WHITEHALL, September 1, 1851.

THE Queen has been pleased to appoint Samuel Morton Peto, Esq. to be Deputy Chairman of the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers.

In pursuance of the directions of an Act passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to repeal so much of two Acts made in the tenth and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, as authorizes the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out writs for the election of Members to serve in Parliament, in the manner therein mentioned, and for substituting other provisions for the like purposes:"

I do hereby give notice, that the death of Henry Broadley, Esq. late a Member serving in this present Parliament for the East Riding of the county of York, hath been certified to me in writing, under the hands of two Members serving in this present Parliament, and that I shall issue my warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new writ for the electing of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for the said East Riding of the county of York, at the end of fourteen days after the insertion of this notice in the London Gazette.

Given under my hand the 30th day of August 1851.

CHARLES SHAW LEFEVRE, Speaker.

Port of Liverpool.

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby, under the authority of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, entitled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs," appoint the following places within the port of Liverpool, to be legal quays for the lading and unlading of goods, and we do hereby declare the bounds and extent of such quays to be as follow; that is to say:—

All that open place, quay, or wharf, at Birkenhead, situate on the north side of the lock or passage into the float, extending westwards, from the termination of the present legal quay, on the north side of Egerton Dock, two hundred and eighty feet.

Also all that open place, quay, or wharf, at Birkenhead aforesaid, situate on the south side of the said lock or passage, extending westwards, from the north-west point of the termination of the present legal quay on the south side of Egerton Dock aforesaid, three hundred feet; thence extending southwardly, seventy feet; thence in a westerly direction, two hundred and sixty feet; thence northwardly, one hundred and forty feet; thence westwardly towards Vittoria Street, eight hundred and ten feet; thence northwardly, five hundred and fifty feet; thence in a westerly direction, one thousand five hundred feet; thence in a south-west direction, three hundred feet; thence in a southerly direction, four hundred and twenty feet; thence in a westerly direction, sixty feet; thence in a northerly direction, three hundred and twenty feet; and thence in a south-westerly direction, three hundred feet.

All which said several places, quays, or wharves are in breadth one hundred and ten feet, or thereabouts.

Whitehall, Treasury-Chambers, this 26th day of August 1851.
