TREASURY WARRANT.

Whereas by an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," the Postmaster-General is authorised to charge on all letters conveyed by packet-boats between one part of Her Majesty's dominions and another part of the same dominions, and between Her Majesty's dominions and foreign parts where post communications shall be established, such rates of postage as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by warrant under their hands, shall from time to time direct.

Now we, the undersigned, being two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do, in exercise of the power and authority in us for such purpose vested in and by the said Act, and of all other powers and authorities enabling us in this behalf, direct, that on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by British packet-boats between Sierra Leone and the Cape of Good Hope, the Cape de Verd Islands, Brazil, Buenos Ayres, Monte Video, Portugal, or Madeira, or between the Cape of Good Hope and the Cape de Verd Islands, Brazil, Buenos Ayres, Monte Video, Portugal, or Madeira, (without in any case passing through the United Kingdom,) there shall be charged and paid, in lieu of any rates of postage now payable thereon, a rate of postage of one shilling.

And we further direct that on every letter transmitted as is mentioned in this warrant, exceeding half an ounce in weight, there shall be charged and paid progressive and additional rates of postage as follows (that is to say),

On every letter exceeding half an ounce in weight, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, two rates of postage.

And on every letter exceeding three ounces, and not exceeding four ounces in weight, eight rates of postage.

And for every ounce in weight above the weight of four ounces, there shall be charged and taken five additional rates of postage; and every fraction of an ounce above the weight of four ounces shall be charged as one additional ounce, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause, shall be estimated and charged at the sum of One Shilling.

And we further direct that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions and privileges granted by the said recited Act, or by any other Acts of Parliament relating to the Post-office, or by any Treasury Warrant issued under any of such Acts, and that all such exemptions and privileges shall remain in full force.

And we further direct that the terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

Provided lastly, and we hereby declare and direct, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any two of them, by warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby fixed or the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof.
