TUESDAY, APRIL 5, 1853.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 11th day of March 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend an Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her present Majesty, for reducing, under certain circumstances, the duties payable upon books and engravings," it is enacted that whenever Her Majesty has, by virtue of any authority vested in Her for that purpose, declared that the authors, inventors, designers, engravers, or makers of any books, prints, or other works of art, first published in any Foreign Country or Countries, shall have the privilege of copyright therein, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she think fit, from time to time, by any Order in Council, to declare that from and after a day to be named in such Order, in lieu of the duties of customs from time to time payable on the importation into the United Kingdom of books, prints, and drawings, there shall be payable only such duties of customs as are mentioned in the said Act :

And whereas Her Majesty hath this day, by virtue of the authority vested in Her for that purpose, declared that the authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers of books, prints, and certain other works of art, first published within the Duchies of Anhalt-Dessau and Anhalt-Bernbourg, shall have the privilege of copyright therein :

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Act, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the first day of April next, in lieu of the duties of customs now payable on the importation into the United Kingdom of books, prints, and drawings, published at any place within the dominions of the said Duchies, there shall be payable only the duties of customs following ; that is to say :—

On books, originally produced in the United Kingdom, and republished at any place within the dominions of the said Duchies, a duty of two pounds ten shillings per cwt.

On books published or republished at any place within the dominions of the said Duchies, and not being books originally produced in the United Kingdom, a duty of fifteen shillings per cwt.

On prints and drawings, plain or coloured, published at any place within the dominions of the said Duchies,

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary orders herein accordingly.

C. C. GREVILLE.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 11th day of March 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas a Convention has been concluded between Her Majesty, His Majesty the King of Prussia, and their Serene Highnesses the Dukes of Anhalt-Dessau and Anhalt-Bernbourg, whereby their said Serene Highnesses have acceded to a certain Convention concluded at Berlin on the thirteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, for the reciprocal protection of copyright against piracy, between Her Majesty and His Majesty the King of Prussia, and to the special provisions contained in sections 1, 2, 3, and 4, of a certain Protocol dated thirteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and annexed to the said last-mentioned Convention.

And whereas due protection has been secured within the dominions of the said Duchies for the authors of, and parties interested in books, dramatic works, or musical compositions, and the inventors, designers, or engravers of, and parties interested in prints and articles of sculpture, and the authors, inventors, designers, or engravers of, or parties interested in any other works whatsoever of literature and the fine arts, in which the laws of Great Britain and of the said Duchies do now or may hereafter give their respective subjects the privilege of copyright, and for the lawful representatives or assigns of any such authors, inventors, designers, or engravers, with regard to any similar works first published within the dominions of Her Majesty.

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, and by virtue of the authority committed to Her by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of Her reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law relating to International Copyright," doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the day of the date of this Order, the authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers of any of the following works; that is to say:—books, prints, articles of sculpture, dramatic works, musical compositions, and any other works of literature and the fine arts in which the laws of Great Britain give to British subjects the privilege of copyright, and the executors, administrators, and assigns of such authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers respectively, shall, as respects works first published within the said Duchies after the first day of April one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, have the privilege of copyright therein, for a period equal to the term of copyright which authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers of similar works, respectively, first published in the United Kingdom, are by law entitled to, provided such books, prints, articles of sculpture, dramatic works, musical compositions, or other works of literature and the fine arts, have been registered, and copies thereof have been delivered according to the requirements of the said recited Act, within twelve calendar months after the first publication thereof, in any part of the said Duchies.

And it is hereby further ordered, that the authors of dramatic pieces and musical compositions which shall, after the said first day of April one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, be first publicly represented or performed within the said Duchies, shall have the sole liberty of representing or performing in any part of the British Dominions such dramatic pieces or musical compositions, during a period equal to the period during which authors of dramatic pieces and musical compositions first publicly represented or performed in the United Kingdom, are entitled by law to the sole liberty of representing or performing the same; provided such dramatic pieces or musical compositions have been registered, and copies thereof have been delivered according to the requirements of the said recited Act, within twelve calendar months after the time of their being first represented or performed in any part of the said Duchies.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. GREVILLE.

EAST INDIA-HOUSE, March 23, 1853.

THE COURT OF DIRECTORS of The EAST INDIA COMPANY republish for the information of Proprietors in Europe of the Five per Cent. Stock of the Transfer Loan of India, the following Notification which has been issued by the Government of India, and published in the Calcutta Gazette Extraordinary of the 22d of January, 1853.

Fort-William, Financial Department, the 22d January, 1853.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 1.

NOTICE is Hereby Given, that the Five per Cent. Transfer Loan, comprising the book debt of the 31st December, 1834; the book debt of the 10th August, 1835; the book debt of the 15th January, 1836; and the promissory notes of the loan dated the 31st December, 1834, will be discharged on the 22d day of April, 1854, when payment will be made at the option of the creditors, either in cash in India, or by bills on the Honourable the Court of Directors, at twelve months' date, and two shillings and one penny per sicca rupee, with power to the Court to postpone payment of those bills for one, two, or three years, upon allowing interest at five per cent. per annum, for the period of postponement.

No. 2.

In accordance with the advertisement of the Government of India in the Financial Department, of the 17th June, 1835, this notice of payment shall be considered as equivalent to a tender of payment on the said 22d day of April, 1854, and all interest will cease from that day.

No. 3.

Proprietors of the stock and promissory notes in the Five per Cent. Transfer Loan will be permitted, on or before the 22d day of July, 1853, to subscribe the amount of such stock or promissory notes into a new loan, to be held in the form of stock, and to bear an interest at the rate of four per cent. per annum, from the said 22d day of April, 1854. Such interest to be paid to proprietors resident in India at the place of registry, and if resident in Europe, at their option either in cash in India or by bills on the Court, at twelve months' date, and two shillings and one penny the sicca rupee.

No. 4.

Proprietors who may subscribe their Five per Cent. Transfer Loan Stock or promissory notes of that loan into the Four per Cent. Transfer Loan, shall not be subjected, on this operation, to the fees prescribed in the rules for the Government agency.

No. 5.

The stock of the new loan will be transferable only in books to be kept in Bengal, at Madras, at Bombay, and in London, and not by endorsement of stock receipts; and the stock accounts may, at the option of the proprietors, be transferred from the books in India to the books in London, and vice versa as in the case of stock of the Five per Cent. Transfer Loan.

No. 6.

After the transposition of stock accounts to the London books, the interest payable on such stock will be issued at the East India House, at the rate of two shillings and one penny per sicca rupee, by dividend warrants, payable at the Bank of England, at the same time as when the bills would have become due had the remittance of interest previously been received by bills of exchange drawn upon the Court, under the option allowed in the 3d article of the present notice.

No. 7.

Proprietors of stock in the Five per Cent. Transfer Loan, whose accounts may be open in the London books on the 22d day of April, 1854, who shall not, on or before the 22d day of July, 1853, express their assent, in writing, at the East India House in London, to the conversion of their Five per Cent. Transfer Loan Stock into stock of the Four per Cent. Transfer Loan, will receive payment of their principal, together with the interest due thereon, up to the 22d day of April, 1854, by a cash payment in London, on the 25th day of April, 1855, the date at which the bills would become due if the remittance of principal and interest were made from India by means of bills of exchange drawn upon the Court of Directors; the Court, however, reserving to themselves, in accordance with the stipulation in the first article of this notice, the power to postpone payment of such principal for one, two, or three years, upon allowing interest at five per cent. per annum for the period of postponement.

No. 8.

No part of the Four per Cent. Transfer Loan shall be paid off before the 22d day of April, 1874; and whenever it shall be redeemed, a previous notice of fifteen months shall be given by public advertisement, which notice may be issued at any time after the 21st of January, 1873; payment shall then be made, at the option of the creditors, either in cash in India, or by bills upon the Court of Directors, at twelve months' date, and two shillings and one penny the sicca rupee, with power to the Court to postpone payment of those bills for one, two, or three years, upon allowing interest at four per cent. per annum, for the period of postponement. The notice of payment, duly advertised as above, and published in the Government Gazette of Calcutta, shall be considered as equivalent to a tender of payment on the date advertised for discharge; and all interest will cease from that day.

No. 9.

Proprietors of stock in the Four per Cent. Transfer Loan, whose stock accounts may be open on the London books on the 22d day of April, 1874, will be paid the amount of principal, together with the interest due thereon up to that date, by a cash payment in London, on the 25th day of April, 1875, at the rate of two shillings and one penny the sicca rupee; such payment of principal to be subject to the power of postponement upon the conditions mentioned in the preceding article.

By Order of the Most Noble the Governor-General of India in Council.

J. A. DORIN,
Secretary to the Government of India.

The Court of Directors also give notice that Proprietors to whom it may be inconvenient to attend at the East India House to signify their assent to the conversion of their stock of the Five per Cent. Transfer Loan into Four per Cent. Stock, under Article 7 of the above Notification, may obtain a proper form for signature by making a written application, addressed to the Secretary, at the East India House.

JAMES C. MELVILL, Secretary.
