Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1851.

LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE, February 13, 1851.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold Levees at St James's-Palace, on the following days, at two o'clock :

Wednesday, 26th February instant.
Thursday, 6th March next.
Wednesday, 26th March next.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEES, at ST JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who purpose to attend Her Majesty's Levees at St James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence-chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, on the Mondays previous to the Levees on 26th February instant and 26th March next, and on the Tuesday previous to the Levee on 6th March next, on each day before twelve o'clock, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command that no presentation shall be made at the Levees but in conformity with the above Regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to the Queen.

The State Apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court until half-past one o'clock.

Notice is hereby given, that all persons having Petitions or Addresses to present to Her Majesty at the Levees, are to send a card (having on it their names, a statement of the object of such Petitions or Addresses, and the names of the persons from whom they come) to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, on the Mondays previous to the Levees on 26th February instant and 26th March next, and on the Tuesday previous to the Levee on 6th March next; and that two other cards, having on them precisely what is written upon that sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, are to be taken to the Levee; one of the two cards to be delivered to the Page in the Ante-Room, and the other to the Lord Chamberlain, who will read its contents to Her Majesty; and on these occasions no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

A Deputation to present an Address is not to exceed four persons.

LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE, February 13, 1851.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at St James's Palace, on Thursday, the 3d of April next, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING-ROOM.

The Ladies who purpose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing-Room are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names legibly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence-chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

And those Ladies who are to be presented, are hereby informed that it is absolutely necessary that their names, together with the names of the Ladies who are to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, on Tuesday, the 1st of April next, before twelve o'clock, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command that no presentation shall take place unless the name of the Lady presenting, together with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, which names shall correspond with those previously sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

It is particularly requested that in every case written cards only be delivered.

FOREIGN-OFFICE, February 18, 1851.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint William Sunley, Esq. to be Her Majesty's Consul at the Comoro Islands.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, February 19, 1851.

CHAPTER of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

A Chapter of this Most Noble Order having been summoned for this day, the Knights Companions hereafter named, in their mantles and collars, assembled in the Green Drawing-room, viz.—

His Royal Highness Prince Albert, His Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge, the Duke of Wellington, the Duke of Devonshire, the Marquess of Exeter, the Duke of Richmond, the Marquess of Lansdowne, Earl De Grey, the Marquess of Abercorn, and Earl Spencer, attended by the following officers, viz.—

The Lord Bishop of Winchester, Prelate; the Lord Bishop of Oxford, Chancellor; Sir Charles George Young, Knt. Garter; and Sir Augustus William James Clifford, Bart. Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod.

At three o'clock the Knights Companions were called over by Garter, when (Her Majesty and His Royal Highness Prince Albert having passed into the Throne-room,) they proceeded, with the Officers of the Order, from the Green Drawing-room into the Throne-room.

The Sovereign and Knights Companions being seated, the Chancellor signified to the Chapter Her Majesty's Royal will and pleasure that the vacant stall in the Royal Chapel of St George, at Windsor, be filled.

The Knights Companions then proceeded to the election, and the suffrages having been collected by the Chancellor, were by him presented to the Sovereign, who commanded him to declare, and he accordingly did declare, that the Most Honourable Constantine Henry, Marquess of Normanby, had been duly elected a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

Then, by the Sovereign's command, his Lordship was received at the door of the Chapter-room by the two Junior Knights Companions present, and conducted between them to Her Majesty, preceded by Garter (bearing the ensigns of the Order upon a crimson velvet cushion,) and by Black Rod.

The Marquess of Normanby kneeling near the Sovereign, Garter on his knee presented the Garter, and Her Majesty, assisted by His Royal Highness Prince Albert and His Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge, the two Senior Knights Companions present, buckled it on his Lordship's left leg, the Chancellor pronouncing the usual admonition.

Garter next presented in like manner the Ribband and George, and Her Majesty, assisted as before, put the same over his Lordship's left shoulder, the Chancellor pronouncing the admonition. The Marquess then kissed Her Majesty's hand, and having received the congratulations of each of the Knights Companions, retired.

The Chapter being ended, Garter, by Her Majesty's command, again called over the Knights Companions, who, with the Officers of the Order, retired from the presence of the Sovereign, with the usual reverences.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, February 19, 1851.

The Queen, as Sovereign of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, has been graciously pleased, by letters patent under Her royal sign manual and the great seal of the Order, bearing date this day, to dispense with all the Statutes and Regulations usually observed in regard to installation, and to grant unto the Most Honourable Constantine Henry, Marquess of Normanby, Knight of the said Most Noble Order, and duly invested with the ensigns thereof, full power and authority to exercise all rights and privileges belonging to a Knight Companion of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, in as full and ample a manner as if his Lordship had been formally installed, any decree, rule, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

FOREIGN-OFFICE, February 20, 1851.

Notice is hereby given, that on and after Saturday the 22d instant, Passports will be issued from this Department, according to the following Regulations:—

REGULATIONS RESPECTING PASSPORTS.

1. Applications for Foreign Office Passports must be made in writing, and addressed to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, with the word "Passport" written upon the cover.
2. The fee on the issue of a Passport is 7s. 6d.
3. Foreign Office Passports are granted only to British subjects, including in that description foreigners who have been naturalized by Act of Parliament, or by Certificates of Naturalization granted before the 24th day of August, 1850: in this latter case, the party is described in the Passport as a "Naturalized British subject."
4. Passports are granted between the hours of twelve and four on the day following that on which the application for the Passport has been received at the Foreign-Office.
5. Passports are granted to persons who are either known to the Secretary of State or recommended to him by some person who is known to him; or upon the written application of a Banking Firm established in London.
6. Passports cannot be sent by the Foreign-Office to persons already abroad. Such persons should apply to the nearest British Mission or Consulate.
7. Foreign-Office Passports must be countersigned at the Mission, or at some Consulate in England of the Government of the Country which the bearer of the Passport intends to visit.
8. A Foreign-Office Passport granted for one journey may be used for any subsequent journey if countersigned afresh by the Ministers or Consuls of the Countries which the bearer intends to visit.
