FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1851.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 3d day of February 1851,
PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty in Council was this day pleased, upon the representation of the Committee of Council on Education, to appoint Dr James Cumming, L.L.D., Rector of the Academy at Glasgow, to be one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools in Scotland, in the room of John Gibson, Esq. resigned.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 3d day of February 1851,
PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the appointment of convenient places for the holding of assizes in England and Wales," it was declared and enacted that His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, should have power, from time to time, to order and direct at what place or places in any county in England or Wales the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions for the despatch of civil and criminal business, shall be holden:

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby, under and in pursuance of the said Act, order and direct that the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions for the despatch of civil and criminal business which shall be holden in and for the county of Berks next after the date of this Order, shall be held at Abingdon, in the said county, and not at Reading, or at any other place within the said county.

And the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

WM. L. BATHURST.

DUCHY OF LANCASTER, February 3, 1851.

The Queen has been this day pleased to appoint Thomas Percival Heywood, of Doveleys, Esq. to be Sheriff of the county palatine of Lancaster for the year ensuing.

WHITEHALL, February 1, 1851.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto John Charles Gawen Roberts, Esq. a Retired Rear-Admiral in Her Majesty's Navy, eldest and only surviving son and heir of William Roberts, Esq. sometime a Captain in the 2d Regiment of Dragoon Guards, by Sarah his wife, daughter of Jeffery Gawen, of the city of Salisbury, Esq. and sister and heir of Jeffery Gawen, a Commander in the Royal Navy, all deceased, Her royal licence and authority that he and his issue may henceforth take and use the surname of Gawen, in addition to and after that of Roberts, and bear the arms of Gawen quarterly with those of Roberts; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And to command that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Commission signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Hertford.

Sir Edward George Earle Lytton Bulwer Lytton, Bart. to be Deputy Lieutenant.

WHITEHALL, January 22, 1851.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Robert Harfield, of Southampton, in the county of Southampton, gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

WHITEHALL, January 27, 1851.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed William Pearce, of Portsea, in the county of Southampton, gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Prince of Wales Council-Chambers, Somerset House, February 4, 1851.

William Williams, of Tregulow, in the county of Cornwall, Esq. has been appointed Sheriff of the county of Cornwall.

WESTPORT.

Limits of Port and Legal Quay.

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby, under the authority of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the 9th and 10th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Customs," appoint Westport to be a Port in that part of the United Kingdom called Ireland; and We do hereby declare, that the limits of the said Port shall commence at Broadhaven, on the coast of the County of Mayo, being the southern limit of the Port of Ballina, and shall extend from thence southerly round the coast of the said County to, but exclusive of, Killeries Harbour, on the confines of the said County and the County of Galway, which Harbour is the northern limit of the Port of Galway, and shall include all Bays, Harbours, Rivers, and Creeks within the said limits, and shall extend out to sea a distance of three miles from low water-mark, along the coast within the aforesaid limits.

And We, the said Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do hereby appoint the following place within the said Port of Westport to be a Legal Quay for the lading and unlading of goods, that is to say:—

All that open place, Quay, or Wharf, situate at Westport, called the Custom House Quay, commencing at that part of the said Quay which juts out into the River near to the entrance to Lord Sligo's demesne, and extending in length from thence toward the sea, two thousand four hundred feet, or thereabouts, and being in breadth fifty-five feet, or thereabouts.

And We, the said Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do hereby annul all former limits of the said Port of Westport, and all former Legal Quays set out and appointed within the same.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, this 25th day of January, 1851.
