Tuesday, 6th May next.

Thursday, 15th May next.

Saturday, 31st May next, { to Celebrate Her Majesty's Birth-day.

N.B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars at the Drawing-Room on the 31st of May next.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING-ROOMS.

The Ladies who purpose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names legibly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

And those Ladies who are to be presented are hereby informed it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the names of the Ladies who are to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office on the second day previous to the Drawing-Rooms (for that announced for the 6th of May on Saturday the 3d of May), before twelve o'clock, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command that no presentation shall take place unless the name of the Lady presenting, together with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, which names shall correspond with those previously sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

It is particularly requested that in every case written cards only be delivered.

LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE, April 11, 1851.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Levee at St James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 28th of May next, at two o'clock.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 14th day of April 1851,
PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by an Act passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, "for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England," it is among other things enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, from time to time should seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining,) into districts, and to order that the County Court should be holden for the recovery of debts and demands under the said Act, in each of such districts, and from time to time to alter such districts as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit, and to order, from time to time, that the number of districts in and for which the Court should be holden, should be increased until the whole of such county should be within the provisions of the said Act, and with the advice aforesaid to alter the place of holding of any such Court, or to order that the holding of any such Court should be discontinued, or to consolidate any two or more of such districts, and from time to time, with the advice aforesaid, to declare by what name and in what towns and places the County Court should be holden in each district.

And Whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council of the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act should be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, among which counties the county of Sussex and the county of Cumberland were included, and the town of Hastings was named as a place for holding one of the Courts of the said county of Sussex for the district in that behalf particularly mentioned in the said Order, and the city of Carlisle was named as a place for holding one of the Courts of the said county of Cumberland for the district in that behalf particularly mentioned in the said Order:

And whereas by certain other Acts made and passed in the thirteenth and in the fourteenth
