southern division of said County of Dublin, for the purpose of examining the Lists of Jurors returned by the High Constables and Collectors within said division, pursuant to the provisions in said Act contained, and did give public notice of such place and time :

EDINBURGH

And whereas it has been represented unto Us by the Deputy Clerk of the Peace for said county of Dublin, that the lists of persons returned, pursuant to the provisions of said recited Act, for the said southern division, could not be examined or corrected by reason of a sufficient number of Justices not having attended at the time and place aforesaid, whereby said Sessions could not be effectually holden for the purposes aforesaid :

And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament, held in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, entitled " An Act to amend two Acts of the third and fourth, " and fourth and fifth years of His late Majesty " King William the Fourth, for consolidating and " amending the Laws relative to Jurors and Juries " in Ireland," it is enacted that in every case in which, in any county at large, or any division thereof, or in any county of a city, or county of a town, such Special Sessions shall not be effectually held for the purpose in said Act stated, whether by reason of a sufficient number of Justices not attending, or by reason of a day or place not being fixed for the holding of such Sessions, or by any other cause, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by Warrant under his or their hand or hands, to fix a day, and also a place in such county or division, or county of a city, or county of a town, for holding a Special Session for the purpose of examining the List of Jurors, as in the said Act of the third and fourth years of the reign of His said late Majesty is directed :

Now We, George William Frederick Villiers, Earl of Clarendon, Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland, do, by this Our Warrant, in pursuance of the Authority so vested in Us, under and by virtue of the provisions of said recited Act of the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, appoint and fix that a Special Sessions, for the purpose of examining the List of Jurors, as in the said Act of the third and fourth years of the reign of His said late Majesty is directed, shall be held at Kilmainham, in and for the said southern division of the county of Dublin, on the seventeenth day of December, being twenty days from the publication of this Our Warrant ; of which all persons concerned are to take notice.

Given at Her Majesty's Castle of Dublin, this 26th day of November 1849.

By His Excellency's Command,
T. N. REDINGTON.

BRIDGE ACROSS THE RIVER CLYDE
OPPOSITE TO
SOUTH PORTLAND STREET, LAURIESTON,
GLASGOW.

NOTICE is Hereby Given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session for leave to bring in a Bill for an Act for powers to certain parties to be appointed Trustees under the said intended Act, to construct and maintain a Bridge of Iron, or other sufficient material, across the River Clyde, commencing at a point opposite or nearly opposite to South Portland Street of Laurieston, on the south side of the said River, in the Parish of Govan, and terminating in a line direct or nearly direct on the north side of the said River, in the City of Glasgow, with all proper Piers, Abutments, Walls, Banks, Ways, Roads of communication, and other proper accommodations for the purpose of forming a good and substantial Road or Bridgeway across the said River Clyde, at the points aforesaid, for the convenience of Foot Passengers; which said Bridge and other Works are intended to be made in, and will pass from, through, or into the Parish of Govan aforesaid, the Parish of Glasgow, and the subdivision thereof called St Enoch, and the Royal Burgh of Glasgow, all in the County of Lanark;

and it is intended by the said Bill to take powers for the compulsory purchase of such Lands, and other Heritages, and also to levy such Tolls or Pontages from the Foot Passengers using the said Bridge, as may be necessary for the purposes of the said undertaking: And it is also intended to take power to raise money by borrowing on the credit of the said Tolls or Pontages, or otherwise, and to make such other provisions as may be expedient and usual for the purposes aforesaid; And it is also intended by the said Bill to grant such exemptions from the payment of the said Tolls or Pontages to the proprietors of houses and other property on both sides of the said River using the said Bridge, and who may contribute towards the expense of constructing the same, as may be considered proper and expedient; And it is also intended to extinguish all rights and privileges in relation to the Lands and Heritages to be acquired as aforesaid, or which might in any way interfere with the carrying out of the said undertaking; And it is further intended by the said Bill to make provision for transferring the Property and management of the said Undertaking to the Trustees on the Bridges over the River Clyde at Glasgow, after the expense of the construction thereof, and all other necessary costs, charges, and expenses in relation thereto, have been fully paid and satisfied; and also to authorise the Trustees to be appointed by the said intended Act, and the said Trustees on the Bridges over the River Clyde at Glasgow, to make such arrangements and agreements with each other in respect to the levying and applying the said Tolls or Pontages, and in respect also to the management of the said Bridge, until the expense of construction and other necessary costs, charges, and expenses attending the same have been paid off, as may be proper and expedient; and for these purposes it is also intended to alter and amend an Act passed in the 8th year of the reign of her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for consolidating the management of the Bridges over the Clyde at Glasgow; for rebuilding the Bridge over the said River, opposite Stockwell Street, in the City of Glasgow; for erecting a temporary Bridge for the use of the public; for erecting across the said River an Iron Bridge for Foot Passengers, on the existing Bridge opposite to Portland Street of Laurieston being taken down; and other purposes," and the several Acts therein recited.

And Notice is hereby further given, That Plans and Sections of the said undertaking, and duplicates thereof, respectively describing the Lands, Houses, and other Property intended to be taken and acquired, and describing the Lines, Situations, and Levels of the Works to be constructed as aforesaid; and also showing the extent to which it is intended to apply for powers of lateral deviation from the lines of such proposed Works, together with Books of Reference to the said Plans, containing the names of owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such Lands, Houses, and other property respectively, together with a Copy of this Notice, as it will be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection at the Office at Glasgow of the principal Sheriff-Clerk for the County of Lanark, and that a Copy of so much of the said Plans, Sections, and Books of Reference as relates to each Parish or Royal Burgh in or through which the Works are intended to be made, together with a Copy of this Notice, as it will be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection, on or before the said 30th day of November instant, with the Schoolmaster, or if there be no Schoolmaster, then with the Session-Clerk of each of the said Parishes at their respective Residences, and also with the Town-Clerk of the Royal Burgh of Glasgow, at his Office in said Burgh.
