WHITEHALL, June 1852.

THE following ADDRESSES of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted by William David, Earl of Mansfield, Her Majesty's Commissioner, to the Right Honourable Spencer Horatio Walpole, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him presented to the Queen; which Addresses Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:—

To The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland met in this General Assembly, beg leave to give utterance to our grateful sense of the warm satisfaction with which your Majesty has condescended to contemplate the approach of our present Meeting, and to express your assurance that our consultations will be guided by a due regard to the important interests committed to our charge, and to the maintenance and promotion of the peace and happiness of the Church of Scotland and the people at large.

Remembering also with heartfelt gratitude the many occasions on which former Assemblies have been assured of your Majesty's determination to maintain the Church of Scotland in the full possession of all its rights and privileges, we cannot fail to be encouraged by the unreserved confidence with which your Majesty has resolved to entrust the interests of this Church to our care, and to rely on the prudence and moderation which, in your Majesty's estimation, has long distinguished the deliberations of our predecessors, and we cherish the hope that your Majesty's favourable expectation may be fulfilled, that through the grace of the Almighty God we shall be guided into all the truth, so that our counsels and acts may be dictated by sound wisdom and discretion.

In the appointment of the Right Honourable the Earl of Mansfield as your Majesty's High Commissioner and Representative, we recognize an unequivocal proof of your Majesty's good will to this National Church, the Ministers and Elders of which are fully aware of the eminent talents, the ardent loyalty, and enlightened patriotism, and the numerous excellencies of character which have determined your Majesty's choice.

The Royal Warrant for two thousand pounds to be applied to the reformation of the Highlands and Islands, has been received by us with the deepest gratitude, and it is our anxious desire, with all diligence and good fidelity, to administer the fund thus placed at our disposal so as to promote effectually the sacred and momentous objects to which it has been destined.

That the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom kings reign and princes decree justice, may in His abundant grace pour down upon your Majesty, your Royal Consort, and all the Royal Family, the choicest blessings both spiritual and temporal; that you may long reign in peace and felicity over a pious, loyal, free, and prosperous people; and that finally you may dwell for ever in the House of the Lord Most High, the King of Glory and the King of Saints, is the earnest prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most loyal and most faithful subjects,

The Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, by LEWIS W. FORBES, Moderator.

Edinburgh, 24th May 1852.

To The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

We, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland convened in this General Assembly, approach the Throne with the expressions of our fervent congratulations on the recurrence of your Majesty's natal day.

We have cause for unfeigned and constant thanksgiving to Almighty God that we enjoy the inestimable advantage of living under the sway of a Sovereign who maintains, with consummate dignity, her high position, and exhibits to her subjects of every rank, a bright example of domestic virtue combined with universal performance of public duty.

It is with the most cordial satisfaction that we assure your Majesty of the universal loyalty and devoted attachment of the population of that portion of the United Kingdom to which our ministrations extend, and we have ample opportunities of knowing that these loyal and affectionate feelings have been animated to the highest degree of intensity by your Majesty's annual visits to Scotland, during which all ranks, from the highest to the lowest, have witnessed with delight the countenance and support given by your Majesty to the administration of divine ordinances, and to every wisely concerted measure for advancing the improvement and happiness of the people.

That the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ may long preserve your Majesty, enriching you, and your Royal Consort and your Royal Offspring, with the abundant communications of His grace upon earth, and make you meet at last for the inheritance of a heavenly crown, are the humble and fervent prayers of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, loyal, and obedient subjects,

The Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland met in this General Assembly.

Given at Edinburgh, this 24th day of May 1852.

In name of the Assembly,
