DOWNING-STREET, April 2.

A letter, of which the following is a copy, has been received from Mr Conful Foresti, by the Right Hon. Lord Grenville, his Majefty's Principal Secretary of State for the Foreign Depart-

Port of Corfu, March 3. 1799, on board of the Ruf-fian ship of war the Saint Paul, commanded by Vice Admiral Uchakoff.

I have the honour to inform your Lordship, that on the 1st inst. an attack was made by the united Turkish and Russian forces on the island situated in this port, called Lo Scoglio di Vido, and by the French, L'Isle de la Paix. After a very brisk fire of about two hours and a half from the ships of war, the troops were landed and the said island was captured. An attack was made at the same time on the outworks of the town, and Fort St Salvador was taken by the Russian and Turkish troops, and the French themselves evacuated another outwork called Il Monte di Abram.

On the morning of the 2d, a flag of truce was fent off by the French Commander of the garrifon of the town of Corfu to the Russian Vice-Admiral, for the purpose of informing him of the wish of the garrison to capitulate; a Russian officer was therefore sent to the town with the propositions of the Russian and Turkish Commanders, and they were accepted of with little va-

The capitulation of the garrison, of which I have the honour to enclose a copy, was figned this afternoon, on board of the Russian Vice-Admiral's ship.

I have the honour to be, &c. SPEREDION FORESTI.

The Citizens Dufour, Chief of Brigade, Vareze, Naval Agent, Briche, Commissary of the Executive Power, and Grouvelle, Aidc-de-Camp and Commodore, appointed by the Council of War in the town of Corfu, to stipulate in the name of the French Republic the articles of capitulation for the surrender of the town and forts of Corfu, conjointly with Vice-Admiral Uchakoss, the Capitan Bey Cadir Bey, commanding the combined Russian and Turkiss, squadrons, met on board the Russian Admiral's ship, where they respectively agreed upon the following articles, subject to the ratification of Citizen Dubois, Commissary-General of the Government, and of Citizen Chabot, General of Division, commanding in the Levant Islands.

Art. I. The Brench shall give up to the Turkish and Russian Commissaries the town and the forts of Corfu, together with the artillery, ammunition, provisions, stores, and all other public effects, as they actually exist in the artenals and magazines. The Turkish and Russian Commissaries shall give receipts for every thing that may be delivered to them upon inventories.

II. The garrison shall march, with all military honours, out of all the forts and posts which they may occupy, one day after the signature of the present capitulation. They shall be drawn up in line of battle upon the Esplanade, where they shall lay down their arms and standards, with the exception of the officers, as well civil as military, who shall retain their arms; after which the allied troops shall take possession of the Citadel, where they shall continue to be lodged until the time of their embarkation, which shall take place at the port of Mandaccio. The Commissary-General and the Staff shall have a Russian guard of honour until their embarkation.

III. The garrison shall be conveyed to Toulon in vessels fur-

General and the Staff shall have a Russian guard of honour until their embarkation.

III. The garrison shall be conveyed to Toulon in vessels furnished by the combined squadron, and at the charge of the said squadron, and shall be convoyed by ships of war, after having given their word of honour not to bear arms for eighteen months against his Majesty the Grand Signior, his Majesty the Emperor of all the Russias, or against their allies the King of England, the King of the Two Sicilies, and the present allies of the two Empires.

King of the Two Sicilies, and the pretent anies of the two Empires.

IV. All the other Frenchmen employed in the illand of Corfu, as well civil as military, are comprehended in the preceding article; as also the civil and military officers and crews of the ship the Leander, the corverte La Brune, and of every vessel belonging to the Republic: They are permitted to carry away with them (as are also all the individuals composing the garrison of Corfu) all their effects and moveables which are their own private property.

V. All Frenchmen, who have been made prisoners during the blockade and slege, are in like manner admitted and entitled to the advantages specified in articles III. and IV. They shall only be bound by the parole of honour not to carry arms against the
