WHITEHALL, October 14, 1851.

THE following ADDRESSES were presented to Her Majesty on the occasion of Her Majesty's passing through the City of Carlisle, and of Her visit to the County of Lancaster, and were received very graciously:—

To The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Carlisle.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty's loyal and devoted subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Carlisle, on behalf of ourselves and the other Inhabitants thereof, humbly desire, on the occasion of the presence of your Majesty and your illustrious Consort in this ancient and loyal city, to approach your Majesty for the purpose of testifying our unshaken loyalty and firm attachment to your Throne and Person.

We desire to acknowledge, with gratitude to Divine Providence, the many and great blessings which we, in common with the other subjects of this Realm, enjoy under your Majesty's happy and beneficent reign, and particularly the advancement which both the moral and religious welfare of the people, and also their temporal interests and comforts, receive from the enlightened exertions of your Majesty and your illustrious Consort, and which have lately been so nobly employed in cementing the bonds of friendship between this and the other nations of the world; and we earnestly pray that your Majesty, happy in the affections of your illustrious Consort and amiable Family, may long be spared to be a blessing to a loyal, happy, and contented people, and at last, in transmitting your earthly crown to a worthy successor, now training for his high office under your Majesty's own immediate eye, may only exchange it for a better and more enduring diadem in Heaven.

Given under the corporate seal of the said city, the 8th day of October 1851.

JOHN HEWSON, Mayor.
JNO. NANSON, Town-Clerk.

To The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty's loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of your ancient Borough of Lancaster, beg to approach your Majesty with the expression of our ardent affection for your Majesty's Person, and of devoted attachment to the Throne, on which, by the blessing of God, your Majesty is so happily seated.

We crave permission further to express the grateful sense we entertain of your Majesty's condescension in honouring us with your gracious presence, and to assure your Majesty that the impression which so marked a token of royal favour has made upon ourselves and fellow-townspersons is such as neither time nor circumstance can obliterate.

It is yet further our bounden duty to thank your Majesty for benefits previously bestowed. For your Majesty's bounty in recently extending to one of our most useful public charities the aid of a royal donation, and for your Majesty's condescension in conferring upon our ancient Grammar School the dignity of royal patronage, we beg to offer our heartfelt acknowledgments.

May we humbly avail ourselves of the opportunity now offered by your Majesty's goodness to advert to the peculiar circumstances that impart to your Majesty's sojourn within these walls a more than ordinary interest?

It is with feelings of cherished pride we reflect that, from this highly favoured locality is derived the second title of your Majesty's illustrious house; and carrying our thoughts back to the records of ages long passed away, we call to mind that the time-honoured spot on which we are permitted, by your Majesty's gracious favour, to present to your Majesty this humble tribute of duty and affection, is the same whereon, centuries ago, similar homage has been paid to one of the most mighty of your Majesty's renowned ancestors, whose career is identified with the palmiest days of England's chivalry, and whose memory is endeared to us by its intimate association with the day-spring of religious freedom within these favoured realms.

We humbly trust this passing allusion to the reflected honours which your ancient Borough and Castle of Lancaster have the privilege of enjoying will be deemed by your Majesty a pardonable indulgence, and that your Majesty will accept the expression of our boundless gratitude for allowing us, by this gracious visit, to add to our Lancaster annals one other royal reminiscence, and that one the dearest and most memorable.

We hereby tender to your Majesty our humble offering of gratitude and dutiful obedience.

And we shall ever pray that it will please Almighty God to shower His choicest blessings upon your gracious Majesty, upon the illustrious Prince, your honoured and much loved Consort, and upon the youthful Members of your Majesty's Family, and that it may please Him, in His great mercy, to grant that your Majesty may long reign, in uninterrupted happiness, over a loyal and affectionate people.

Given under the common seal of the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, this 8th day of October 1851.

To The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Justices of the Peace for your Majesty's County Palatine of Lancaster, beg to approach your Majesty with the expression of our devoted attachment to your Majesty's Person and Throne, and our deep obligations to your Majesty for the honour conferred upon our county by your Majesty's presence.

From the means of observation afforded us in the discharge of those duties graciously entrusted to us by your Majesty, we are able to assure your Majesty that one universal feeling of sincere and ardent loyalty animates the vast population of this great county.

It is an additional gratification to us that your Majesty should, upon this occasion, be accompanied by the illustrious Prince who has contributed so much to your Majesty's domestic happiness, and has secured for himself, not less by his private virtues than by his public conduct, the unvarying esteem and attachment of all your Majesty's loyal subjects.

That your Majesty may long live to diffuse over our land the blessings of the mild and constitutional sway which has ever characterized your Majesty's illustrious reign, is the heartfelt and fervent prayer of your Majesty's most humble and devoted subjects.

Signed on behalf of the Magistrates, this 8th day of October 1851.

JONA. BROOKS, Chairman of the Court of Annual General Sessions of the Peace for the County Palatine of Lancaster.

To The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty's faithful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of Liverpool, approach with profound respect to offer the homage of our devoted loyalty, and to express the universal joy of the inhabitants of this borough, now for the first time gladdened by your royal presence.

We welcome with delight a Sovereign who, displaying from the Throne a brilliant example of private virtue, so sways the sceptre of public rule as to unite the hearts of her people in firm and dutiful attachment to her Person and Government.

Knowing that your Majesty is ever intent on the welfare of the realm, we view this gracious visit as a mark of royal regard for the town and trade of Liverpool, and we indulge a hope that your Majesty will have seen with satisfaction the public buildings now in the course of completion, and the arrangements to accommodate the shipping of a sea-port remarkable for the rapid progress and extent of its commerce.

Our joy on this auspicious occasion is enhanced by the presence of the illustrious Prince, your Royal Consort; who, to many well-earned titles to national admiration and esteem, as the patron of science and improvement, adds peculiar claims on the gratitude of this community.

We rejoice that the great works inaugurated here by His Royal Highness, and which blend his name with our commercial enterprize, are now in full operation, and that the structure which he graciously condescended to found, is now completed as a Sailor's Home.

Thankful for the wise and benign exercise of royal authority, and for the advantages of constitutional government, we fervently pray that many years of public and private felicity may be added to your Majesty's reign; and that future generations in this kingdom may long enjoy, under your royal line, such blessings as we now most gratefully acknowledge.

Given under the common seal of the borough of Liverpool, this 9th day of October 1851.

To The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

We, the Corporation of the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks beg leave, with profound respect, to express our devoted loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Crown, and our grateful sense of the honour conferred upon us, by the inspection which your Majesty has now condescended to make of the Port of Liverpool, and of the Docks and other very extensive maritime works therein, under our management and control.

In common with all our fellow-subjects, inhabitants of this town and neighbourhood, we have hailed, with the liveliest satisfaction and thankfulness, your Majesty's determination, accompanied by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and other Members of your Royal Family, to visit this great commercial emporium of your dominions, and we venture most respectfully to hope that the acquaintance which your Majesty has now formed with that site of enterprize and industry, which, in their manifold operations, contribute so largely to the power and prosperity of this kingdom, as well as the loyalty and delight inspired by your royal presence, and manifested, alike afloat and on shore, and with heartfelt enthusiasm, by all classes and every person present at the humble pageant which your Majesty has condescended to accept and grace, will not have proved altogether uninteresting to your Majesty.

This auspicious visit is the first which circumstances have permitted your Majesty to honour us with, but we cannot but thankfully remember that the illustrious Prince, your Royal Consort, has before been graciously pleased to give his sanction to, and permit to be associated with his name a great work, portion of the Liverpool Dock Estate, new in principle at that time here, but now in most successful operation, as well as to afford very seasonable encouragement and support to an Institution for the benefit of our Seamen, which His Royal Highness will hear with pleasure is largely fulfilling the useful objects which, as its founder, he ventured to predicate of it.

That your Majesty may, on some future occasion, be induced to repeat, and with increasing interest, the favour which we now so gratefully acknowledge, and that each year of your Majesty's reign may be rich in such, and all other proofs of the happiness, prosperity, and affectionate loyalty of your people, is our most earnest and devoted prayer.

Given under our common seal, this day of October 1851.

To The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the President, Vice-President, Council, and Members of the Liverpool Chamber of Commerce, beg with all humility and respect to approach your Majesty with feelings of devoted loyalty to your Majesty's Throne and Person, and with the tender of our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on your arrival in this town, accompanied by your Royal Consort and other Members of the Royal Family.

And whilst we feel assured of the deep and lively interest which your Majesty at all times takes in the welfare of every portion of the British Empire, we cannot but look upon your presence this day as an evidence of the special interest which your Majesty has been pleased to take in the prosperity of the town of Liverpool, and in the promotion of that commercial enterprize which is conducive at once to the peace and prosperity of the Country.

The happy event of seeing in the midst of us that gracious Sovereign, who, in the providence of God, has for a period of fourteen years so happily ruled over this Country, will, we feel assured, be the means, if possible, of increasing that loyalty which has ever characterized the people of Liverpool, and of cementing more closely that bond of union and affection which ought always to subsist between a Sovereign and a People.

That Almighty God may shower down His richest blessings upon your Majesty, your Consort, and your Children, and that you may long continue to reign over a happy and contented people is the fervent prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and devoted subjects, the President, Vice-President, Council and Members of the Liverpool Chamber of Commerce.

THOMAS B. HORSFALL, President.

To The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

We, your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal, and devoted subjects, the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Manchester, humbly request permission to tender, with profoundest respect, the assurance of our sincere and earnest attachment to your Majesty; accompanied with our expression of heartfelt gratitude to the Author of all good for the happy dispositions and distinguished virtues with which, in His mercy to us, He hath graciously been pleased to endow our beloved Sovereign.

As the Clergy of a large and populous diocese, erected by your Majesty's royal favour into a separate See, we shall ever feel it our bounden duty, as well as our solemn privilege to seek, through Divine assistance, to carry out the objects of the high commission with which we are entrusted, by inculcating, as much as in us lies, the scriptural tenets of our branch of Christ's Holy Catholic Church; maintaining in their full integrity and purity the great principles of Protestant truth, yet recognizing the right to liberty of conscience, as regards themselves, in such as may differ from us in religious opinion.

The education of the young in sound and useful knowledge, ever accompanied with a careful training in the great principles of the Gospel, and a constant recognition of Divine Providence as set forth in Holy Scripture, will, in addition to our other duties, be the subject of our special and anxious care; and we hope confidently, in the pursuance of this great object, for your Majesty's most gracious protection and encouragement. We most gratefully hail the royal visit with which your Majesty has graciously honoured Manchester, in the full conviction that, while the bright and endearing example of the domestic virtues so uniformly exhibited by your Majesty and your Royal Consort cannot but have won the admiration and affection of all classes of the community, this evidence, so graciously vouchsafed, that the gratification and well-being even of the meanest subject is an object of consideration with your Majesty, cannot fail to enhance, under a benevolent and happy reign, their reverence, esteem, and gratitude.

That the Almighty may long continue (amid the prayers and blessings of a grateful people) to shower upon your Majesty, your Royal Consort, and your Royal Children, a rich and ample measure of prosperity here, the earnest of an unfading diadem hereafter, is our humble, fervent, and unremitted prayer and intercession.

J. P. MANCHESTER.

To The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

We, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Dean and Canons of Christ's College, in Manchester, founded by King Charles, beg leave, on behalf of ourselves and the other Members of our College, to approach your Majesty with feelings of profound respect and devoted attachment, upon the occasion of your Majesty's public visit to Manchester.

As objects of favour on the part of His Majesty King Charles the First, under whose charter we now act, we feel it to be our duty upon all occasions to express gratitude for the privileges conferred upon us by the Crown, and to assure your Majesty especially of our desire to discharge faithfully the solemn obligations laid upon us, and to testify, by every means in our power, loyalty to our Sovereign, adherence to the United Church of England and Ireland, of which your Majesty is the legal head, and never-failing zeal in promoting those objects for which the Church exists, which we conceive to be universal extension of the knowledge of Christ's Holy Gospel, "speaking the truth in love," and the preservation of peace and order amongst all classes of society. And we cannot but believe that the visit with which your Majesty is graciously pleased to honour these districts is eminently calculated to aid both ourselves, and all other ministers of religion, in the work in which we are engaged, by leading men of all ranks to consider the nature and excellence of that form of government under which we live, to perceive the benefits arising from your Majesty's careful regard for the rights and liberties of your subjects, and to appreciate justly and gratefully the desire which is at all times shown by your Majesty for the welfare and happiness of your people.

We earnestly entreat your Majesty to accept this humble memorial of our respect and thankfulness for the many benefits we enjoy under your Majesty's protection, and we pray sincerely that it may please the Almighty Ruler of the Universe to send down blessings continually upon your Majesty, His Royal Highness the Prince Albert, and all other Members of your Royal Family.

Given under our Chapter Seal, this 10th day of October 1851.

Signed by desire and on behalf of the Chapter,

G. H. BOWERS, D. D. Dean.

To The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The Address of the Masters and Scholars of the Free Grammar School, Manchester.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, the High Master, Masters and Scholars of the ancient foundation of the Free Grammar School of Manchester, humbly desire to be permitted on the occasion of your Majesty's gracious visit to our town and neighbourhood, to approach your royal presence with this expression of our devoted loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person.

We venture to believe that among the means which, under God, have tended to the gradual advancement of the subjects of your Majesty's realm in sound instruction, and their confirmation in dutiful allegiance, none have in times past been more effectual in their degree than those foundations of classical and sacred learning which, whether by royal or by other munificence, scattered over the parishes and towns of our Country, form one of its characteristic features.

The object of our study is, that the ample foundation to which we belong, created upwards of three centuries ago by the liberality of a Prelate of the Church, and since surrounded by those arts of more modern enterprize and skill which shed on your Majesty's reign so peculiar a lustre, may contribute in full measure, by its unremitting culture of religious education and sound learning, to the welfare and progress of our age.

And it will be our constant prayer that, whether by these or by other methods, the advancement of all your Majesty's subjects in whatever tends to elevate their estimate of duty, and their perception of the noble, the useful, or the refined, may ever and uniformly have its legitimate fruit in their intelligent loyalty and steady devotion to your Royal Throne and Person.

NICHOLAS GERMON, M.A. High Master.
October 8, 1851.

Unto The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Presbytery of Lancashire.

May it please your Majesty,

Rejoicing, with all other classes of your Majesty's loyal subjects in this district of your Majesty's dominions, at the opportunity so graciously afforded them of approaching your Majesty's Person; and bearing in remembrance that to the House of Brunswick, and your Majesty's Protestant ancestors, they are, under God, to no inconsiderable extent indebted for the civil and religious liberty which it is their happiness to enjoy; the Presbytery of Lancashire, as part of the Presbyterian Church in England, animated by the spirit which has ever distinguished their fathers, humbly desire thus to give expression to their devoted loyalty to your Majesty's Person, and their unshaken attachment to the Protestant Constitution of these realms.

Deeply persuaded that much of the happiness of subjects must depend upon the personal character, as well as upon the official administration of their rulers, the Presbytery of Lancashire cannot but regard it as the special favour of a gracious Providence, that "He by whom kings reign and princes decree justice," should, in the present social and political condition of Europe, have placed on the Throne of these realms a Sovereign whose exemplary conduct in all the relations of life, and kindly interest in the welfare of the poorest of her people, while securing the loyalty and winning the affections of all classes of her subjects, cannot fail to increase their love of the domestic virtues, their reverence for the Sabbath and Sanctuary of Almighty God, their patriotism and fraternal anxiety for the common weal.

That the Most High God, the Father of Mercies, may long preserve your Majesty's life, and the life of your Majesty's illustrious Consort; that He may enrich your Majesty's reign with power, prosperity, and happiness; render your Majesty's Family a source of parental comfort and public good; and so endow your Majesty with the gifts of His heavenly grace, as that, at last, through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ, His Son, you may exchange an earthly for a heavenly crown, is the fervent prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most loyal and devoted subjects, the Presbytery of Lancashire.

Signed in name and by appointment of Presbytery, by ALEXANDER MUNRO, Moderator.

Trinity Presbyterian Church,
Manchester, the 1st day of October 1851.

May it please your Majesty,

The Clergy, Teachers, and Scholars in connexion with the Sunday and Weekly Schools of Worsley, Walkden, and Ellenbrook, approach your Majesty on this auspicious occasion with the sincere expression of their devoted loyalty and attachment to your Majesty, His Royal Highness Prince Albert, and your august Family.

The visit of your Majesty to our munificent Patron most powerfully demands such an expression of our sentiments; for in no portion of these realms has the epoch of your Majesty's accession been connected with greater cause for thankfulness than in these three districts.

Previously to that event, of happy memory, a small extra-parochial Chapel, at Ellenbrook, was the only place of worship within the distance of three miles, which our Established Church possessed, and great moral and physical degradation accompanied the want of religious instruction and beneficent superintendence which prevailed.

But it has so pleased Divine Providence that the very year in which your Majesty was mercifully called to the Throne of these realms, should be also a year of regeneration to these districts, and that each succeeding year should add a blessing to our labouring population.

Since that time, Sunday, Daily, Infants', and other Schools have sprung up in rapid succession; Libraries, a Dispensary, and Clubs for various purposes have been established; two Churches have been erected, and their officiating Clergy provided, thus offering additional means of worshipping God, free of any payment whatever, to upwards of 1,300 of the population.

Through the Divine blessing on these means, aided as they have been by the Acts passed by your Majesty prohibiting the daughters of our poorer inhabitants from the unfeminine labour of the coal-pit, as well as by the great impetus given to education by the grants and inspection of the Committee of Council, whose Examiners have already been enabled to pronounce the Schools of Worsley as amongst the best in this county, the happiest results have taken place.

It is not without pride, mingled with the deepest gratitude, where it is so justly due, that we present before your Majesty this day nearly 1,400 children of our labouring population, now receiving Daily or Sunday instruction according to the pure principles of our Protestant Established Church, with nearly 200 Sunday Teachers, from a population not exceeding 5,000, within the three districts immediately connected with our generous Patron, whom your Majesty has graciously delighted to honour.

We believe, on the one hand, that it will greatly rejoice your Majesty to be thus assured, from personal inspection, that the great and good cause of sound Religious Education which your Majesty and your Royal Consort have so much at heart, is here progressing in some degree proportionate to your desires. And on the other hand, we are persuaded, that thus to behold their Queen and the Royal Princes, of whom they have so often heard, and for whom they have so often prayed, will leave upon the hearts of even the youngest of these Children indelible impressions of duty, loyalty, and love, and cause them to join their Pastors and Teachers in offering up more ardent prayers that Almighty God may long preserve your Majesty upon the Throne of these realms, and bless your Royal Consort and your hopeful Children, "in health and wealth long to live, strengthened to overcome all your enemies," if such there be; "and finally, after this life, to attain everlasting joy and felicity."

Signed in behalf of the Clergy, Teachers, and Scholars,

ST. VINCENT BEECHEY, M.A.
Incumbent of Worsley.

Worsley, October 11, 1851.

The following ADDRESSES were also presented to His Royal Highness Prince ALBERT, and were received very graciously:—

To His Royal Highness The PRINCE ALBERT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

We, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Salford, desire to greet your Royal Highness with a cordial welcome on the occasion of this most gracious visit of Her Majesty and your Royal Highness to this borough.

We joyfully avail ourselves of the opportunity thus afforded of expressing to your Royal Highness our unfeigned esteem and regard for your personal character, and the high sense we entertain of the exemplary manner in which you have discharged the duties of your exalted station in every relation of life; qualities which have obtained for your Royal Highness the sincere respect and attachment of all classes of Her Majesty's subjects.

The deep interest your Royal Highness has taken in the promotion of the manufacturing and commercial industry, and the improvement of the physical, social, and moral condition of the people, is a proof of your princely regard for the interests of this great Empire. But the philanthropic labours of your Royal Highness have not been confined to the promotion of the welfare and happiness of the Country of your adoption alone; for it is universally acknowledged that the complete success which has attended the Exhibition of the Industry of all Nations is mainly attributable to the enlightened views and benevolent exertions of your Royal Highness, and history will hand down your name to posterity as one of the greatest benefactors of the human race, and as a practical teacher of the arts of peace to the Nations of the world.

In conclusion we devoutly pray that a life so necessary to the happiness of our beloved Queen, so valuable as an example to our future Monarch, and so essential to the best interests of the Country, may long be spared to us, and that your Royal Highness may, during Her Majesty's prosperous and happy reign, see the principles you have inculcated generally embraced, and the benefits you have conferred enjoyed, by a free, contented, and united people.

To His Royal Highness The PRINCE ALBERT.

We, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Manchester, rejoice in the opportunity afforded us by the visit of your Royal Highness to give expression to the feelings of regard which we entertain for your Royal Highness as the Consort of our beloved Queen, and of our admiration of the many excellencies by which you have been distinguished during your residence in this Country.

In the person of your Royal Highness we recognize the descendant of a family renowned in the annals of Europe for having extended the liberties and civilization of mankind by promoting the advancement of art and science, and by steadfastly maintaining, amidst the struggles of conflicting parties, the sacred rights of mental freedom and conscience.

These virtues, congenial to the spirit and feelings of the British people, and which have impressed an enduring fame on the memory of your ancestors, have been worthily emulated by your Royal Highness; not, indeed, as with them, amidst civil strife and warfare, but in accordance with the happily altered circumstances of society.

On many of the important subjects that now deeply interest the public mind, your Royal Highness has displayed an earnest and benevolent solicitude to remove existing evil and suffering; and, by the general encouragement of industry and genius, to increase the legitimate demand for employment; and as a consequence, most satisfactorily to secure a lasting and progressive improvement in the condition of the people.

To advance these and kindred purposes of high social value, your Royal Highness proposed that vast design, of which the perfect and triumphant development has been realized in the Exhibition of the Industry of all Nations. That this Country and the World at large may derive the benefits contemplated by your Royal Highness, as the result of that glorious experiment, is our sanguine hope and confident expectation; and we now most respectfully tender to your Royal Highness our congratulations on its magnificent success.

That your Royal Highness and our beloved Queen may long live in the mutual enjoyment of every happiness—a blessing to each other, to your children, and to the Nation, is our sincere and affectionate prayer.

To His Royal Highness The PRINCE ALBERT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

We, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Oldham, are anxious to avail ourselves of the happy occasion of the visit of your Royal Consort and yourself to this county, in order to express the warmest feelings of attachment to the person of your Royal Highness and our deep sense of your exalted virtues.

The incessant and successful endeavours of your Royal Highness to advance in every way the welfare of Her Majesty's subjects, and especially the humbler and more laborious classes of them, and to encourage and extend the feeling of a generous amity towards other Nations, have approved themselves to the understandings and sympathies of the British people, and created a regard and esteem for your Royal Highness which will never be obliterated.

To your Royal Highness the gratitude of this district is eminently due for the agreeable and useful opportunity presented to us by the Great Exhibition of the Works of Industry of all Nations. For this great public benefit we are mainly indebted to your Royal Highness, and the nature of the employments of ourselves and our neighbours has rendered it an occasion of peculiar value to us.

In conclusion, we ardently hope that your Royal Highness may long be enabled to pursue the same career of usefulness, and endear yourself still more greatly to all classes of our fellow-subjects.
